UNDERCLASSMEN

JIVIN' JUNIORS

Class of '79 officers worked diligently to lead the junior class in earning money for the prom. Projects included candy sales, selling mums for the football homecoming, bake sales, and cleaning up the park after home football games. As a new money-maker the juniors introduced the CHS students to "Secret Suckers" on Valentine's Day and "Secret Bunnies" at Easter. Students bought suckers for the certain girl or guy they'd been eyeing, and junior class members delivered the goodies without letting them know who sent them. This good idea earned $75 for the juniors.

SUPER SOPHOMORES

As tradition has it, sophomores chose class rings and started to earn money through various projects. The rings whose style was chosen by the members of the class, were rectangular shaped. Money making projects included bake sales and selling jewelry. The jewelry sales were very successful and brought $1500 to the class. In their second year at C.H.S. the class of 1980 found many new activities to involve themselves in.

FINE FRESHMEN

In their first year at C.H.S., the class of 1981 started out the year gradually fitting into high school life. At first they were scared and anxious but as the year progressed they became more and more confident and spirited. Bake sales and cleaning up the gym after home basketball games headed the money makers for the freshmen.

SOCIAL STUDIES

SOCIAL STUDIES: Carl Dulin, Larry Durbin, Denny Schrock, Bill Wallace, Steve Caples

Highlight of 1920–Present class is a study of the attack on Pearl Harbor which is illustrated by Dave Whitman.

Ann Dannemiller is ready for Mr. Herbst to take his oath in a mock trial in Mr. Dulin's Supreme Court and Constitutional Law class.

Junior Mark Dakoski is wary of his decision to let Mr. Wallace tie him to his facsimile of a Puritan dunking chair.

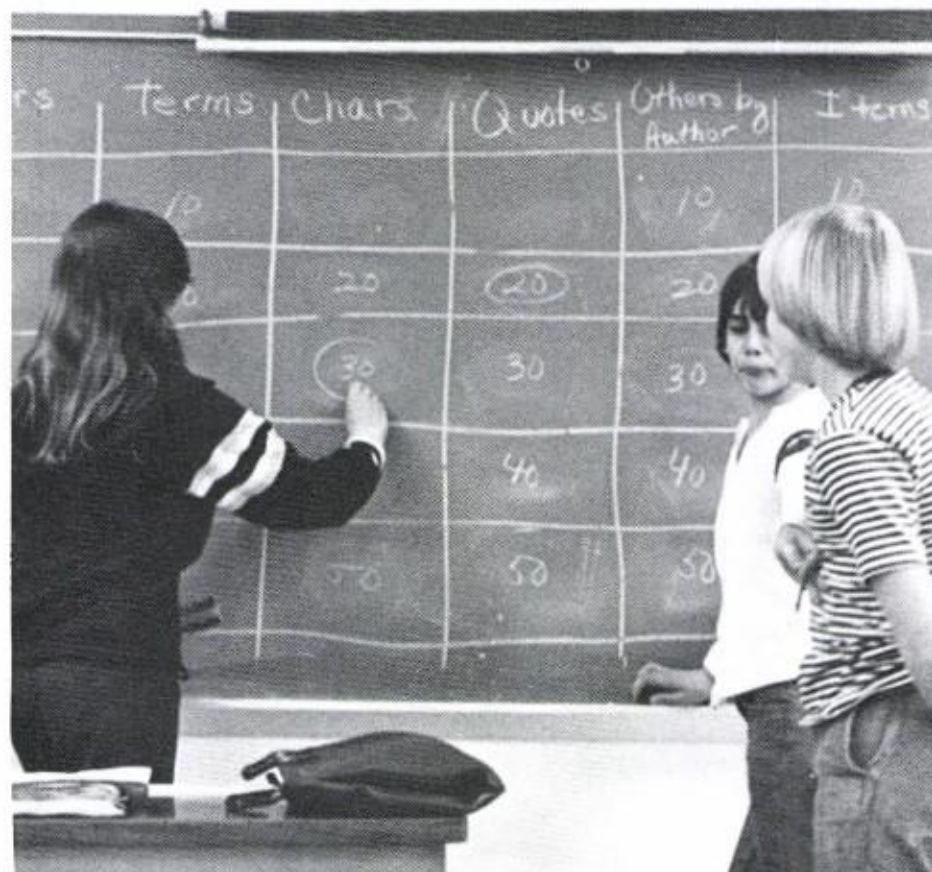

ENGLISH

ENGLISH: Doris Murray, Jean Sturpe, Sara Hubacher, Larry Bolman

Characters from Chaucer's Canterbury Tales are brought to life by Jerry Underwood, Barb Bailey, Linda Farrell and Dianna Troyer.

Team Jeopardy enlivens Types of Literature class for Maureen Hammer, Don Sorrel and Brian Koval.

SCIENCE AND MATH

Aside from doing proofs, Veronica Gromofsky, Todd Shaw and Jim Frizell do colorful geometric designs.

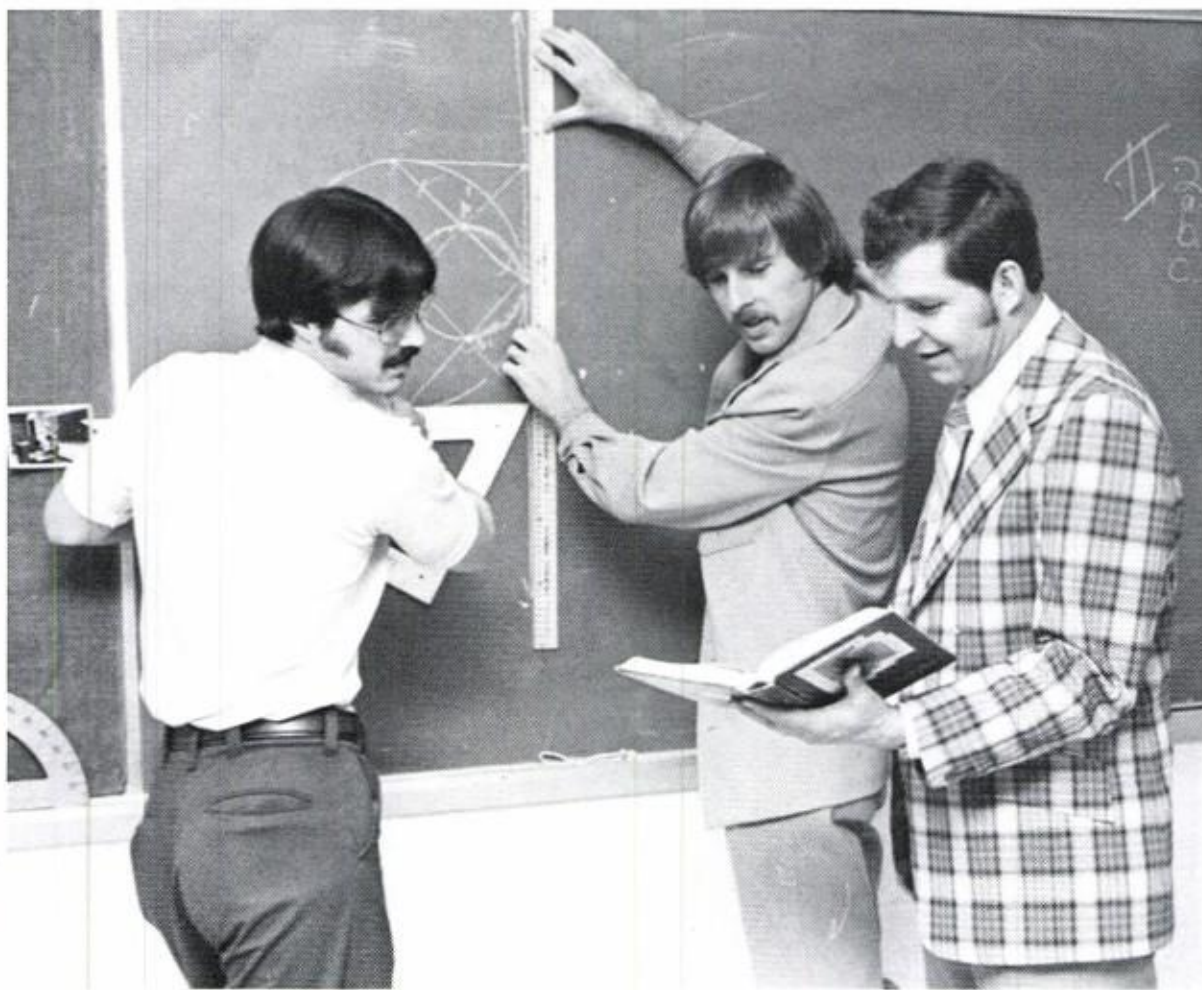

Rena Miller and Joann Pol experiment with sound, a bell jar and vacuum pump.

If class time is used efficiently, books can remain in the lockers overnight.

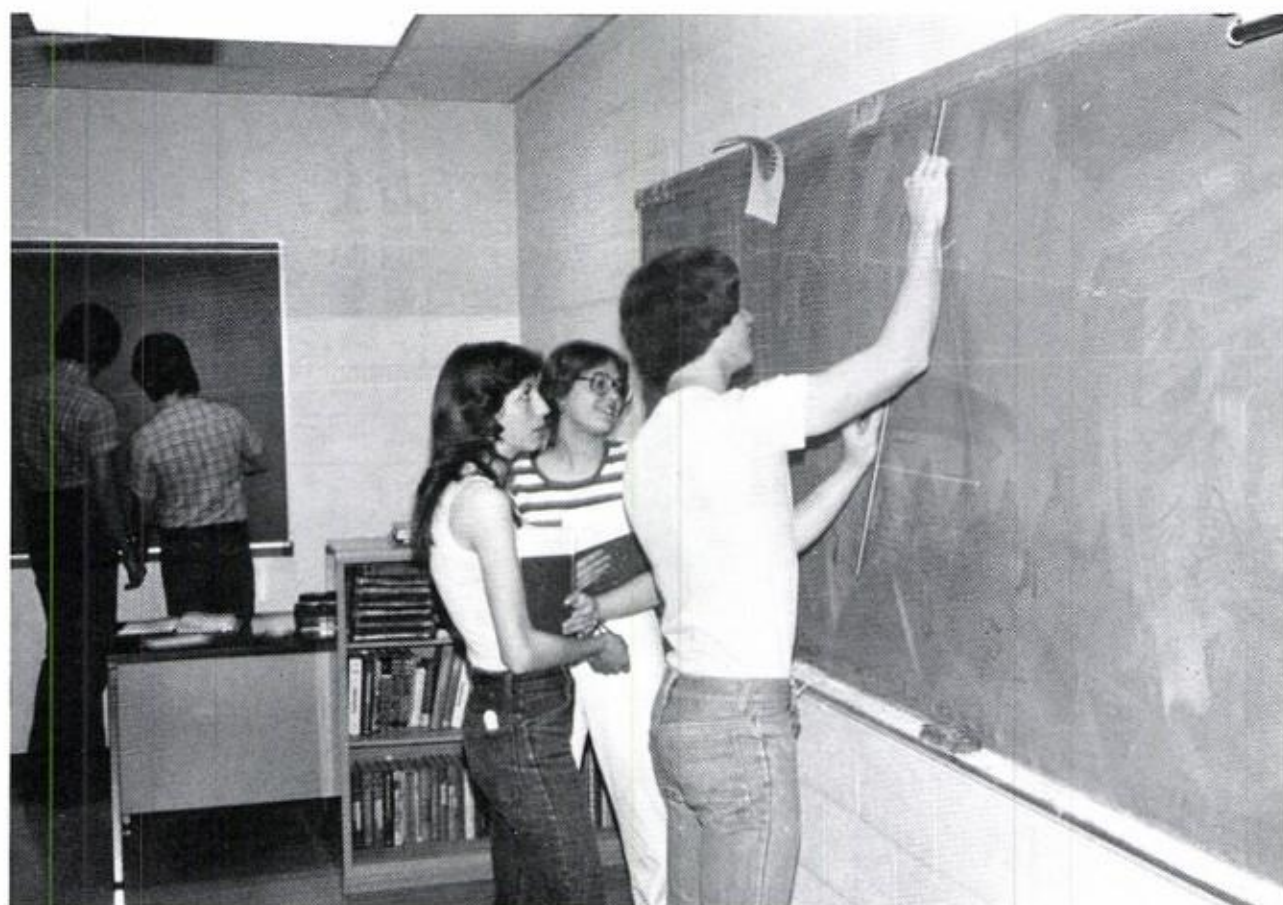

SCIENCE: Jon Papp, Dave Parfitt, Ermie Moore

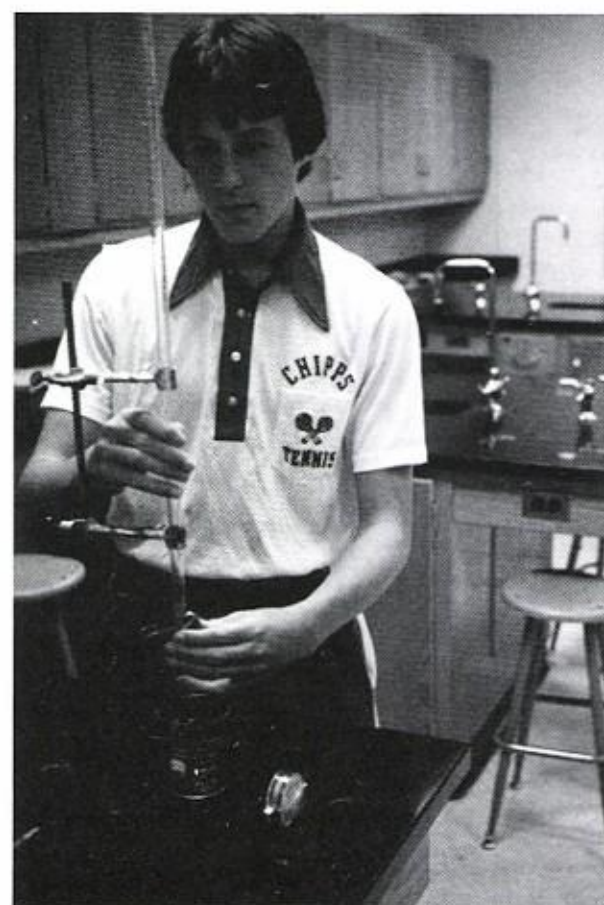

MATH: Mike Motil, Tom Buch, Bob Landis

Mirrors are used to measure proportions indirectly by Ashley Kendrick, Ceelia Willis and Todd Watkins

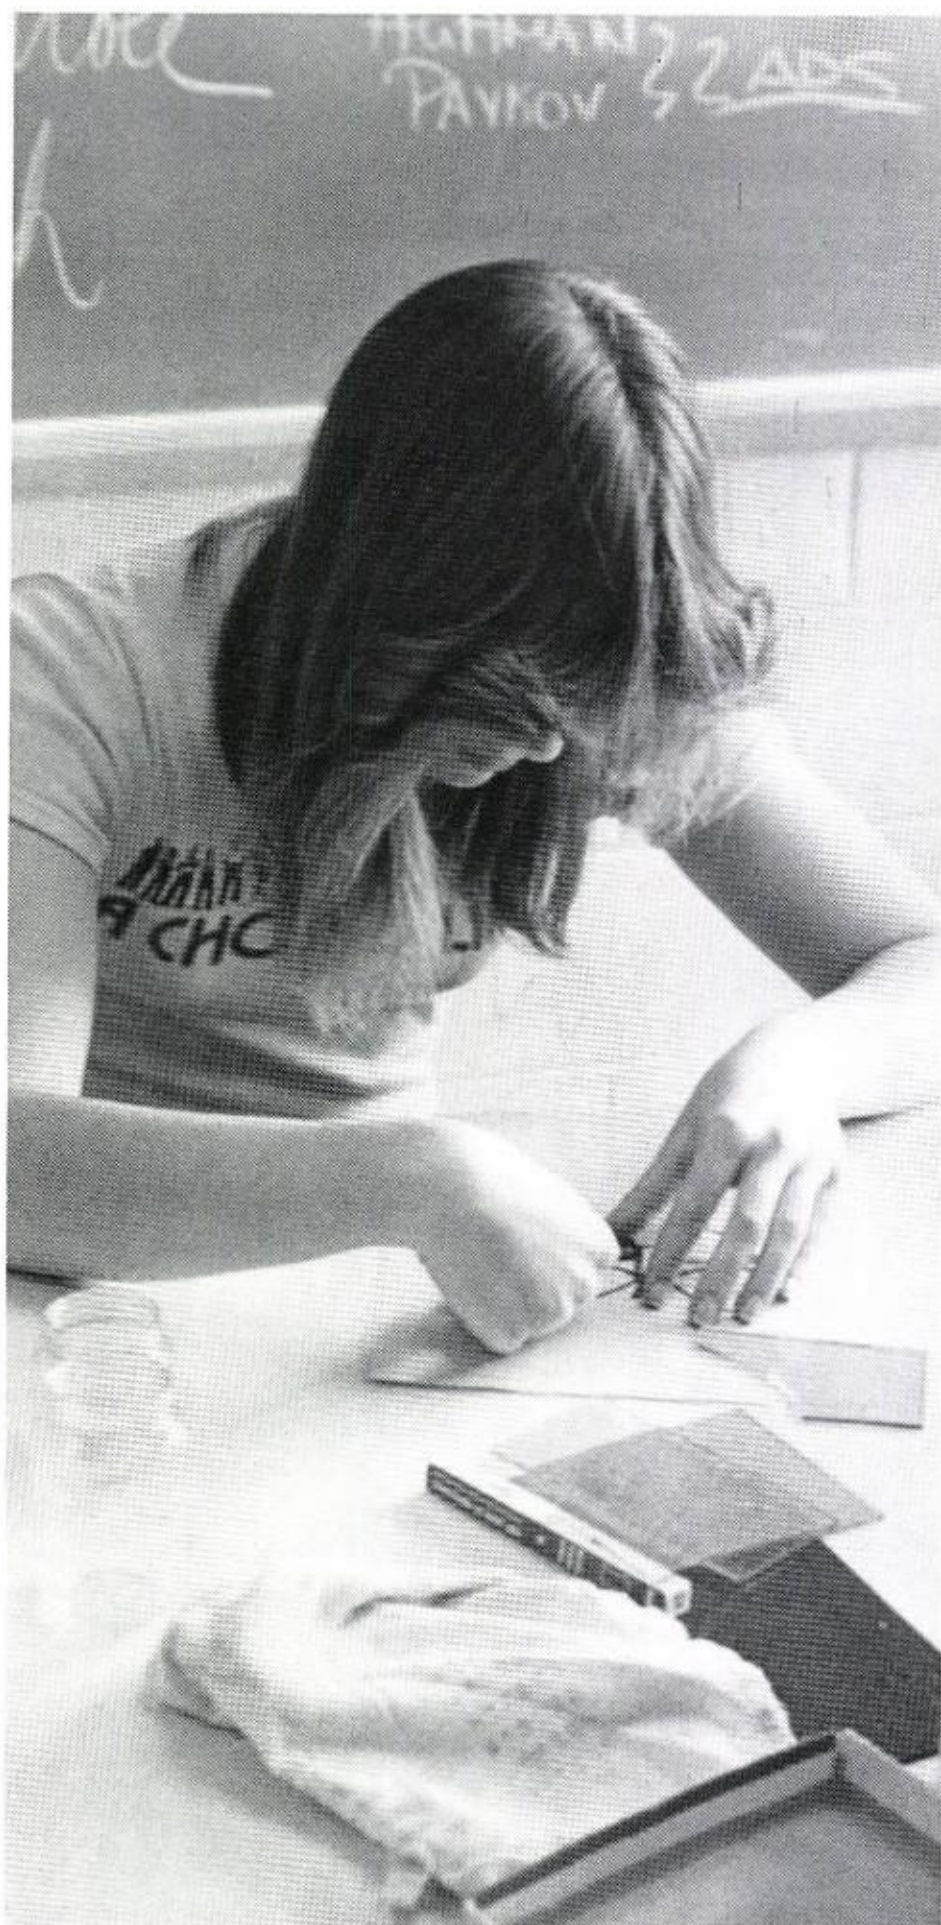

Lisa Baker, Rhonda Johnston and Jeff Krska search for the center of a triangle with the help of a ruler.

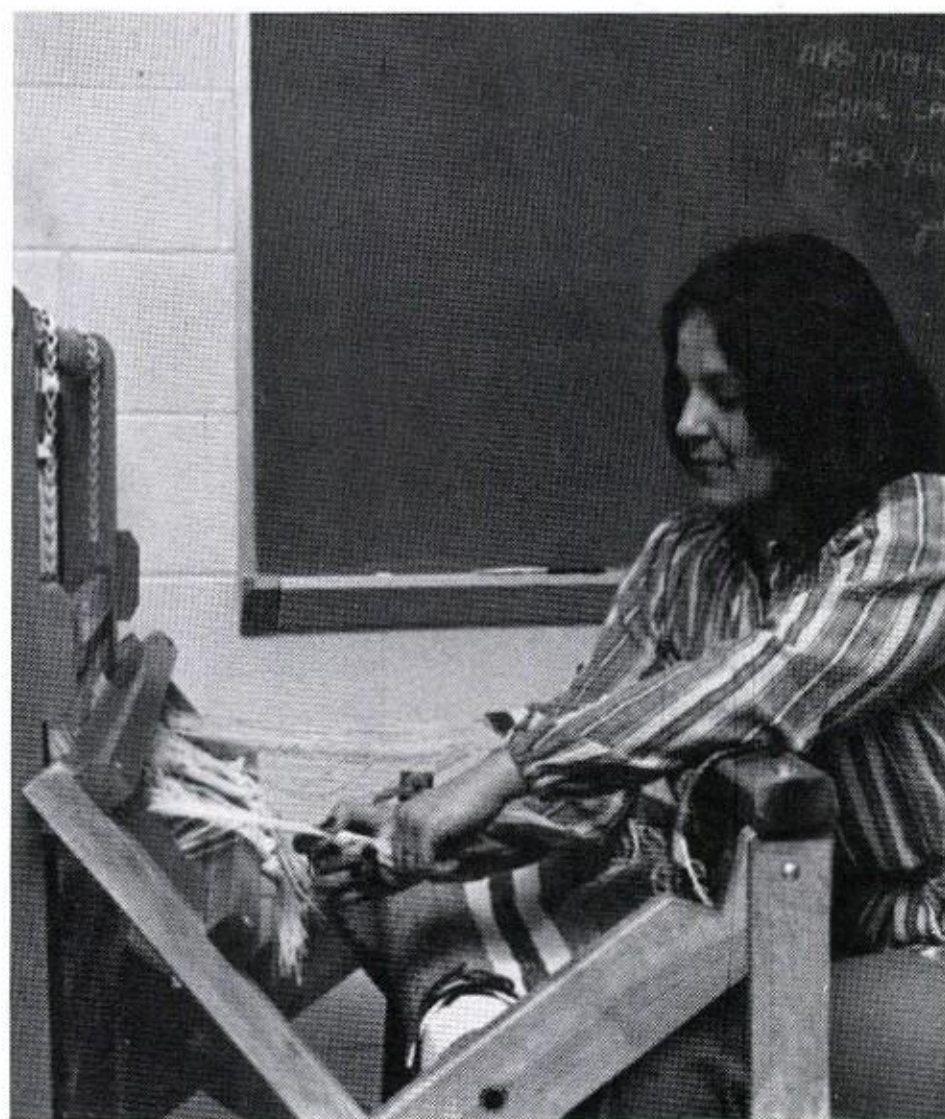

Litmus paper is utilized in a titration experiment by Jon Hartney.

ARTS AND VOCATIONAL

Stained glass, a new course offered by the art department, takes concentration and a steady hand for Treasure Steele.

ART: Denise Robbins

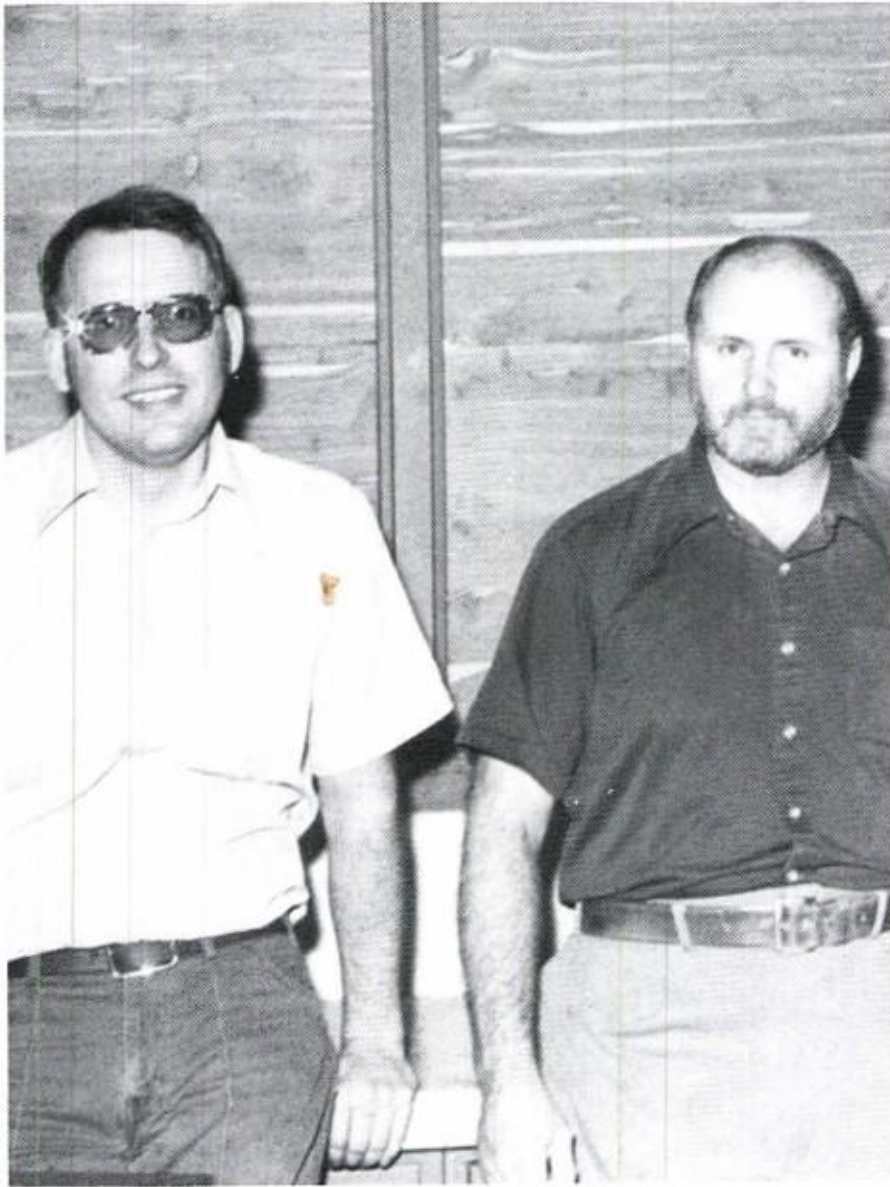

It usually takes an entire 9 weeks period to finish a project such as the one Ken Petit has tackled with the help of Mr. Miller.

HOME ECONOMICS: Marlene Dennison, Eloise Bishop, Jane Buch

MUSIC: Donna Robertson, Dennis Herris

INDUSTRIAL ARTS: Alan Ifft, Richard Miller

A project of Home Ec 1 is a pre-school party. A skit performed by class members has its young audience enthralled.

P.E. and Special Ed

Study hall proves to be worthwhile for Kathy Tacchio and Michelle Sales as Michelle teaches herself to type.

Daredevils as they may seem, climbing the ropes to the top is merely fun for the boys in Mr. Moore's class.

Spec. Ed.: Denny Lloyd, Chris Cakra, Chuck Hartz

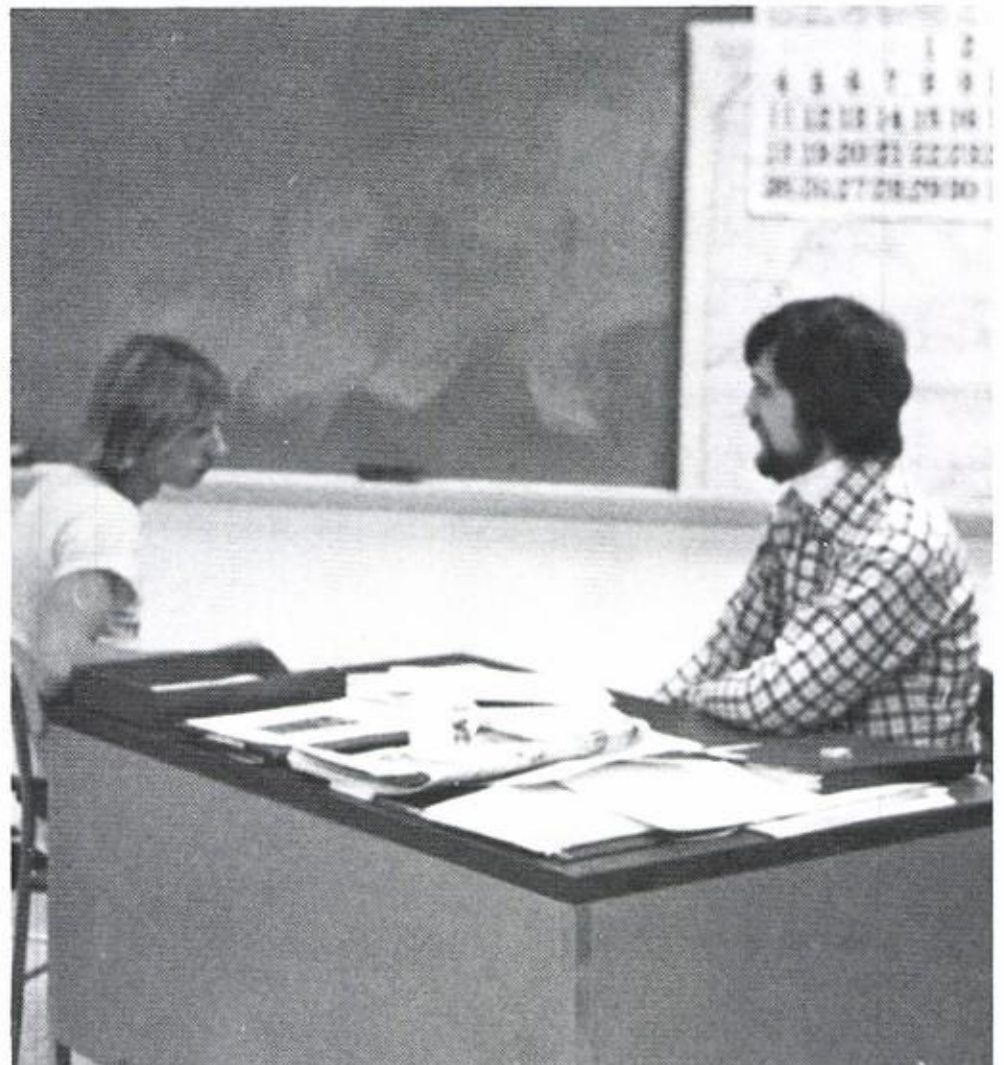

When everyone else takes a break from the day to eat, Carol Stephens and Kelly Stahl go to work cleaning up after them.

PHYS. ED: Deb Dobney, Ernie Moore

DRIVER'S ED.: Terry Dennison

Practice and the use of the videotape will give David Duncan the experience he needs when it's time for a real job interview.

BUSINESS AND SERVICES

COUNSELORS: Mr. Casey, Mr. Johnson.

LIBRARIANS: Mrs. Feesler, Mrs. Watkins.

A filmstrip and presentation given by Mr. Jenis makes freshmen aware of the opportunities available at the JVS.

With well-trained students like Chuck MacLane around teachers don't have to worry about setting up audio-visual machines.

A demonstration on the tasteful use of cosmetics provided by Montgomery Ward is a feature of Exploratory Business class.

SENIOR BLOCK: Front Row; E. Vielhaber, Mr. Novinc, S. Funk, Row 2; S. Wilson, C. Minor, Row 3; C. Keller, V. Young, K. Hanawalt, L. Jett.

Exploring the business world Brian Pelfrey, Bruce Vetter, Lori Young and Lisa Edwards practice selling their elite products.

In typing 1-B Kris Kallenborn practices the basics to sharpen her skills at typing letters and transcripts.

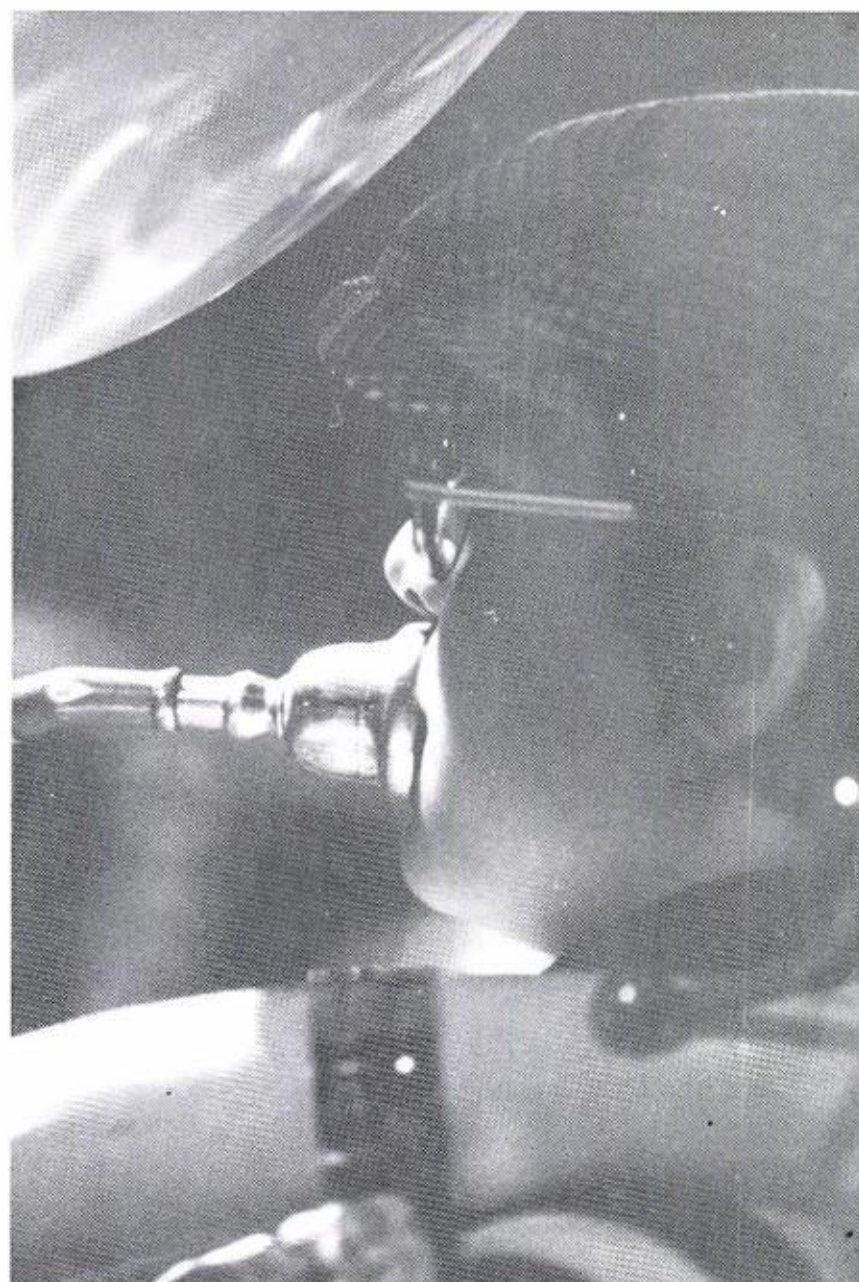

MUSIC, MUSIC, MUSIC

The Marching Chipps Band under the direction of Mr. Dennis Herris participated in contests at Wadsworth, Coventry, and Newton Falls. They also participated in the Wayne County Bandarama and the Canal Fulton Christmas parade. The band also made a return appearance at a Cleveland Cavaliers halftime show.

The Chippewa High School Choir, directed by Mrs. Robertson, consisted of 22 members. The choir performed at the Christmas and Pop Concerts and Lions Club. They also participated in the Smithville Festival.

STAGE BAND: Front Row; D. Purdy, B. Dannemiller, S. Rhodes, Row 2; V. Young, L. Farrell, Mr. Herris, R. Delaney, Row 3; B. Perone, J. Oslivinik, T. Bernatovicz, J. Grigsby, S. Purdy.

Marching is a skill in itself, but marching while carrying and playing a heavy tuba requires even more coordination for Jeff Weinsheimer.

CONCERT & MARCHING BAND: Front Row; R. Johnston, J. Stiles, L. Grigsby, K. Walsh, D. Telin, E. Kraemer, C. Allen, Director Mr. Herris, Row 2; L. Hohenshil, S. Jarvis, M. Gorsuch, C. Rhodes, M. The footrest used occassionally by Mrs. Bailey is to aid her recovery from surgery in March.

Public relations with the small folk at Hazel Harvey goes with the cafeteria job held by OWA students Dave Duncan and Bryan Yurick.

Coaches Steve Caples, Dennis Schrock, and Mike Motil's morning hall duty frees them for practice right after school.

Clara the clown provides attention-getting special effects for Carol Boyan's storybook reading in Speech class.

This year's Home Ec I students are immortalized on a wall hanging by student teacher Mrs. Cathy Motil from Akron University.

D.C. DOINGS

This year our nation's capital hosted sixty-four members of the class of '78 the week of March 13th. The class toured the city and saw many of its highlights. They visited the National Art Museum, the Smithsonian and a night visit to the memorials. The trip was highlighted by dinner at the Golden Table and "The Mighty Gents," a play at the Kennedy Center.

In anticipation of seeing Jimmy Carter, Jeff Grigsby, Barb Bailey and Mr. Dulin stand in front of the White House.

Washington D.C. attracts visitors from all over. Diana Cook, Ann Danne-miller and Denise Foraker talk with twins from England.

Denise Van Horn, Mrs. Lepley and Mrs. Van Horn prepare for the senior D.C. dinner and raffle.

Sleep is a commodity in short supply. Bruce Steiner and Marty Creed show the signs of a sleepless week.

CLERK ASST., CLERK: V. Hartel, B. Naglic.

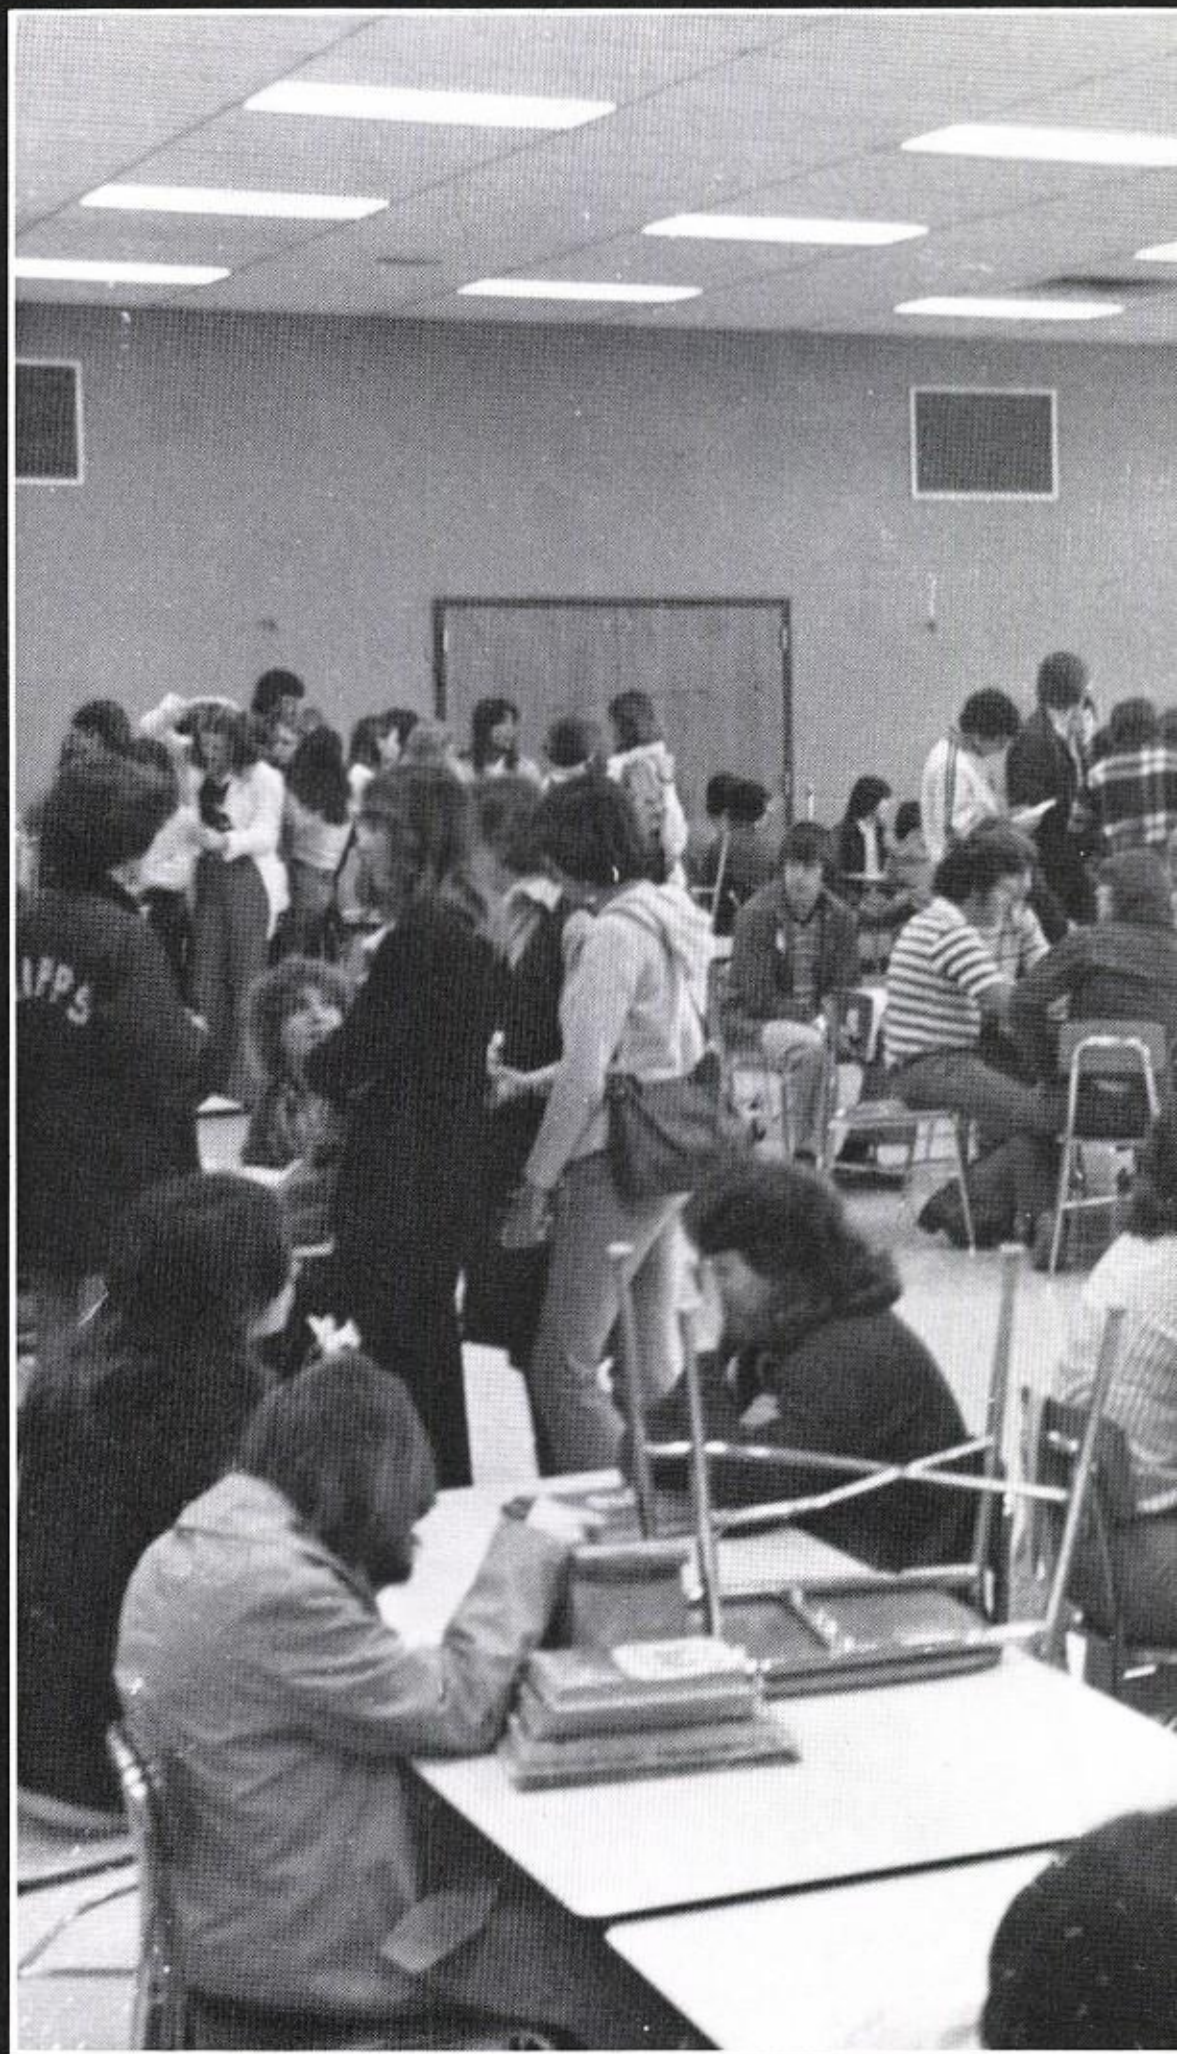

BUS DRIVERS: Front Row; J. Stephens, B. Jarrett, B. Santmeyer, Row 2; J. Keller, B. Burns, P. Neel, C. Sales, J. Nash, F. Busson, J. Bartram.

COOKS: M. Miller, M. Richards, B. Post, J. Van Horn.

SUPERINTENDENT'S SECRETARY: A. Watkins.

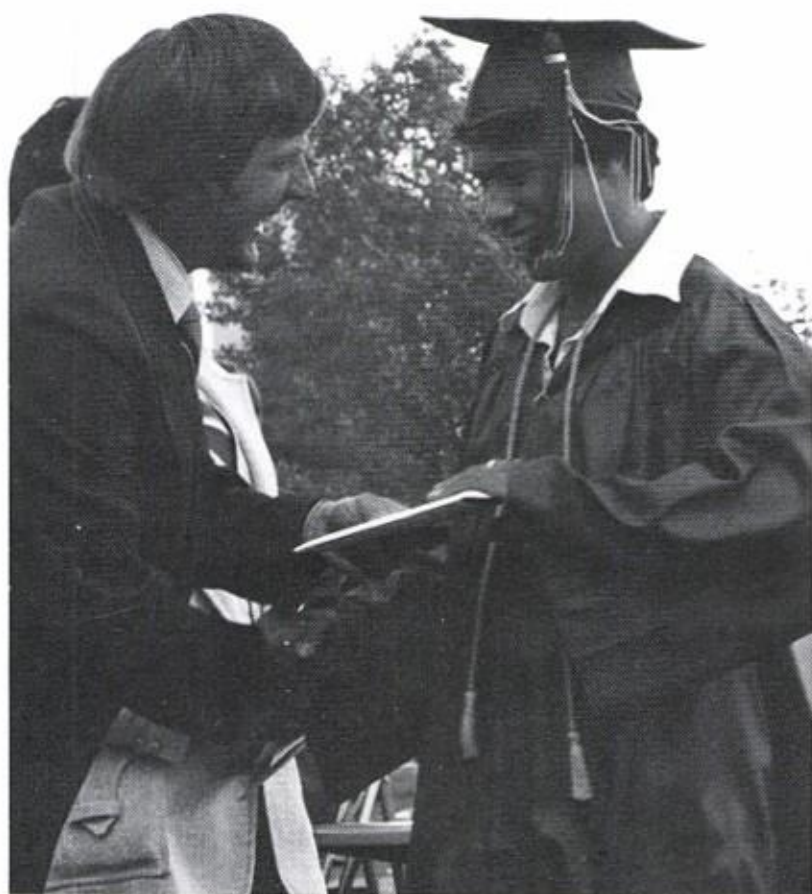

STUDENT LIFE

GRADUATION '78

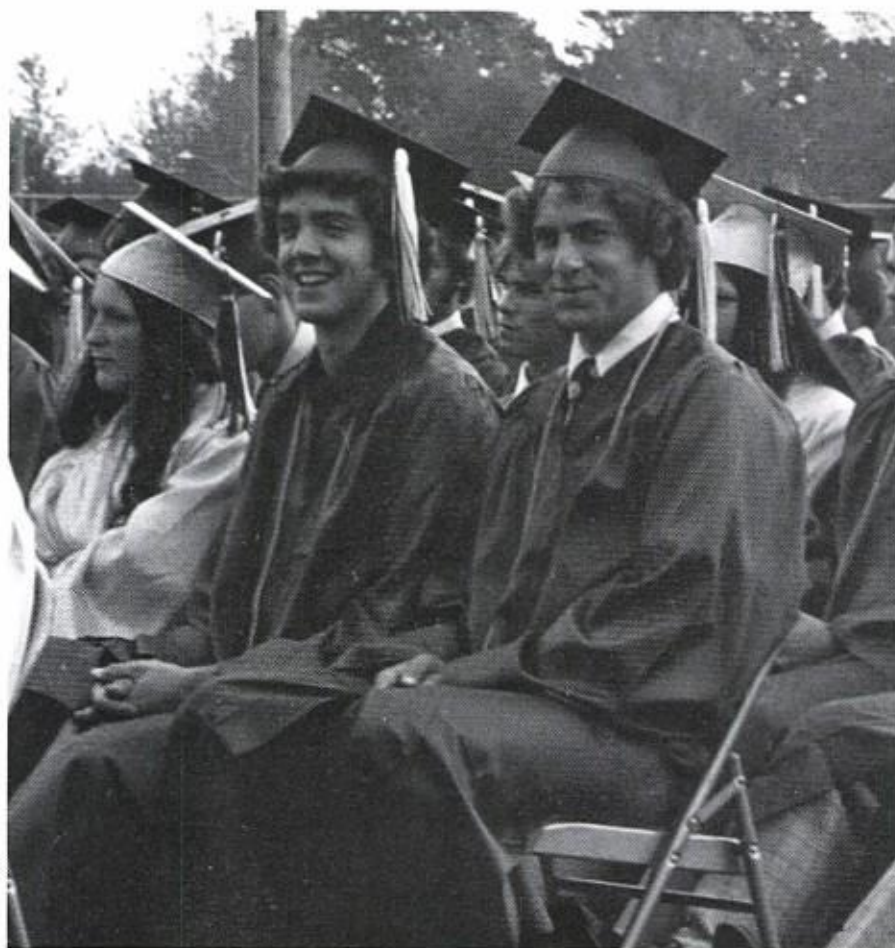

On June 4, 1978, 134 Seniors graduated at the stadium. Of the 134 Seniors 29 were gold cord and 11 recieved scholarships. The class saluatorian was Kathy Ludwick, class valedictorian, Dianna Troyer. Speaking at commencement were, Tom Pappas and Dianna Troyer.

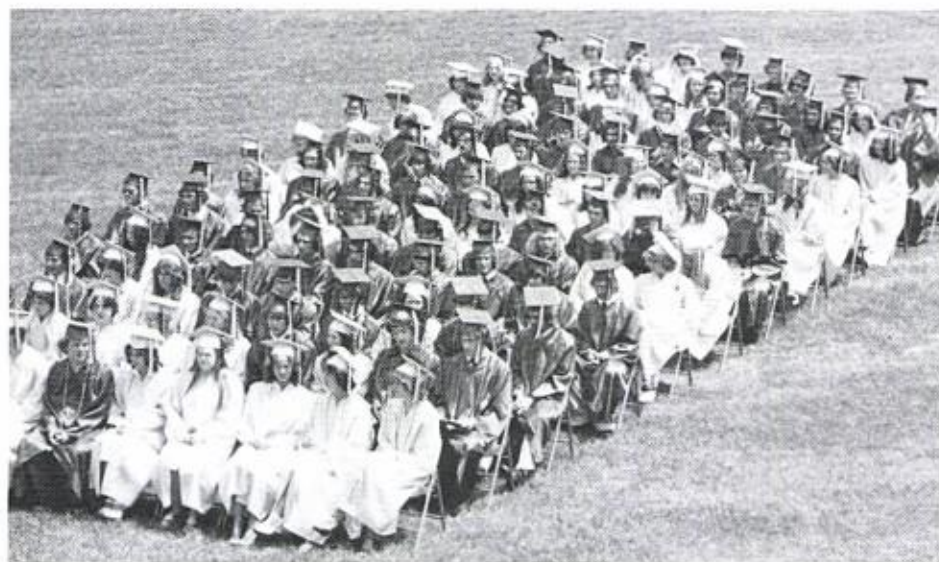

Salutatorian Kathy Ludwick and Valedictorian Dianna Troyer receive their medallions after four years of hard work.

To cheers of, "ole," Hesus Pareja recieves his diploma from board member Don Lindeman.

Graduation for Mike Moore and Tom Pappas is a serious occasion but they still find time for a few laughs.

Sitting together for the last time, every Senior must wonder what lies ahead for them.

The Class of '78 is on parade for proud relatives and friends for the final time.

Valedictorian Dianna Troyer expresses her feelings with song lyrics.

For Kathy King the thought of graduation holds many possibilities for the future.

Reverend Garth presents Mike Moore with the Ernie Moore Scholarship.

Mr. Yaksich presents Linda Boyan the Sunset Open Scholarship.

Class president Tom Pappas gives his speech in support of the school levy.

A sly grin from Linda Boyan seems to echo the mood of every Senior who was at the 95th annual commencement.

WHITE SATIN KNIGHTS

Candlelight, soft music, and good food were all a part of the 1977-78 Junior-Senior Prom held at Stan Hywet Mansion on a long-looked-forward-to June evening.

After a buffet including ham, chicken and roast beef catered by Balaun's, King Joe Williams, Queen Sandy Willison, Prince Frank Russel and Princess Karen Molnar, dressed in their finery, danced to the tune of Knights in White Satin, the theme song, as performed by Madhouse.

The formal attire worn at the prom doesn't stop Jerry Busson and Rick Manning from boogieing.

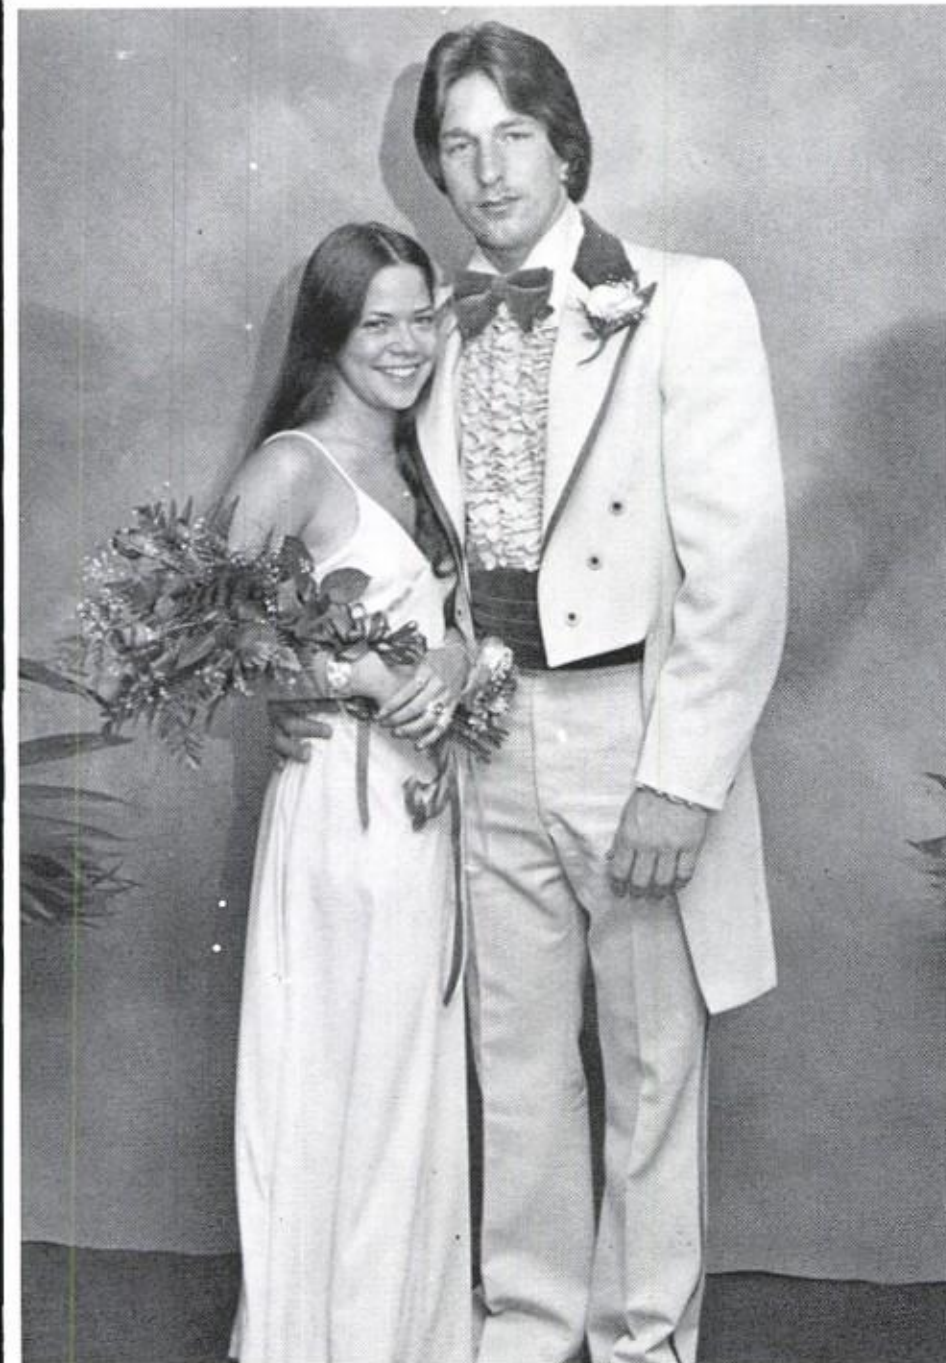

Celebrating being chosen as Prom royalty with a kiss are Prom Prince Frank Russell and Princess Karen Molnar.

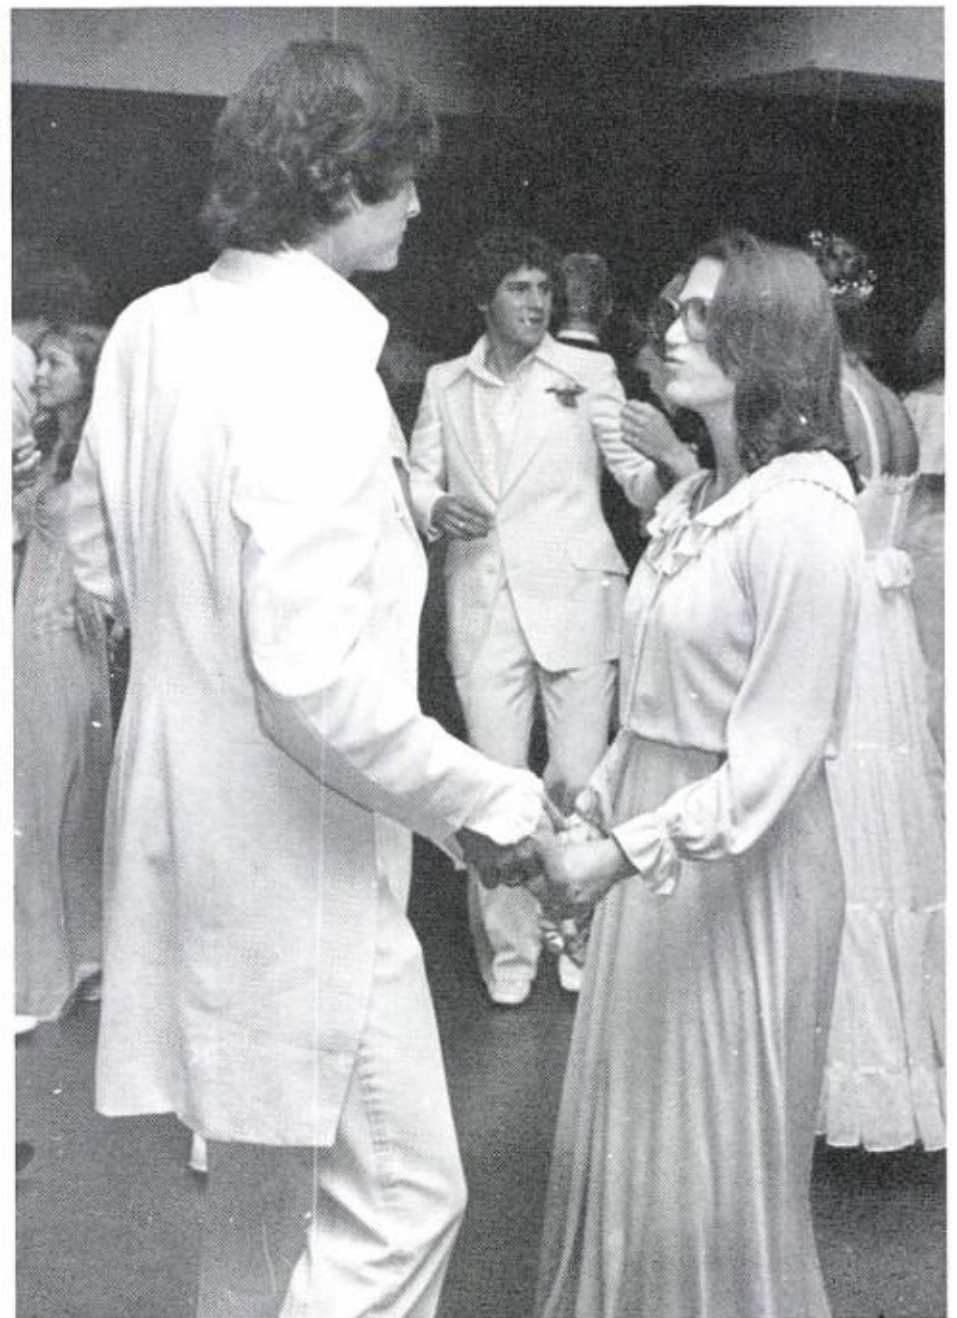

Audience participation, shown in the Hokey Pokey, is part of Madhouse's entertainment.

The low lights and the late hour mingled with the slow beat of the music helps to set the mood that draws the slow dancers out on to the floor.

Prom night was a special night for everyone, exceptionally so for Joe Williams and Sandy Willison who reigned as King and Queen for this elegant evening.

Tuxes and tails and long flowing dresses transform everyday guys and girls into Knights and Ladies in White Satin.

PRE PROM

A fun filled night at Steiner Youth Center started off the big weekend. Steiner was open for swimming, basketball, pool, table tennis and even tennis on the outdoor courts. If anyone happened to get hungry the junior class parents arranged for everyone to be fed.

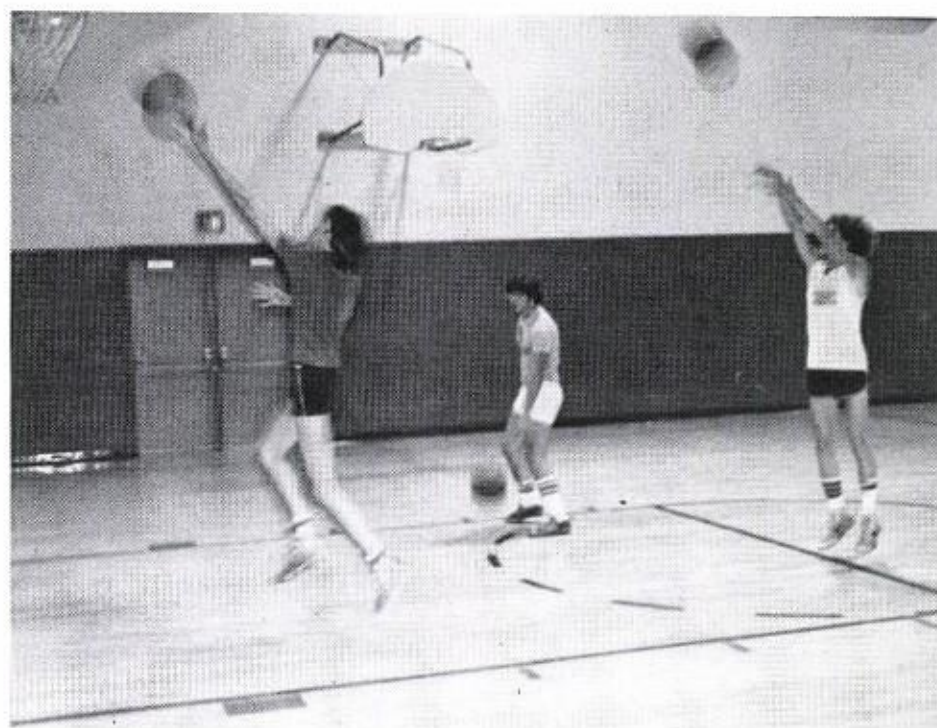

An opportunity for a free game of billiards is taken advantage of by Jim Harvey, Dave Stockwell, Frank Vetter, and Joel Zimmerly.

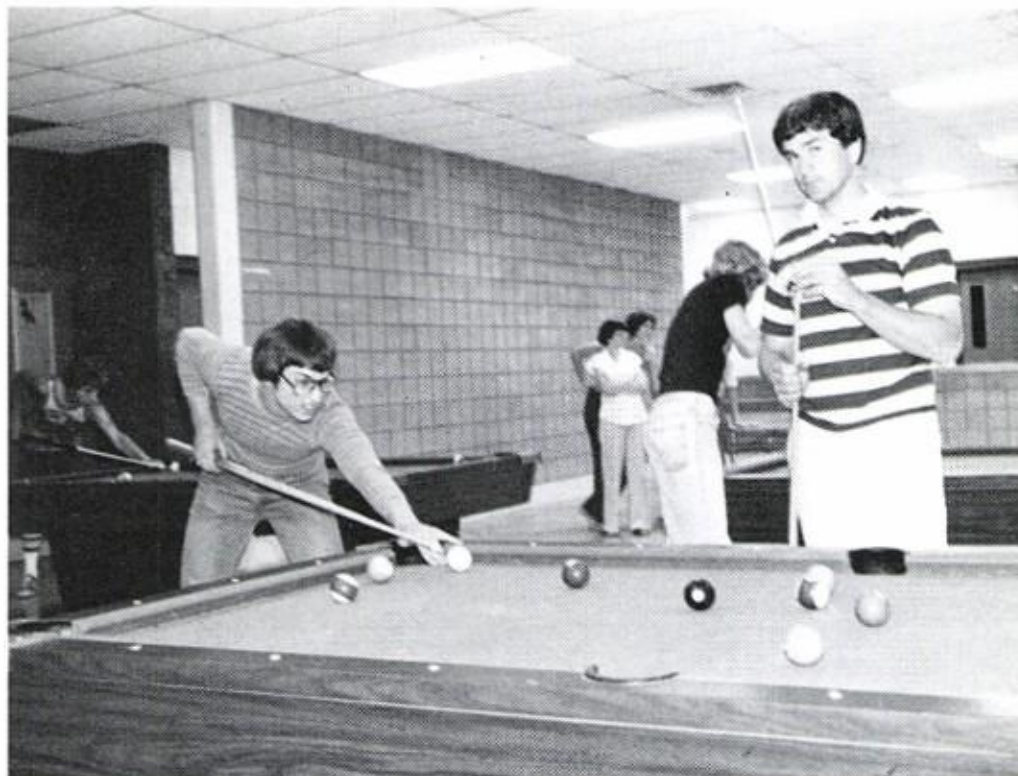

The king of table tennis, Dave Whitman, plays junior advisor Mr. Wallace for a couple of quick games.

Steiner Center's indoor pool is the sight of an evening of refreshing dips and daredevil diving.

With the gym to themselves Jerry Underwood, Tim Williams and Mike Brandenstein can shoot without the pressure of an audience.

Chaparone Mr. Casey chalks his cue as he waits for his turn, but his attention is on the challenge leveled by Tom Obradovich.

Pooling their nickels for a round of Sweet Tarts, Missy Sungy, Carole Miller and Tami Stanley crowd the candy machine.

Hot ham and all the fixings along with good conversation serves up a lot of hungry juniors and seniors.

SPECIAL TUESDAYS

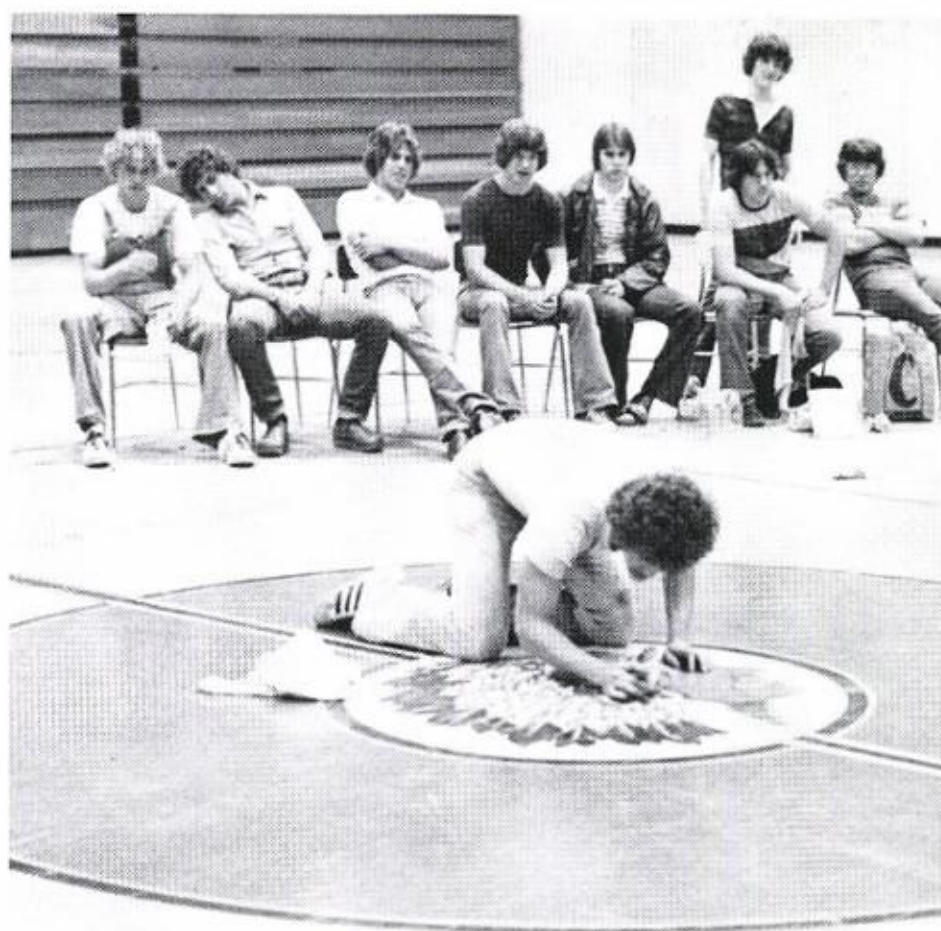

Tuesdays were considered special days at CHS. Intramurals and the frog jumping contest topped the list of activities.

Students participated in whiffleball, basketball, volleyball, crab soccer, and weightlifting, all trying to qualify for the finals on Intramural Day.

Ernie Moore's biology classes hosted the 12th annual Frog Jumping Contest in which Jerry Busson and Todd Miller's frog leaped the farthest to give them a $15 first place prize.

Everyone stops to watch the ball that sophomore Jackie Brownlow managed to get up despite senior Carol Minor's defensive efforts.

Senior Todd Miller hovers over his frog, Leaping Lenny IV, giving him last minute instructions on how far to jump.

The last words of Todd Miller apparently did help as he and Jerry Busson's frog capture first place with a jump of 6'9 1/4".

When the senior and sophomore guys get together in basketball, it's always a battle. Tom Garcea has ideas of putting the seniors ahead.

Intramural Managers Wendy and Mike represent the class of '78 as the winners of Intramurals this year. Both their names will be placed on the Intramural Chief.

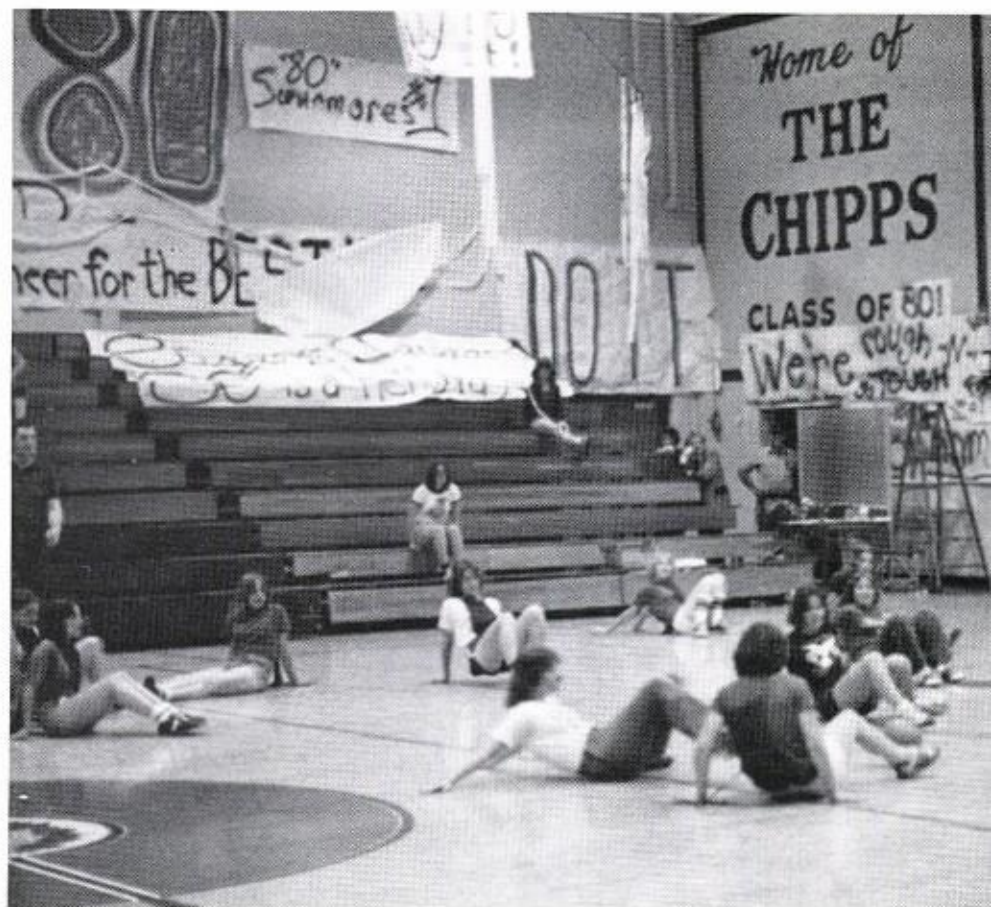

Freshman Dan White quickly marks the spot of a frog's last jump while Bruce Steiner hopes it measures enough to take a first.

INTRAMURAL DAY

Intramural Day was held on the 22nd of May, the Seniors last day of school. And of course they weren't going to leave without a remembrance of them. Consequently winners of Intramural Day were the seniors. Sophomores and Juniors placed second and third respectively. The Freshmen brought up the rear and won the honor of cleaning up after the event. But despite wins and losses among the classes, all had fun.

In basketball competition, freshman Milly Pavkov is a big scoring threat as the freshmen slip by the juniors in an overtime.

The most brutal event of the day is crab soccer. In final competition the junior girls are once again edged out of a first place, but this time by the sophomores.

Senior first baseman, Jerry Pol grasps for the whiffleball but is outbeaten by the airborne sophomore runner.

The taste of number one must be really sweet, at least it is to seniors Todd Miller, Mike Williams, Steve Hanak, Bruce Steiner, Jim Feesler, and Albert Birks.

Determined not to loose the crab soccer ball, Phil Sales puts up with the kicking and shoving in hopes that his team will be victorious.

Wiffleball action shows pitcher Denise Van Horn and third basewoman Barb Bailey preparing to defeat the juniors.

CONCERTS

Concerts have enriched the lives of many students. The thrills and atmosphere cannot be equaled by anything but the real thing.

Perhaps these pictures will help recap the '77-'78 concert season. Some other concerts not pictured were CSN, ELP, Todd Rundgren and Utopia, Starz, Aerosmith, and Stix. Most of the concerts were sponsored by Belkin Productions, WMMS the Home of the Buzzard, and M105. Thanks to them for making our area number one for rock and roll.

Alice Cooper and Davy Johnston jam down at their appearance at the coliseum in Richfield.

Jay Ferguson is "Losing Control Out On Thunder Island." He is featured on May 5, 1978.

Alice Cooper, with his giant television in the background, gets rowdie on his plug during "Billion Dollar Babies."

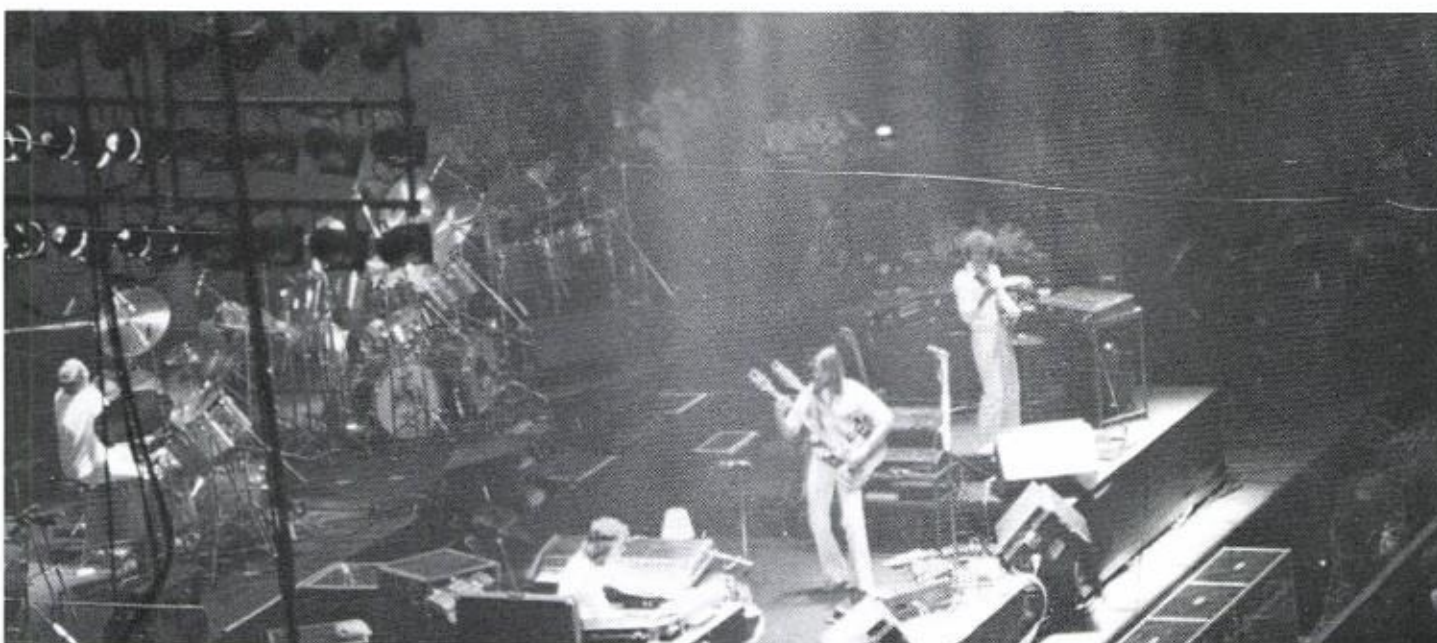

Fredie Mercury and Queen fill the Coliseum with the sights and sounds of their best-known songs in a solo appearance.

Genesis, who invaded the Coliseum Stage before a sell-out crowd, played nearly all the songs that their loyal and waiting fans stood in line and spent their hard-earned money to hear.

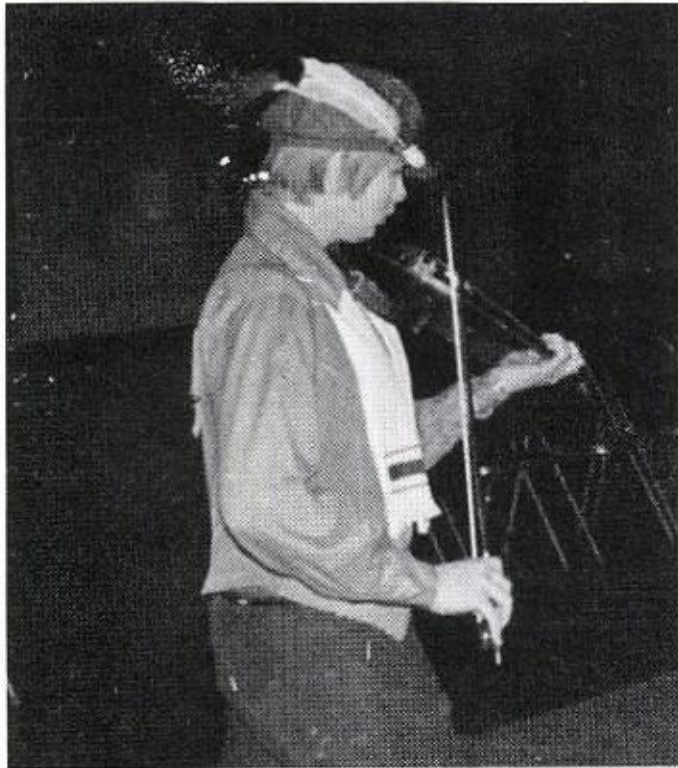

Alice Cooper plays chicken with the chickens in a song from his "Lace and Whiskey" album in a performance well worth seeing.

Genesis has a show which is full of music, lights, and lasers. As for their showmanship, they are the tops without a doubt.

FIDDLER

Students and teachers working together produced one of the most successful plays in the area. The play was directed by Mrs. Hetsch with Mrs. Murray as her assistant. The cast started practicing in October and spent Christmas vacation practicing six to eight hours a day. Opening night was Friday, January 13. The attendance was estimated at 350 for their first performance and rose to 550 for the Sunday matinee. The total amount cleared was $850.

The fiddler, played by Martin Scudder, practiced many hours to play in four scenes.

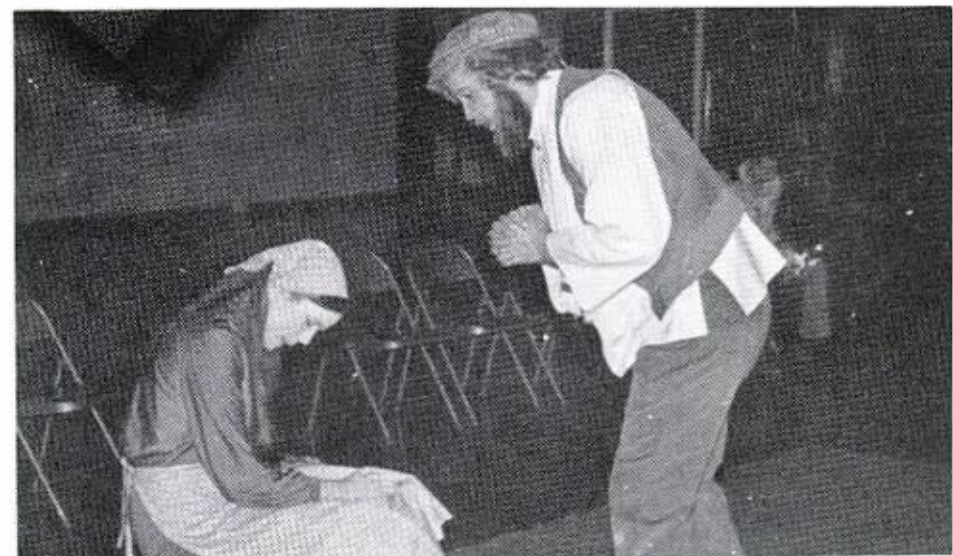

A surprise visit by Grandma Tzeitel's ghost, Diana Troyer, helps Tevye convince Golde to let Tzeitel and Motel be wed.

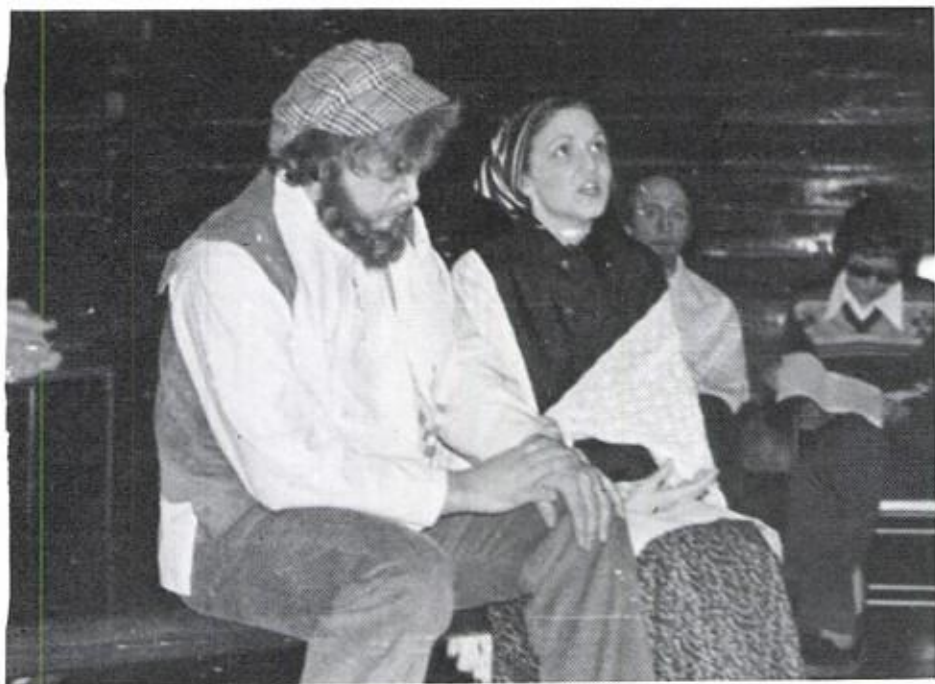

The butcher's departed wife Fruma-Sarsh, Marilyn Kulscar, threatens Tevye of Tzeitel's fate if she marries Lazar Wolf.

Tzeitel, Lyn Terry, plays matchmaker to her sister Hodel, Diana Cook, while the mop plays the handsome prince in Hodel's life.

Through her tears Tzeitel tells her father that she would rather dig ditches or haul rocks than marry Lazar Wolf.

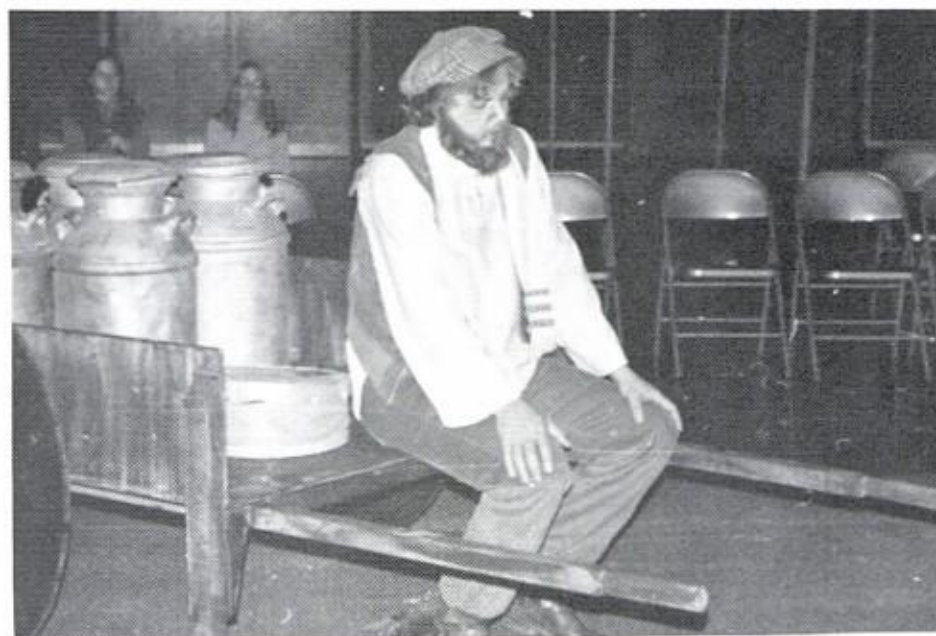

Tevye's, "Do You Love Me?", startles Golde, Kathy Ludwig. But they decide, "after twenty-five years, it's nice to know."

Under the wedding canopy and before witnesses, Motel and Tzeitel repeat their vows to the Rabbi, Mr. Herbst.

An unlikely match with a radical flowers for Hodel, Diana Cook, with the radical Perchick, Mr. Wallace.

Milkman Tevye, Mr. Dulin, substituting for his lame horse, takes a break and dreams of his life as a rich man.

The engagement of the butcher Lazar Wolf and Tzeitel is an occasion for celebration by the hard working men of Anetevka.

FORTY CARATS

Forty Carats, a two act play adapted by Jay Allen, was presented by the C.H.S. drama department on May 5 and 6. In the play, Ann Stanley, 40, falls in love with 22 yr. old Peter Latham but won't admit it until she see's that her 17 yr. old daughter Trina is in love with 45 yr. old Eddy Edwards. She then decides age doesn't matter. Cast: Connie Allen, Ann Stanley; Jeff Butzer, Peter Latham; Miss Sungy, Trina Stanley; Todd Miller, Eddy Edwards; Kim Walsh, Granny Maud; Don Baker, Billy Boylan; Greg Burns, Pat; Kevin Bachman, Mr. Latham; Carole Miller, Mrs. Latham; Denise Van Horn, Mrs. Adams.

A portion of Plaza Suite was presented at the Dalton One Act Play Contest. Performers were Lyn Terry, Greg Burns, Jay Gardner and Sheri Farmwald.

CAST: SITTING; D. Baker, K. Walsh, C. Allen, J. Butzer, M. Sungy, ROW 2; G. Burns, T. Miller, K. Bachman, C. Miller.

Granny Maud watches while Ann Stanley tries unsuccessfully to hide her face from Peter Latham.

Admitting her love for Peter, Ann yields to his kiss.

Eddy Edwards enters Ann's apartment to disclose his plans to marry her daughter Trina.

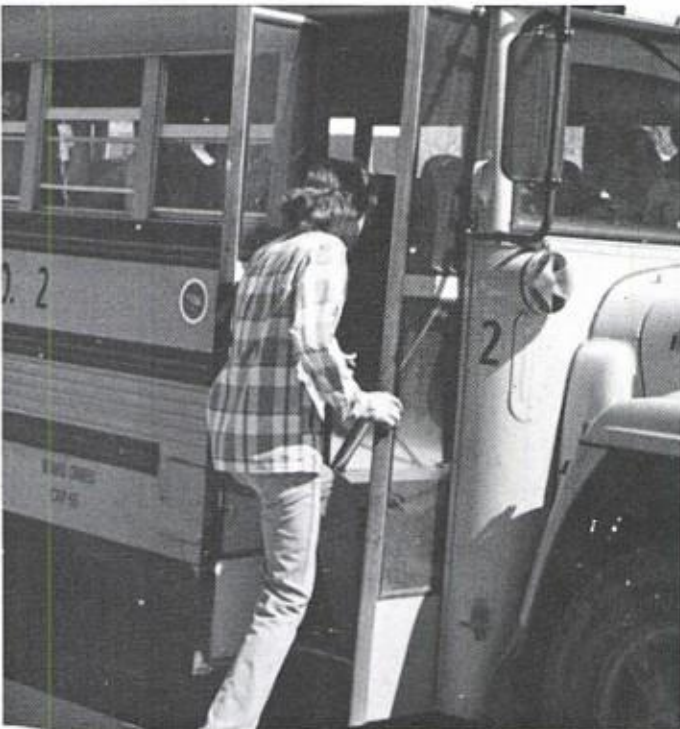

Mention of engagement sends Granny embracing Ann with joy only to find that it is Trina that is getting married.

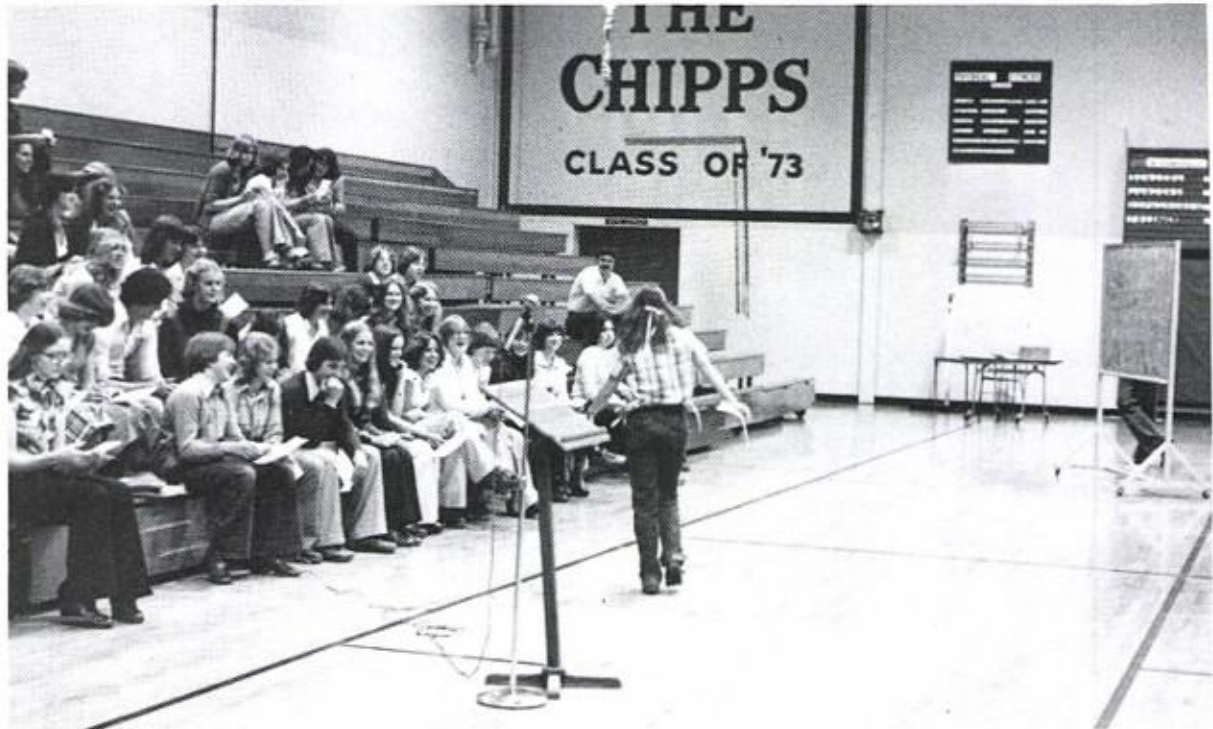

Every little bit of experience will help Katy grow up to be an actress so Mrs. Hetsch is sure to attend practice.

A field trip to LaCita, a Spanish restaurant, is a perfect way for the Spanish classes to break the monotony of the semester.

For many students the day begins and comes to an end on the school bus.

Speeches are short but sincere as candidates for next year's sophomore officers face their classmates gathered in the gym.

A fretting Jill Clark backs against the wall, but we all know that it's Bill Fouty behind that mask.

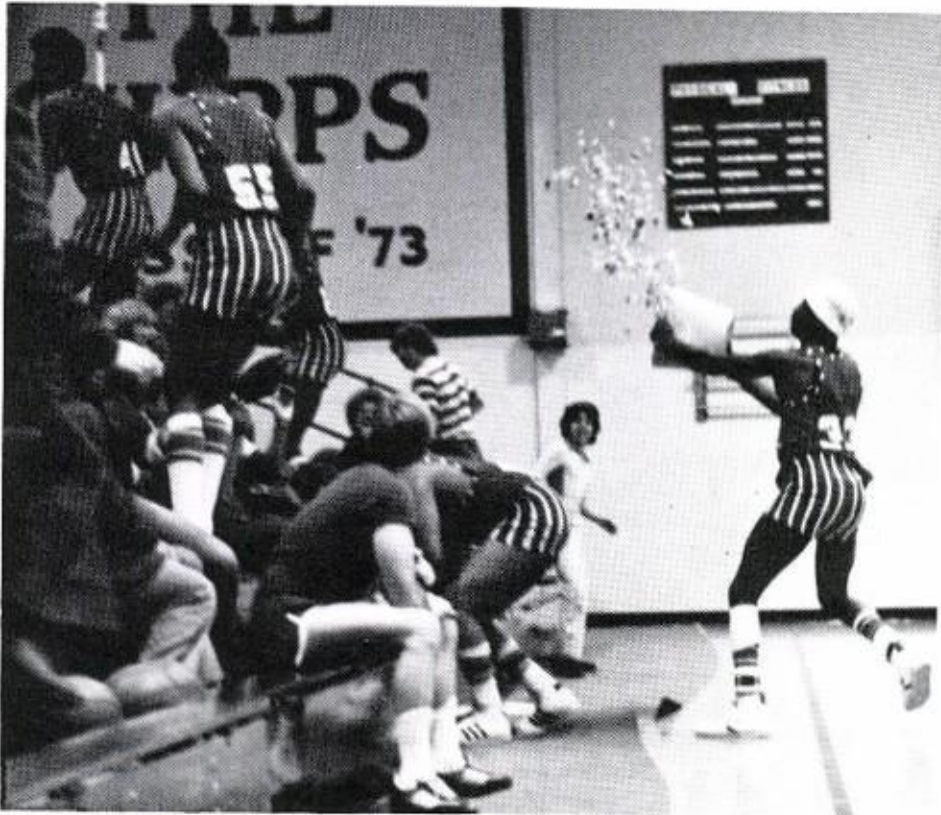

Carole Miller speaks on the qualities of National Honor Society members as candidates are tapped.

HARLEM ALL-STARS

On February 14, the Art Club sponsored a basketball game between our own fantastic Chipp faculty and Tricky Dicky's Harlem All-Stars.

The moneys earned were used for the trip to Mexico in the summer. The fans enjoyed all of the All-Stars practical jokes, but watched their teachers fall to defeat.

All-Stars add to the effect of the water fake-out by joining the crowd for a confetti shower.

The Harlem All-Stars prove they're not just tricksters by helping this young lady improve her lay up.

Taking a cue from the high-jumping All-Stars, faculty team member Mr. Marshall goes up in style.

The Chipp teachers have worn out one of Tricky's men and he must be revived with the help of a shoe.

Battle of the Sexes

The tennis team held a match between their star female player Diana Cook and vice-principal Mr. Yaksich on February seventh. The match was to raise funds for indoor play at Springside. The match-up brought in $200 while Ms. Cook defeated Mr. Yaksich eight games to one.

Pre-match publicity is over and honor is at stake as both sides hope to say, "We are the Champions."

There are smiles on the faces of both the winner and the loser as good sportsmanship triumphs over bad.

A cool and collected Diana Cook awaits Mr. Yaksich's fireball serve, which often ends up in the net.

With the tennis team serving as line judges for their money-making project and Dave Whitman as referee and announcer, the stage is set for the match.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleading is not just performing under Friday night lights. It takes hours of practice until you're ready to get out in front of a roaring crowd and give it all you've got.

It all begins with the nervousness of tryouts, and everyone does her best to attain one of the available spots. For the girls that make it, it's only the beginning.

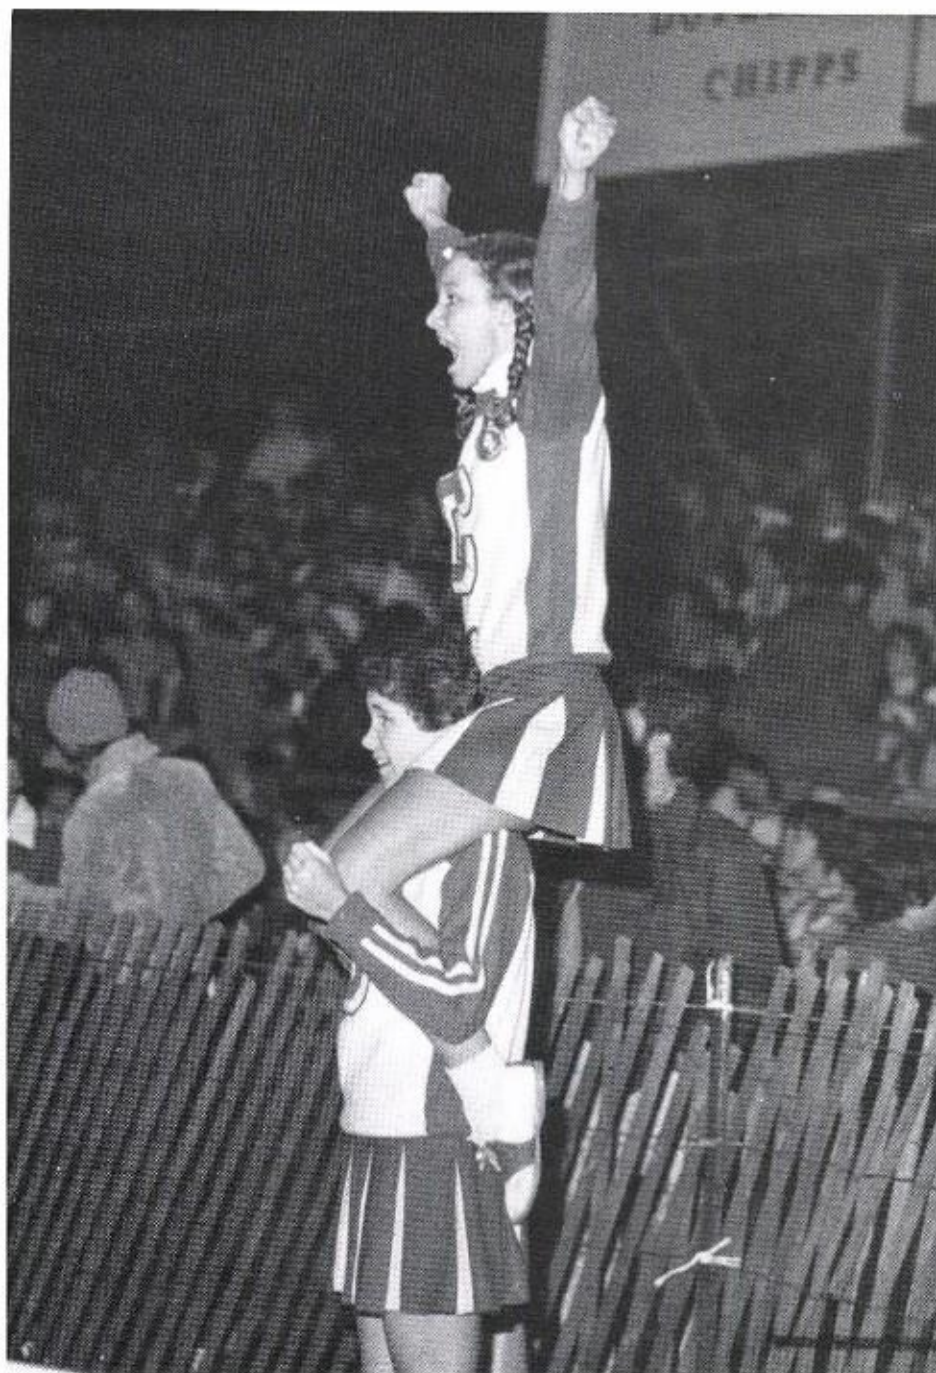

With the arrival of summer comes clinic. This year the Frosh chose O.C.C. at Findley. The Varsity picked Firebird Camp at Ashland College, and were honored as one of the top six squads present. The Reserve decided not to attend a clinic, but to rent a cabin and work on their own.

They also participated in money-making projects including a clinic for five to fourteen year olds.

In September, football season seems like it will never arrive, but in the end, everyone was glad to get out of the chilly weather and into the gym.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Carole Miller, Sue Zellefrow, Carol Boyan, Tami Stanley, Kim Price, Missy Sungy

It's the kick-off, and in order to see it Carol Boyan mounts the shoulders of Carole Miller and joins in the chanting.

Even before the crowds arrive Chipp cheerleaders are convinced that their team will come out on top in the first tournament game against Loudenville.

Smithville gymnasium houses a tough match-up and a pair of psyched crowds. At the whistle the cheerleaders run on to the court and do their "Varsity Victory" cheer with hopes that they, and the team, will satisfy the fans.

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS: Betty Rohr, Jill Miller, Beth Butzer, Jill Huffman, Judy Steiner

FRESHMEN CHEERLEADERS: Shelly Durbin, Milly Pavkov, Dianna Ashley, Terri Hajek, Jackie Butzer

CHS GONG SHOW

On April 20th, Chippewa High Student Council held its first annual Gong Show. The enthusiasm was great with sixteen acts vying for the first place prize of $25.02. Second place received $13.28 while the third finisher earned $4.98.

Jon "Chuckie" Papp, the man of the lab, served as MC. Our celebrity judges were Doris "Juicy J.P." Murray, Carl "Diller" Dulin, and Denise "Rex" Robbins.

Six of the acts received the almighty gong and some of the remaining acts just barely survived it. First place was shared by Joe Munday with a superb drum solo and Dianna Troyer and Greg Burns in "Feelin' it" which was a love scene in a park all done in robot-like movement. Hemo and the Hemostats captured second place. Ann Dannemiller took home third place after a fine singing performance of "Send in the Clowns".

Seniors Kathy Ludwick and Dianna Troyer munch down on fried embryos and lizard tongues at the Conehead King Resturant.

Everyone really likes the announcing of Jon "Chuckie" Papp, but then again everyone really likes physics.

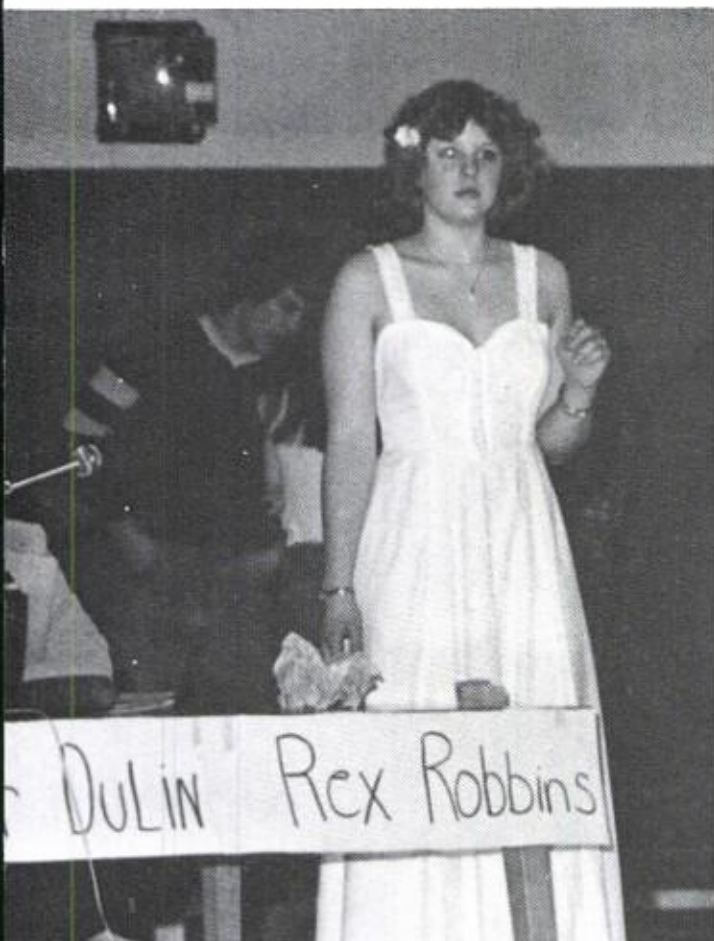

Celebrity judges Doris Murray, Carl Dulin, and Denise Robbins make it evident which acts they think are bearable.

The talent Joe Munday displays on the drums gives him not only a share of first place but also a standing ovation.

In an unforgettable performance of "Feelin it", Dianna Troyer and Greg Burns touch the hearts of all lovers. Their robot-style act brings down the house and a share of first place.

Second place winner, Hemo and the Hemostats, performed a unique and hilarious version of "When the Saints go Marching In".

DEAR ECHO BLUE DIARY

Dear Diary,

Well it's June already and today is our last deadline. What a relief. It's really been an experience for all of us. We'll always remember Mrs. Cikra's dreaded announcements coming over the p.a. warning us to be at those Wednesday night meetings. When you would hear her or Mrs. Robbins call your name from down the hall you'd run in the opposite direction only to be greeted by one of them later in the day with a "little something" that needed done.

Not much gets said about all the work that's done by the annual staff. You don't hear about all the layouts drawn that can't be used, or all the notebook paper with useless words written on it that gets thrown in the waste basket.

Remember that first deadline? Up until all hours of the night trying to get finished, knowing that in the morning, everything would be sitting just where you left it, unfinished.

Some things that we'll never forget are our dinner at Tangiers that we all agreed we deserved, and our new salesman with the blue eyes. The few of us that went to yearbook camp at Hiram College won't forget the food or how much we wanted to go home.

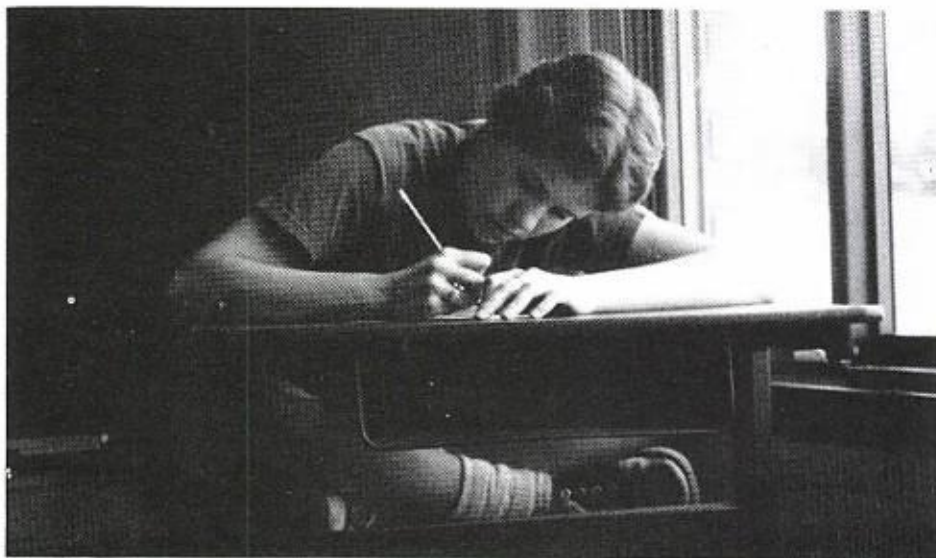

Connie and Tami will always have the numb fingers from typing in the back of their minds. Carole won't let us forget that she had to do six whole pages for her last deadline.

All year we wait for our last deadline and now it's here. It's sort of sad when you look back on all the fun we had together. We were sort of a family I guess.

Love,
Missy & Lynette

SPORTS

FRIDAY NIGHT FEVER

A psyched Chipps football team exploded into the season with a first game victory over the Northwest Indians, 33-8. The Dalton game, one of the most intense of the season, was a struggle between tough offensive strategies and super-tough defenses. As reported by the Wooster Daily Record, "Tears were streaming down the faces of the Doylestown Chipps at midfield. Dalton players consoling the Chipp players, but also congratulating themselves. Both teams were helping their wounded off the field." The Chipps fell to defeat by a narrow margin. The final score: Chipps 3, Bulldogs 6.

As a result, Doylestown concluded the season with a satisfying second place in the W.C.L.

The Sportsmanship Award was presented by the Doylestown Pride to Mike Williams, and Phil Sales was given the Mutt Stevens Award. Jerry Busson ranked as Most Valuable Player.

Loyal Chipp fans can be counted on to keep up the noise and excitement that gives the teams an extra edge.

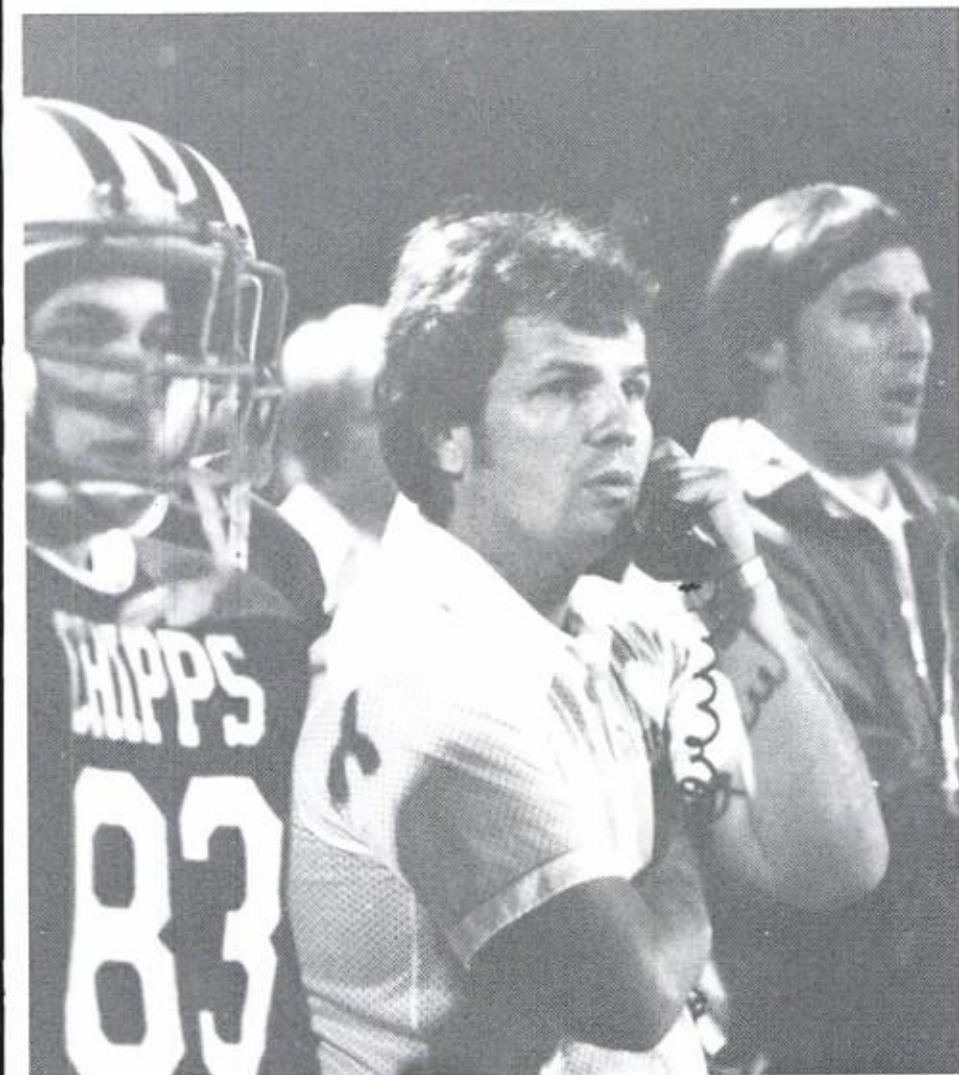

VARSITY FOOTBALL: FRONT ROW; J. Huffman, V. Lepley, T. Miller, D. Srock, M. Williams, J. Busson, J. Butzer, J. Williams, P. Sales, E. Genet, ROW 2; J. Dakoski, D. Stockwell, J. Feesler, J. Sales, J. Underwood, T. Petit, M. Winkler, M. Birch, H. Yates, S. Mills, ROW 3; K. Bachman, J. Srock, R. Manning, D. Gromofsky, T. Watson, M. Dakoski, L. Stiles, K. Carpenter, G. Guess, ROW 4; G. Durbin, T. Williams, B. Whitehead, R. McCulty, K. Mills, J. Bereni, D. Whel- ing, R. Busson, T. Obradovich, ROW 5; D. Williams, J. McEndree, J. Krska, M. Pandrea, D. Watts, B. Fouty, S. Pond, ROW 6; J. Zimmerly, D. Saeger, B. Wil- liams.

Total body involvement is put to use by this Dalton player against the well-conditioned strength of junior running back Tony Williams.

A familiar clash pits Jerry Busson against the impenetrable orange crush.

Although their eyes are on the current play, the minds of Mick Winkler, Head Coach Durbin and Coach Dennison are on what will happen next.

An overcrowded stadium filled with rual fans as well as teams is only one of the problems at the dissappointing Rittman game.

Ripping paper and C.H.S. gridders are awaited by Carol Boyan and Missy Sungy during pre-game ceremonies.

HOMECOMING '77

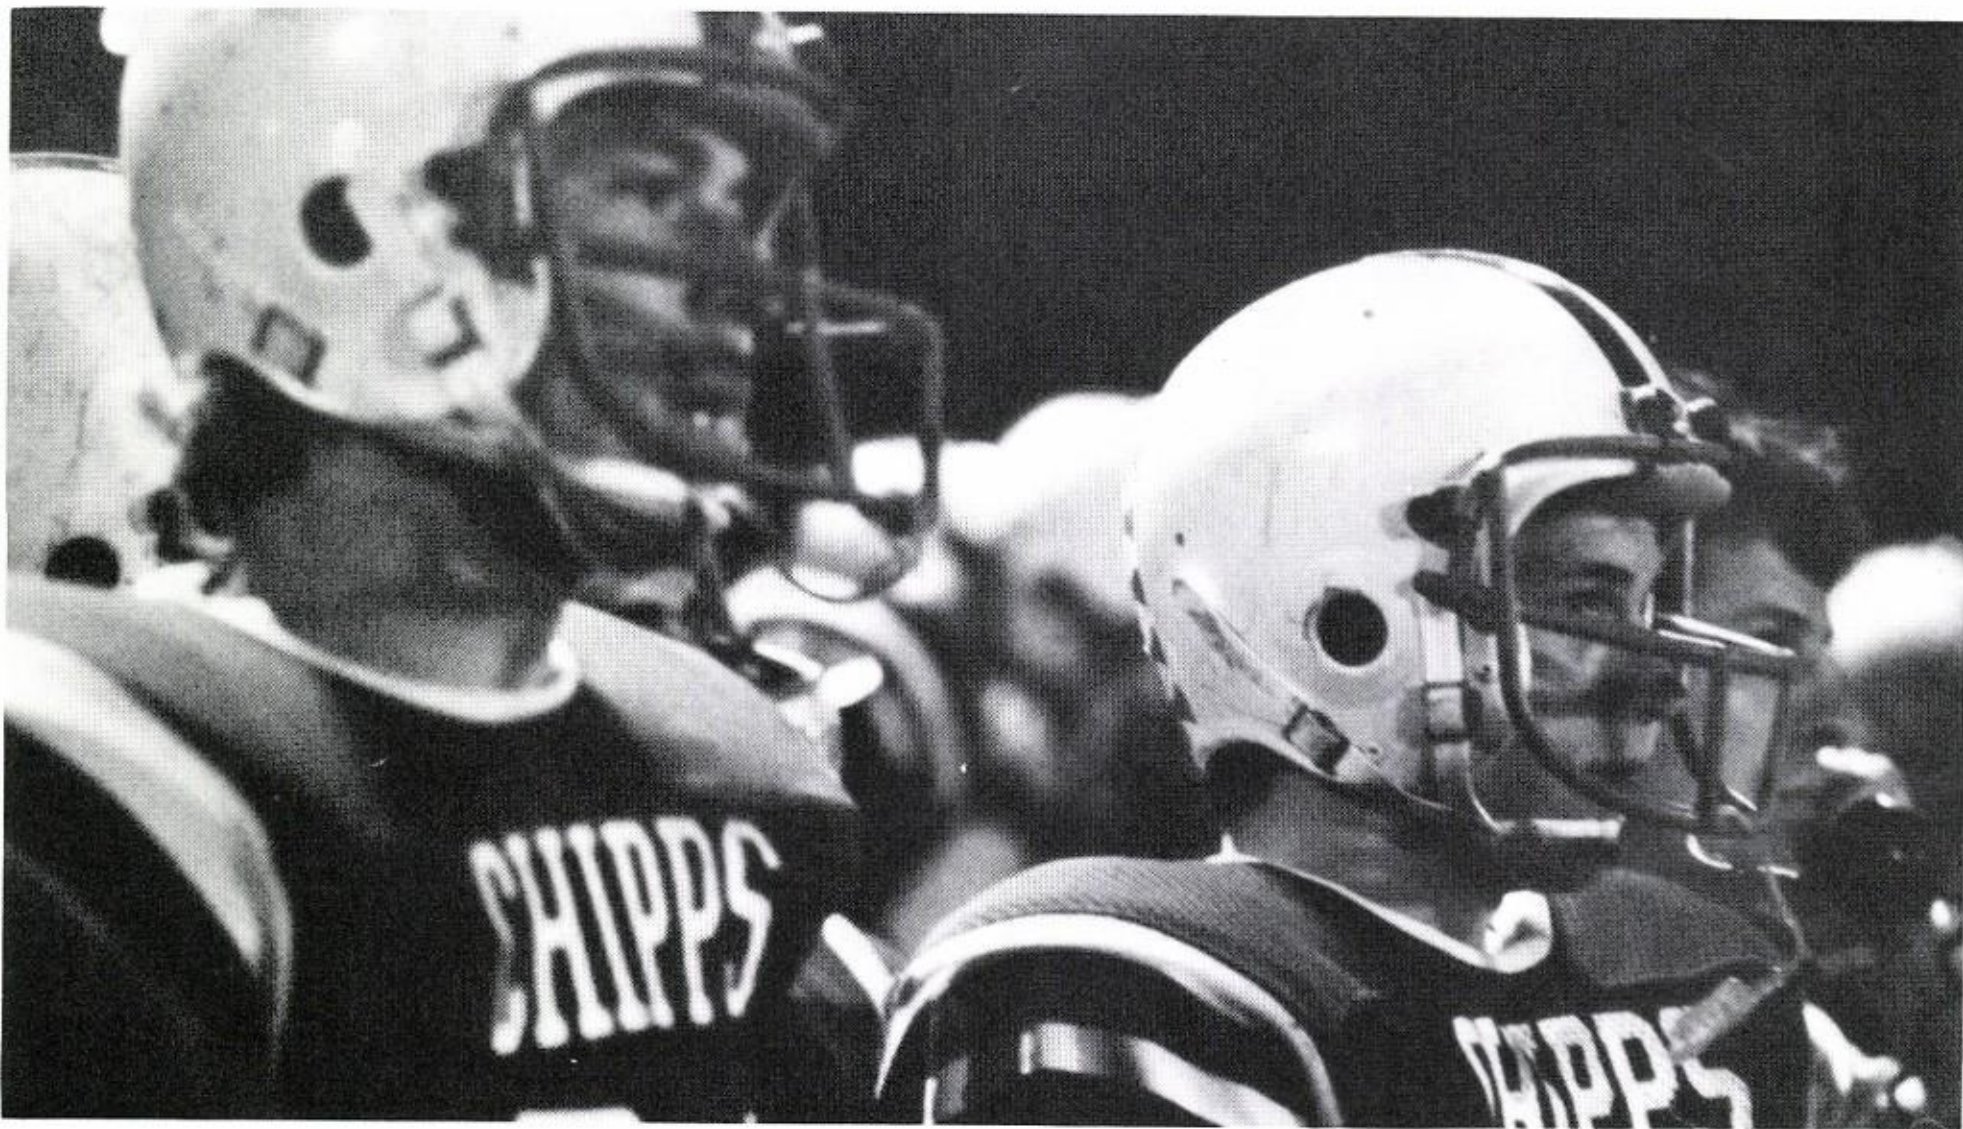

Students and parents wore white mums in celebration of Homecoming 1978. To Queen Jeanne Petit, senior attendants Laura Lepley and Sandy Willison, junior attendant Jackie Ashley, sophomore attendant Lori Genet, and freshman attendant Shelly Durbin, the night was special. The C.H.S. football team played the chilly, October game in their honor.

The teams entered the playing field, one in blue, one in green, to the sound of cheerleaders and chanting fans. Almost before the game began, it was over with the Chipps on top 21-0. The victory over the Smithies gave us our first shut-out of the year and increased our record to 3 wins, 2 losses.

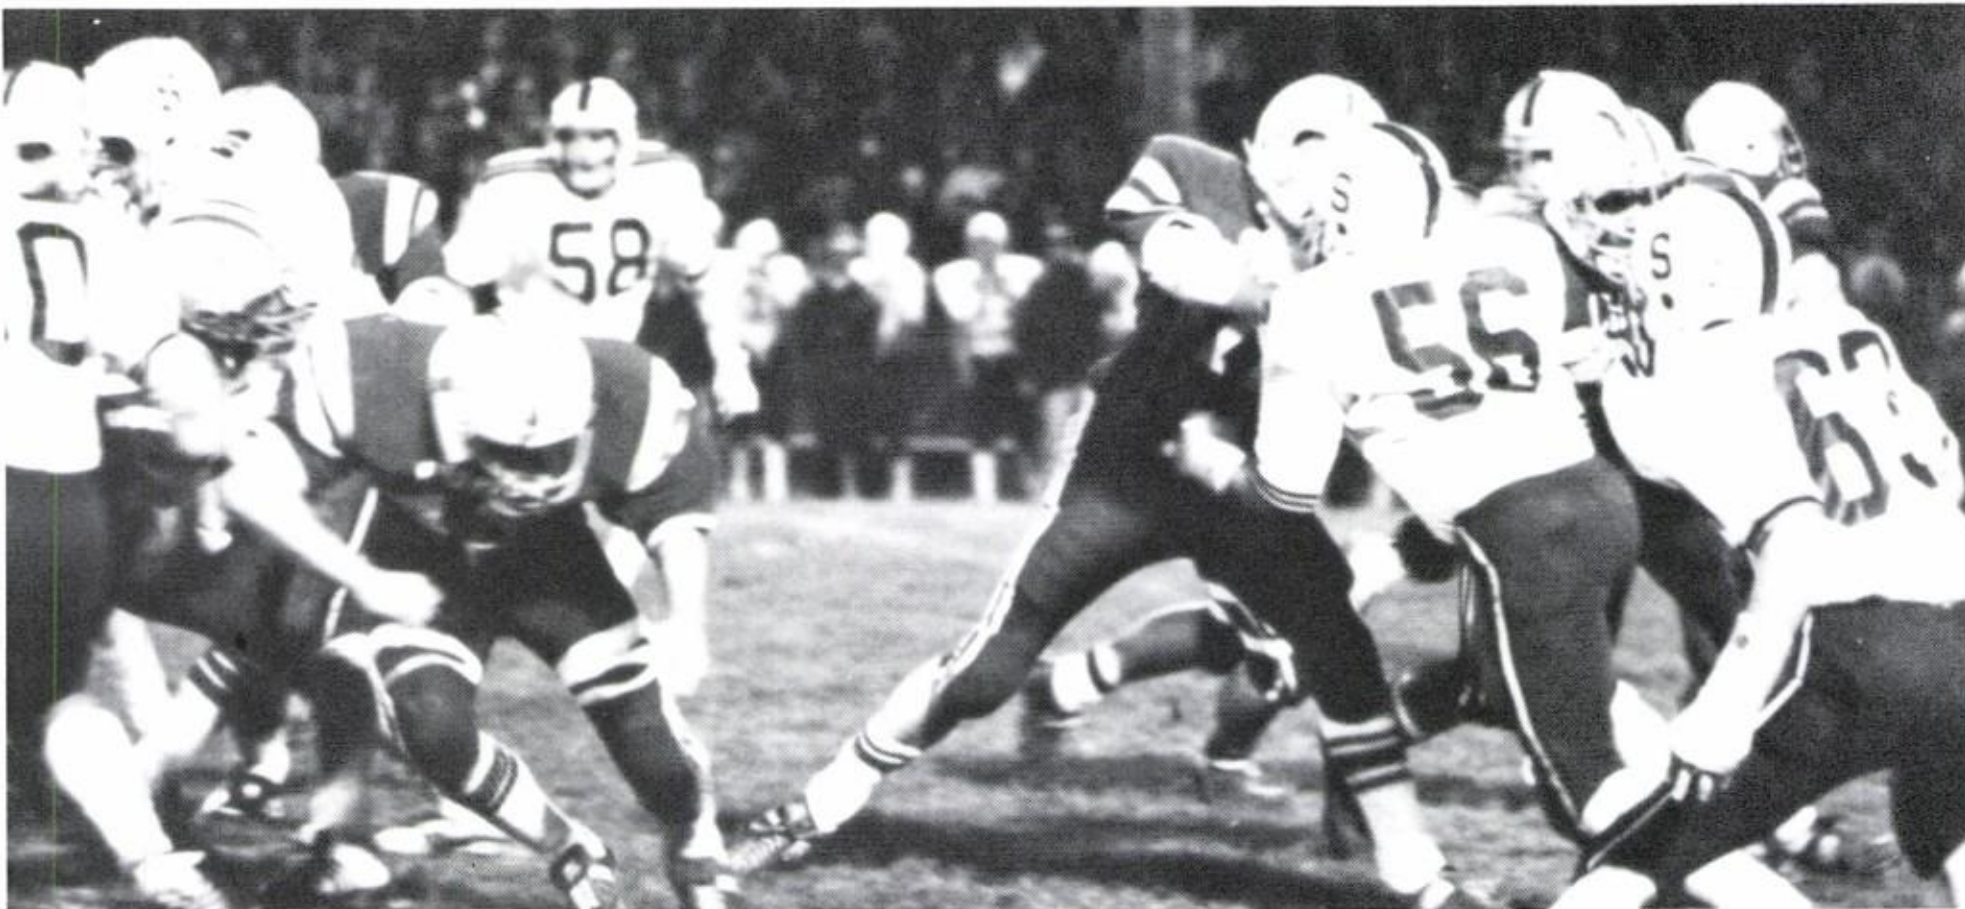

The theme "Autumn Dreams" was carried out the following night honoring the Queen and her court. The band Hoody Ways entertained the dancers.

Queen Jeanne Petit is admired by Brandy McKee and Ethan Watkins as well as senior attendants Sandy Willison and Laura Lepley.

To seniors Henry Yates and Mick Winkler, football is more than a game. From early August to November, it is a life of hard work and preparation, and the end product is seen Friday nights on the battlefield.

Exhilarating strength and determination is shown by the blue and white defense as they once again hold back the green and white offense from gaining that necessary yardage. The outcome is a Doylestown shut-out.

After the offensive line is positioned, center Mike Williams places one hand on the football and awaits the signal to make the snap.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL: FRONT ROW; M. Paridon, K. Bachman, S. Durbin, K. Bachman, E. Villers, G. Pratt, ROW 2; J. Whitehead, B. Koval, J. Walsh, D. Kallenborn, L. Witchey, R. Heil, ROW 3; J. Perry, D. Durbin, D. Purdy, T. McNutt, J. Petit, J. Lusk, V. Gerber, ROW 4; W. Kays, S. Barret, R. Ball, D. Dakoski, M. Troop, M. Eggert, P. Decker, ROW 5; D. Meeker, Coach Young, Coach Dennison, Coach Landis, B. Shaw

With the pigskin embraced in his hand, Jeff Sales tries to free himself from the tight grip of a Smithie.

DISTANCE WITH DISTINCTION

Many miles and long practices were the key to the successful season for the girls and boys cross country teams.

The girls, running for their second year, ended the season with a 5-0 record. They ran in five invitationals, mostly against AAA schools, and they gave fine performances in all of them. They took first at the All-Ohio (AAA) Invitational, which took the place of a state meet.

The boys team finished with a 7-0 dual season and this year they had a lot of firsts in the history of Chippewa cross country running. For the first time they qualified a team to districts. The team consisted of Jim Rohr, Bruce Steiner, Tom Pappas, Mike Brandenstein, Frank Russell, Dan Racin and Denny Dannemiller. Jim Rohr was the first state qualifier.

The special awards given to the runners were: MVR Karen Molnar and Bruce Steiner, MIR Veronica Gromofsky, and Kris Cunard.

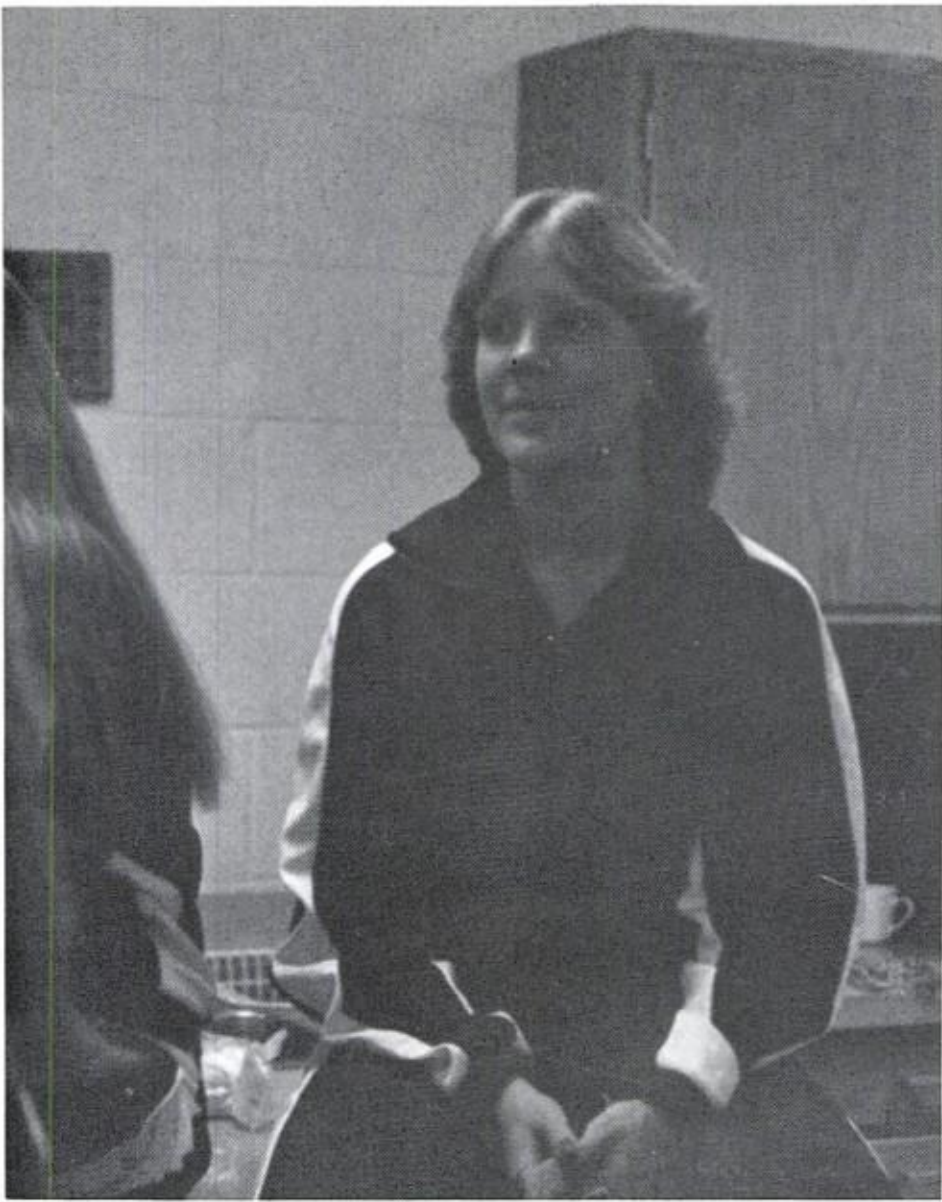

The first ten places are claimed by Chipps including Keith Anderson, Chris Cook, Jim Fretwell and Todd Shaw at the W.C.L. meet open race held at Chippewa High School this year.

The practice and dedication pay off for state qualifier Jim Rohr as he strides the length of the home course in hope of another victory for the Chipps team.

A chance for a W.C.L. championship in sight, Denny Dannemiller and Dan Racin concentrate on the final mile and a quarter. Their eleventh and tenth place finishes help win a team championship.

After a successful season, a team meeting is called in Coach Jane Buch's room to vote for special awards. Sophomore Jackie Petit listens intently and tries to decide who deserves the trophies.

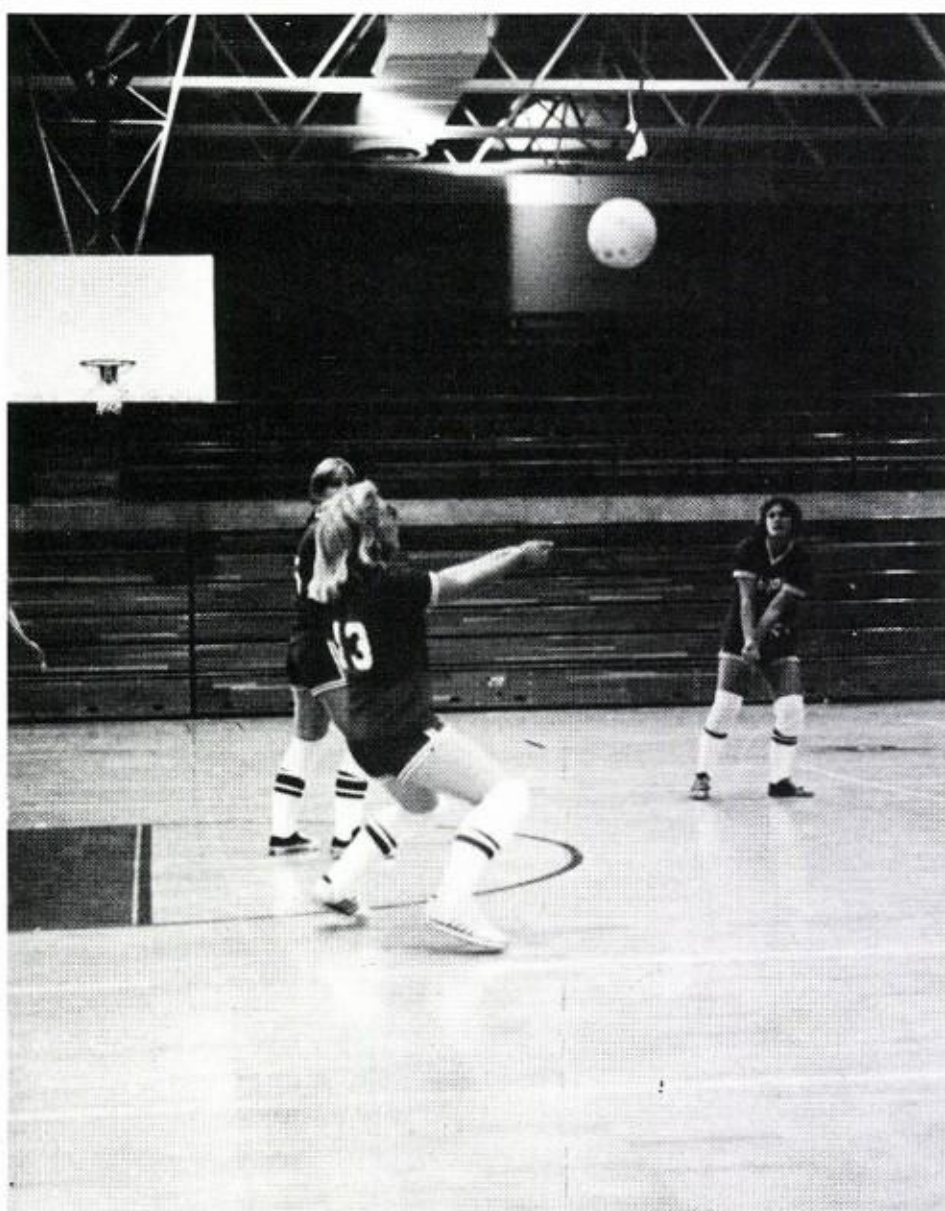

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY: FRONT ROW; V. Gromofsky, J. Petit, C. Cook, D. Lepley, K. Lewis, ROW 2; D. Durbin, K. Molnar, T. Busson, ROW 3; J. Shultz, J. Petit, Coach J. Buch.

BOYS CROSS COUNTRY: FRONT ROW; K. Anderson, D. Racin, J. Taylor, T. Shaw, B. Steiner, D. Sorrell, J. Rohr, J. Fretwell, D. Dannemiller, ROW 2; D. Lepley, S. Zimmerly, K. Cunard, J. Frizell, ROW 3; Coach T. Buch, M. Brandenstein, F. Russell, T. Pappas, C. Cook, B. Burton.

SPIKES WITH SPIRIT

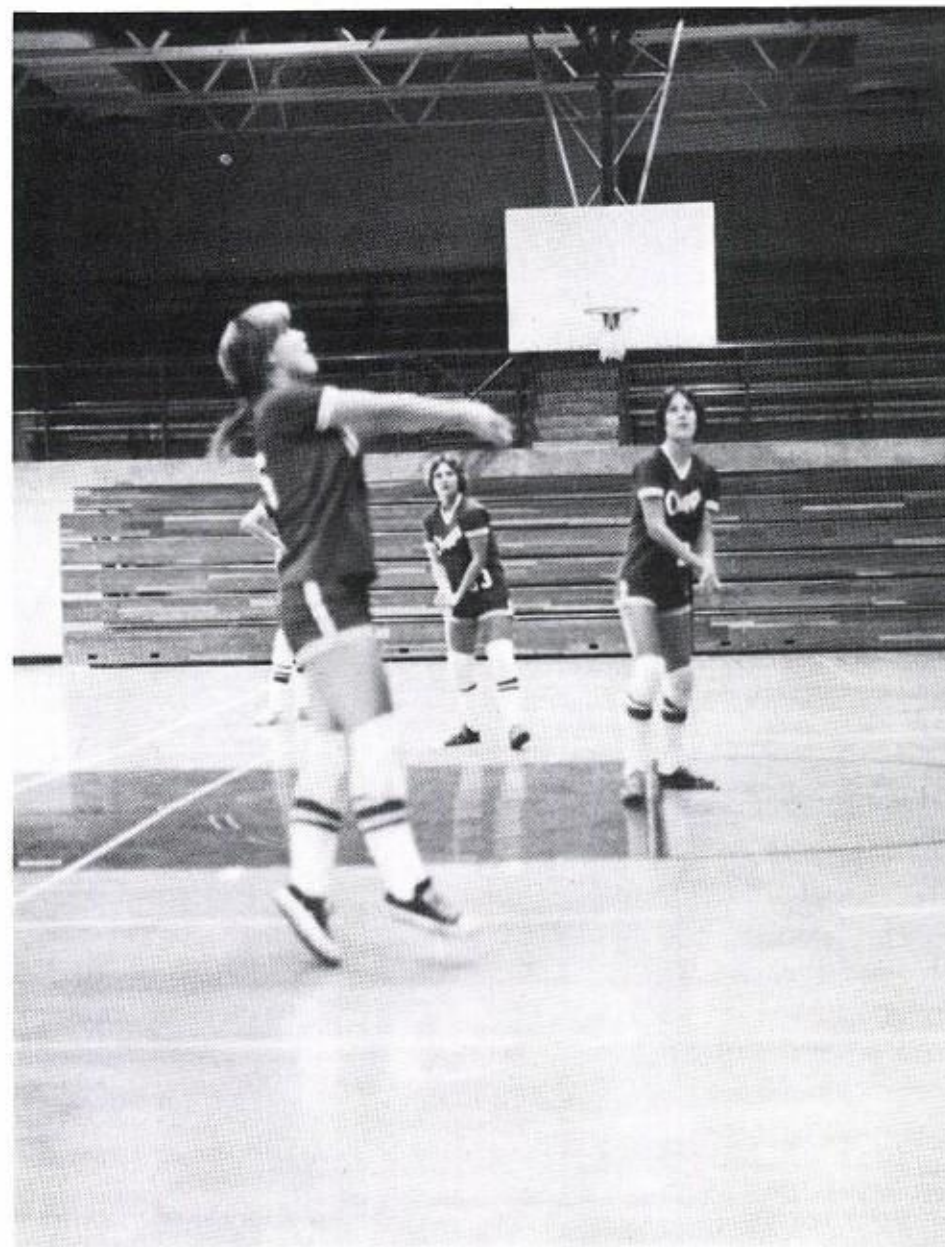

The 1977 season record for varsity girls volleyball was 5-9. Mrs. Dobney served her third year as head coach. The Chipps began very slowly, opening with four losses. As the season progressed the team began to warm up, and their talents blossomed. They produced a comeback victory over Smithville and won five of the remaining ten games. The Chipp netters lost to Fairless, a tough team rated second in the drawings, in high school tournament action at Lake Middle School.

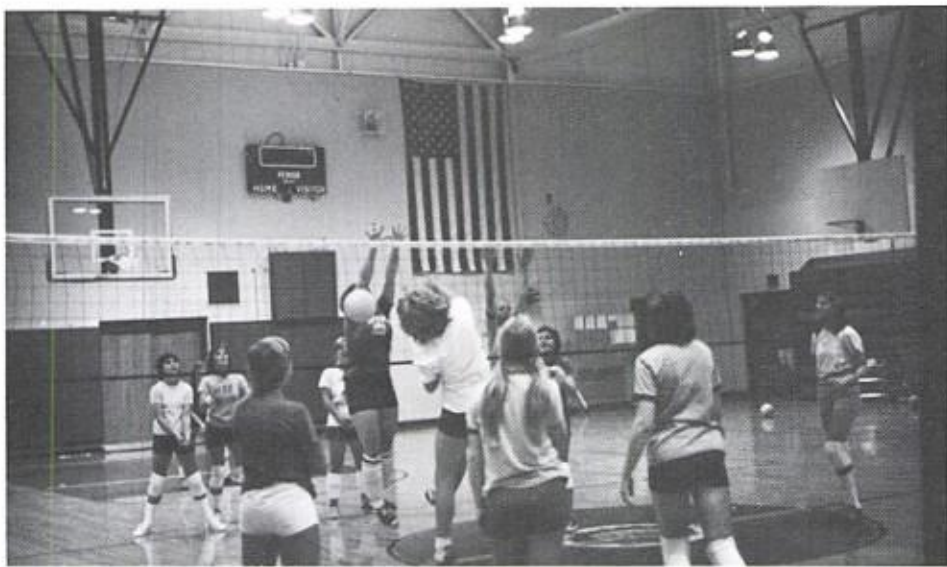

Varsity action for Melissa Durbin includes a bump hit with ready help waiting from Denise VanHorn and Lori Young.

A young squad lead by captain Denise VanHorn has to come from behind for a victory over Smithville after a first game loss.

The captain of the team, Denise VanHorn, shows her leadership ability with a successful hit to the front row.

A long, hard practice will improve Karen Fouts' spiking ability, especially when she's pitted against Sandy Nagy.

Victory over the Smithville Smithies gives Lori Nagy, Lori Young, Heidi Stanley and Judy Williams a chance to cool down.

Difficult top spin serves from Sandy Nagy limit the number of returns by the Chipps opponents.

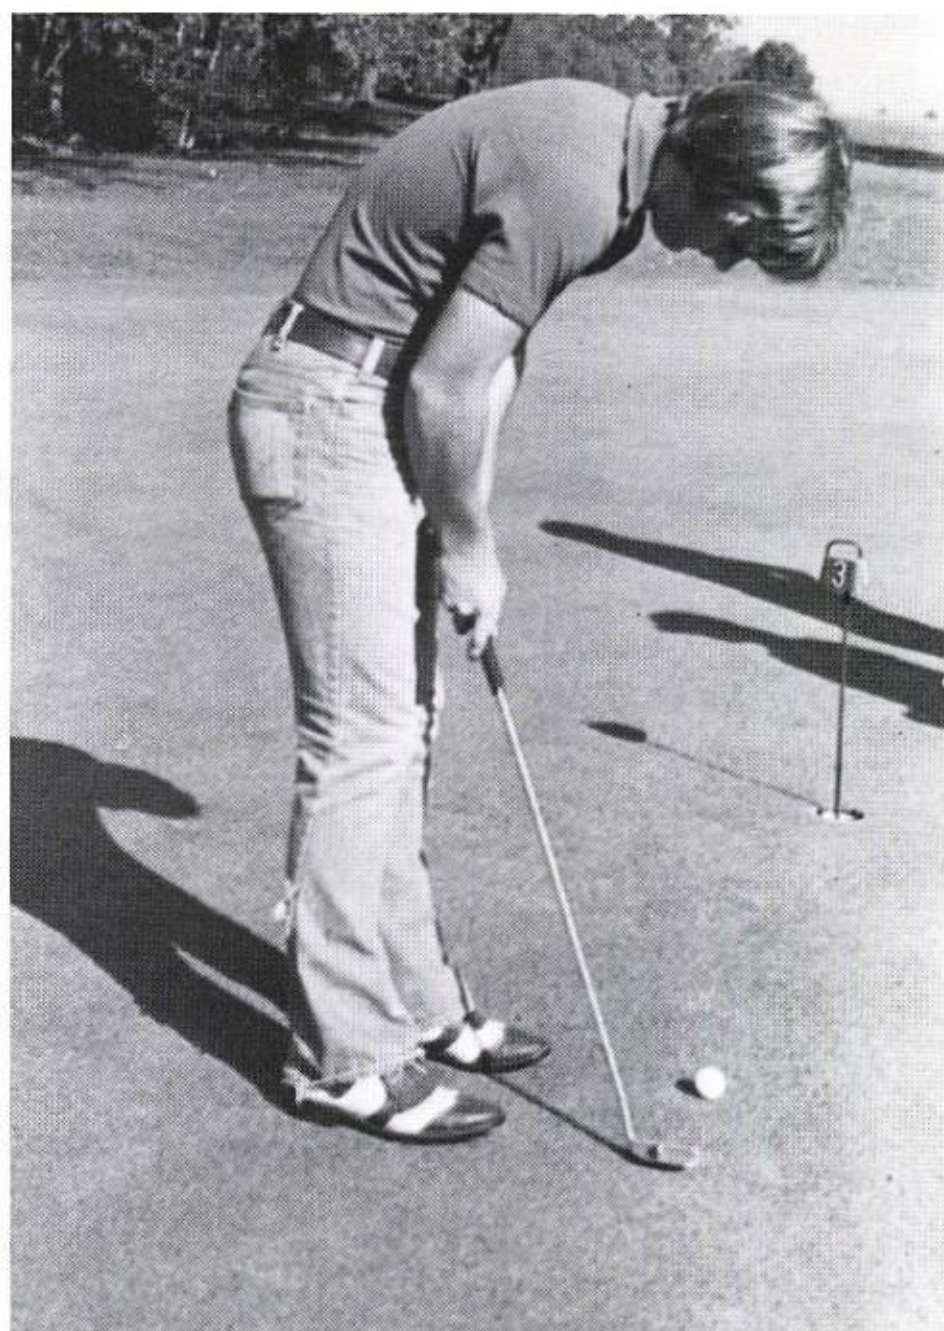

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL: FRONT ROW; H. Stanley, B. Ross, L. Young, D. Van Horn, M. Durbin, ROW 2; D. Lindeman, K. Fouts, C. Kun, L. Nagy, A. Dannemiller, ROW 3; Coach Dobney, S. Nagy, J. Williams, C. Guess.

ON THE GREEN

For the eighth year in a row, our swinging Chipps golf team finished first in the Wayne County League. The team consisted of five members including captain Marty Creed. They were led by Coach Dick Miller. Marty made history this past year when he became the first Chippewa High School golfer to qualify for state competition.

The team golf balls, labeled Chippewa High School, lend a considerable amount of class and style to our golf team.

Shown mastering his putt, captain Marty Creed has the handicap necessary to compile a 38.42 low medalist average and qualify for state competition.

Chipp Varsity Golf Team; Al Birks, Mark Gardner, Marty Creed, Doug Everson, and Matt Manning.

After a long walk down the fairway, an amateur might be confused but second teamer Al Birks knows which ball is his.

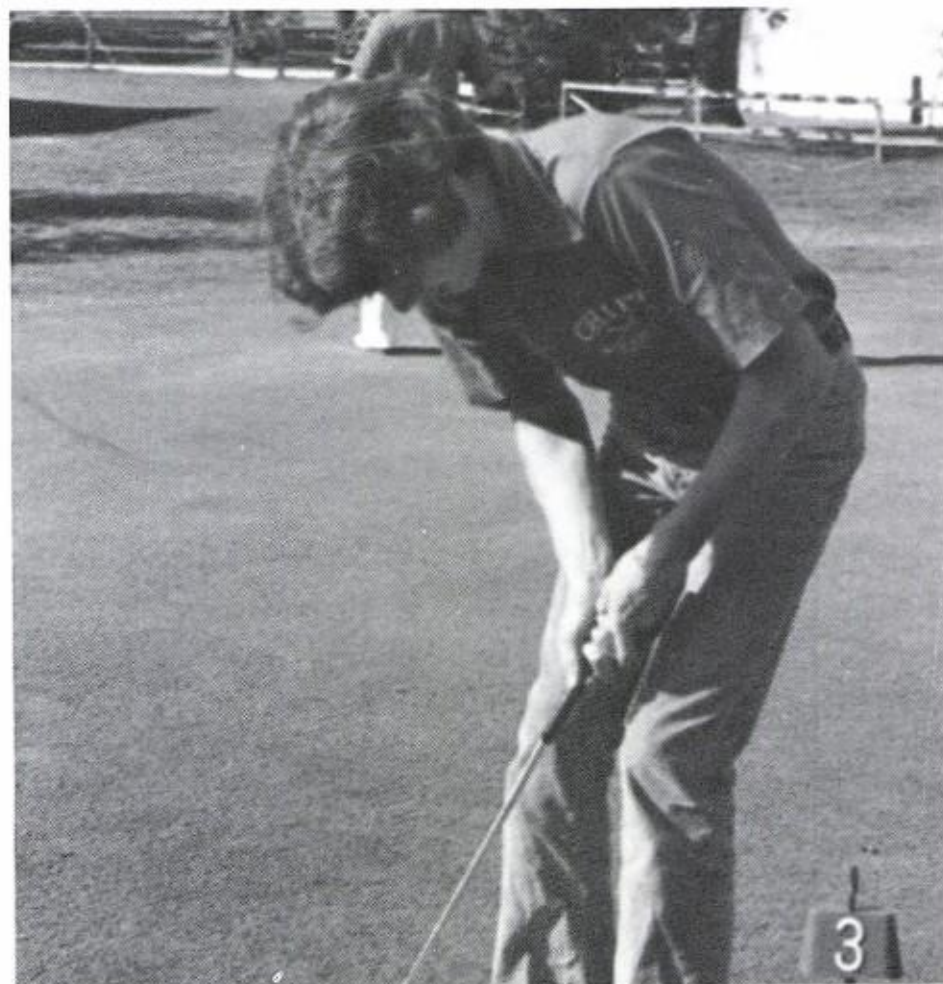

The secret to All-Leaguer Doug Everson's swing and total success lies with his fine over-the-shoulder style and technique.

With a 43.31 average, three year letterman Mark Gardner is a natural choice for the All Wayne County League team.

As Al Birks and Mark Gardner watch, Matt Manning gives senior Marty Creed some helpful hints on his putting.

Sophomore Matt Manning, practicing his putting, realizes that his All-County honors weren't achieved on the fairways alone.

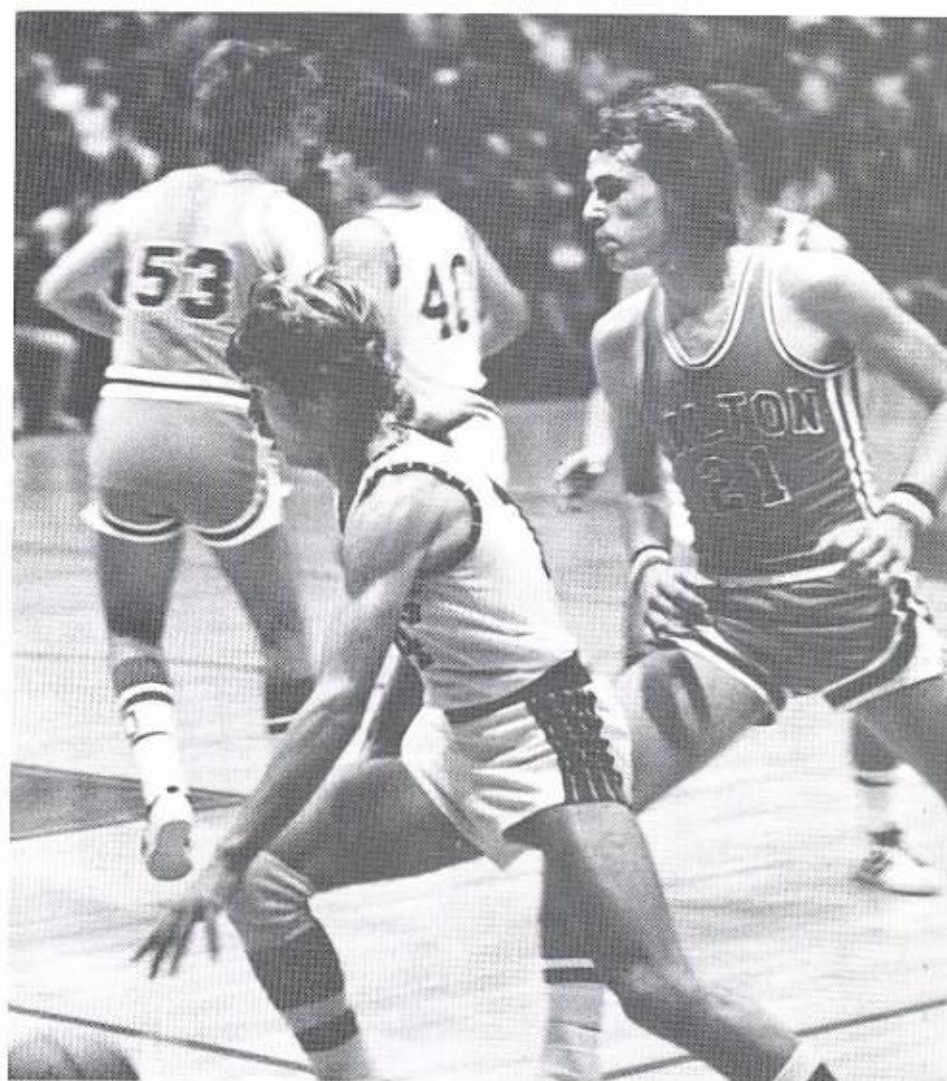

SUCCESS AT SECTIONALS

Being a contender for the Wayne County League championship wasn't expected of this year's varsity basketball team, but near the end of the season it was the Chipps, Bobcats and Bulldogs in a three-way tie for first. A surprise defeat by the Rittman Indians knocked them down but they got back on their feet to keep themselves in the race. In an exciting, physical game, the Chipps fell to the Norwayne Bobcats, ruining the hopes of first place in the League.

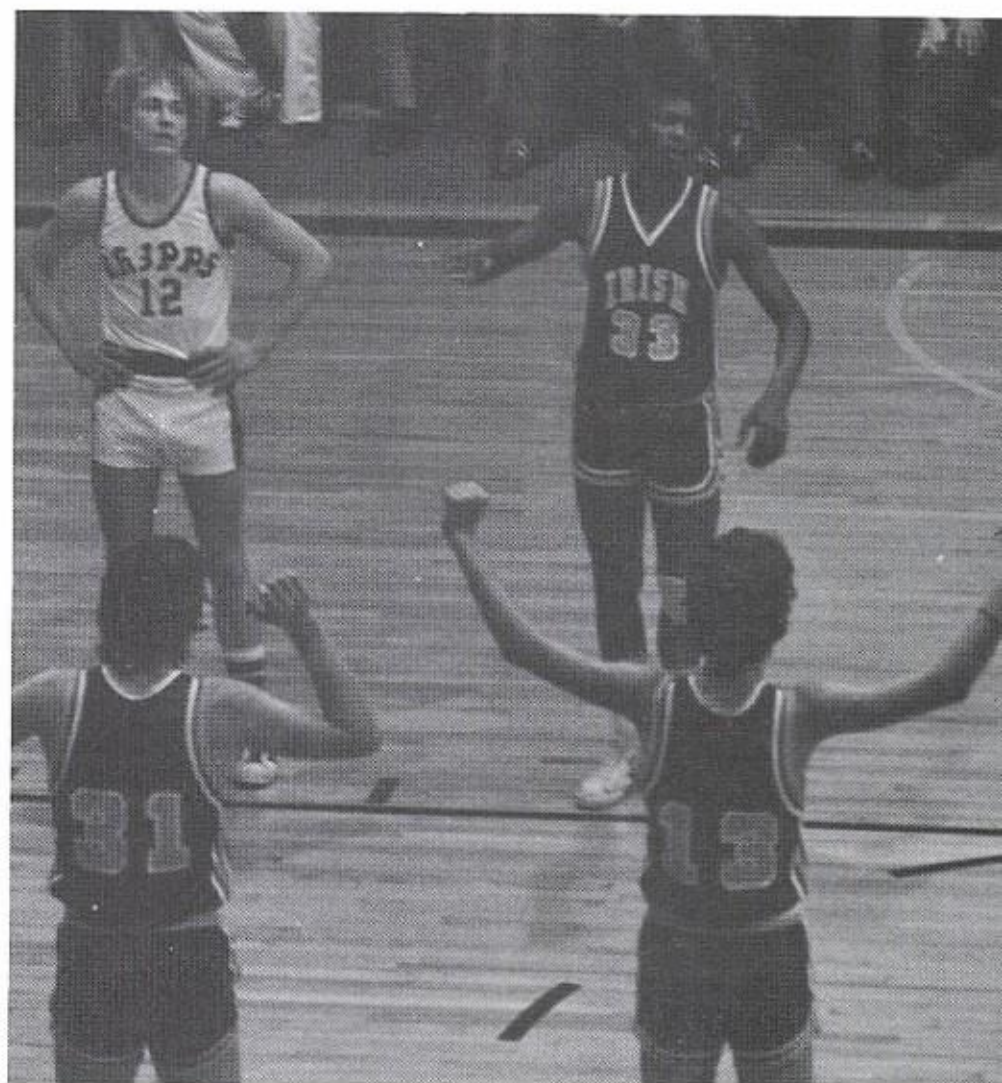

The C.H.S. varsity entered Canton Fieldhouse psyched spirited, and ready to rough up Loudenville on February 15. After defeating the Redbirds they went on to beat St. Vincent-St. Mary in an action-packed game going into overtime and ending with the Chipps on top as Sectional Champs.

The skilled hands and distinct style of capturing rebounds makes Todd Miller a valuable addition to the C.H.S. team.

As well as giving him a spot on the W.C.L. second team, the ball handling of Jim Rohr dazzles opposing team members.

The pressure is on Phil Sales as he shoots the foul shot sending the Sectional game with St. Vincent-St. Mary into overtime.

According to Coach Casey, "When you put Henry Yates in the game you know something is going to happen." This is pointed out as Henry Yates receives the Newton Kerr award.

Center Phil Sales goes up for two in display of his crowd-pleasing jumping ability.

Getting rebounds is more than pulling a ball out of space for Jerry Underwood.

VARSITY BASKETBALL: FRONT ROW; M. Moore, J. Rohr, J. Sales, T. Pappas, ROW 2; M. Birch, T. Miller, J. Underwood, ROW 3; P. Sales, B. Steiner, ROW 4; Coach D. Miller, Coach B. Casey, J. Zimmerly.

IN MY HEART

"You're in My Heart," a pop hit by Rod Stewart, served as the theme to the 1977-78 basketball homecoming. The three seniors nominated for queen were Diana Cook, Carol Morgan, and Dianna Troyer. Escorted by seniors Jerry Underwood and Tom Pappas, Queen Diana Cook was crowned and received a kiss from her two escorts. The fighting Chipp basketball team came up with a victory for the court, defeating Smithville 78-76. The following Friday night the court was honored at a semi-formal Christmas dance as the group "Madhouse" performed.

A smile from Queen Diana surely will lead the Chipps to victory.

1977-78 BASKETBALL HOMECOMING COURT: Freshman Lisa Galehouse, Junior Missy Sungy, Queen Diana Cook, Seniors Dianna Troyer, Carol Morgan, Sophomore Jackie Petit.

MORE TEAMS

Fighting Chipps reserve basketball team, led by Coach Dick Miller survived a hard-fought season with a 15-3 overall and 12-2 league record to capture a first place title in the W.C.L. shared with Dalton. JV team members accumulated the best record in many years, an accomplishment to be proud of. Sophomore team, coached by Bill Wallace, achieved a 2-4 record against a schedule of tough opponents. Determination, skill, and aggressive battles against their rivals brought to these young men a satisfying season to reflect upon. Fighting Chipp freshmen compiled a 9-4 record under the coaching of Terry Dennison.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL: Front Row; G. Pratt, S. Durbin, J. Paridon, J. Petit, B. Dannemiller, Row 2; T. Lepley, J. Feesler, M. Stoner, J. Lusk, D. White, Row 3; D. Durbin, M. Paridon, M. McKuen, D. Taray.

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL: CLOCKWISE, TOP; S. Pond, T. Taray, D. Everson, C. Tucker, M. Funk, G. Lindeman, Coach Wallace, M. Manning, T. Hecker, J. Berenyi, T. Storad, D. Watts.

RESERVE BASKETBALL: Front Row; T. Garcea, D. Dannemiller, J. Frizell, D. Wehling, G. Durbin, B. Whitehead, T. Andrews, C. Miller, Coach Miller.

STRAIGHT SHOOTERS

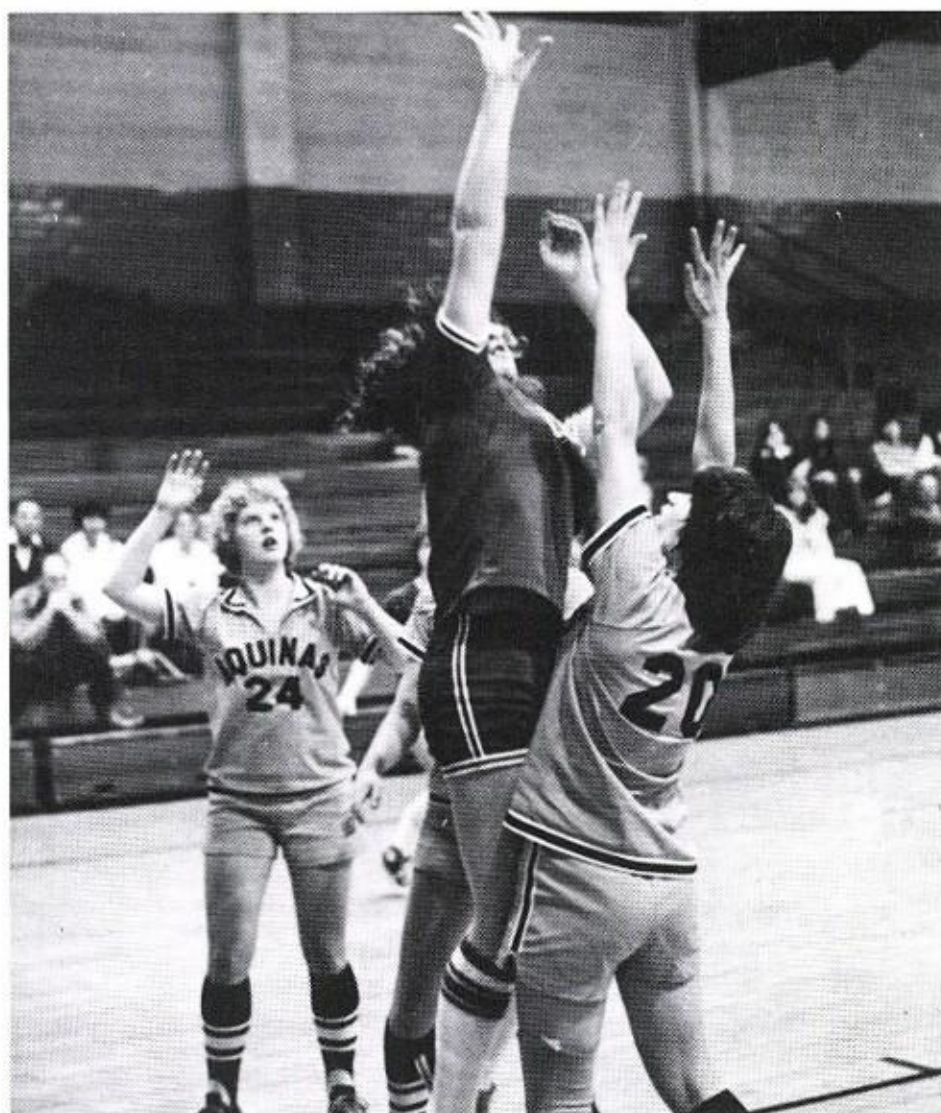

Chippewa girls basketball ended the season with a 3-3 Wayne County League record and a 5-7 overall record. The 77-78 season opened with a close win over Akron South, but then they dropped to a 1-4 record before winning again. Norwayne was the highlight of the Chippis schedule. With the boys varsity in the race against Norwayne the girls game also proved to have excitement of its own. An upset special, the Chippis managed to put together their best game of the season, dropping the Norwayne Bobcats 54-48. Special awards went to leading rebounder Shannon Hammer, most improved Wendy Wooster, hustle award Carol Boyan, and most valuable Sandy Nagy.

VARSITY BASKETBALL: FRONT ROW; J. Clark, S. Nagy, B. Bailey, W. Wooster, M. Chapman, C. Boyan, ROW 2; S. Hammer, L. Young, C. Cook, V. Gromofsky, J. Cornachione, L. Edwards, ROW 3; M. Boyan, Coach E. Novine.

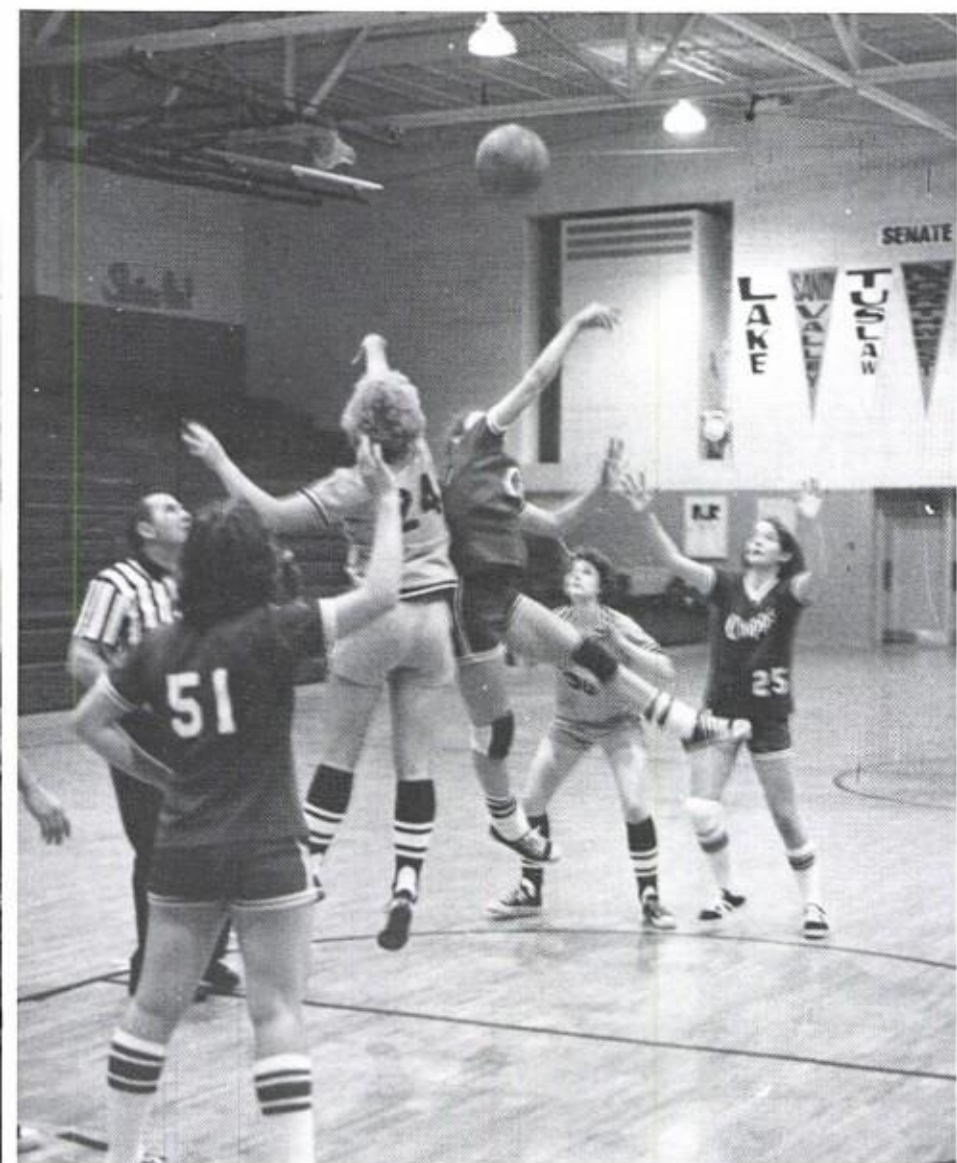

RESERVE BASKETBALL: FRONT ROW; S. Hurt, L. Nagy, D. Durbin, M. Durbin, H. Stanley, D. Lindeman, ROW 2; C. Stevens, M. Sales, J. Williams, C. Kun, L. Williams, ROW 3; N. Shutway, Miss Camden, B. Hardgrove.

Three against one make two! Shannon Hammer entangled with three opponents, drives left of the key, to score.

The flight path of Heidi Stanley takes her in close and under the hoop for an easy lay-up.

Up for grabs! Carol Boyan tips the ball to waiting teammates Wendy Wooster and Mary Chapman.

An example of a good percentage shot is taken by Shannon Hammer during tournament action against St. Thomas Aquinas.

The purpose of Mary Chapman's position is to dribble down court and work the ball in for the good percentage shot.

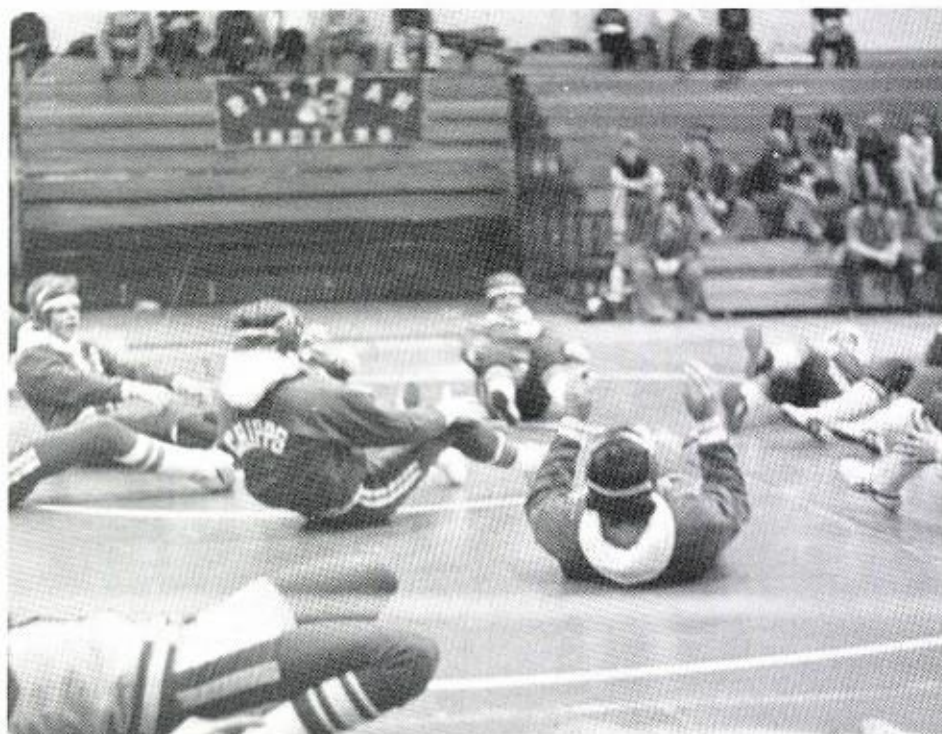

Sometimes an action shot draws a foul and permits Carol Boyan to sink two freebees.

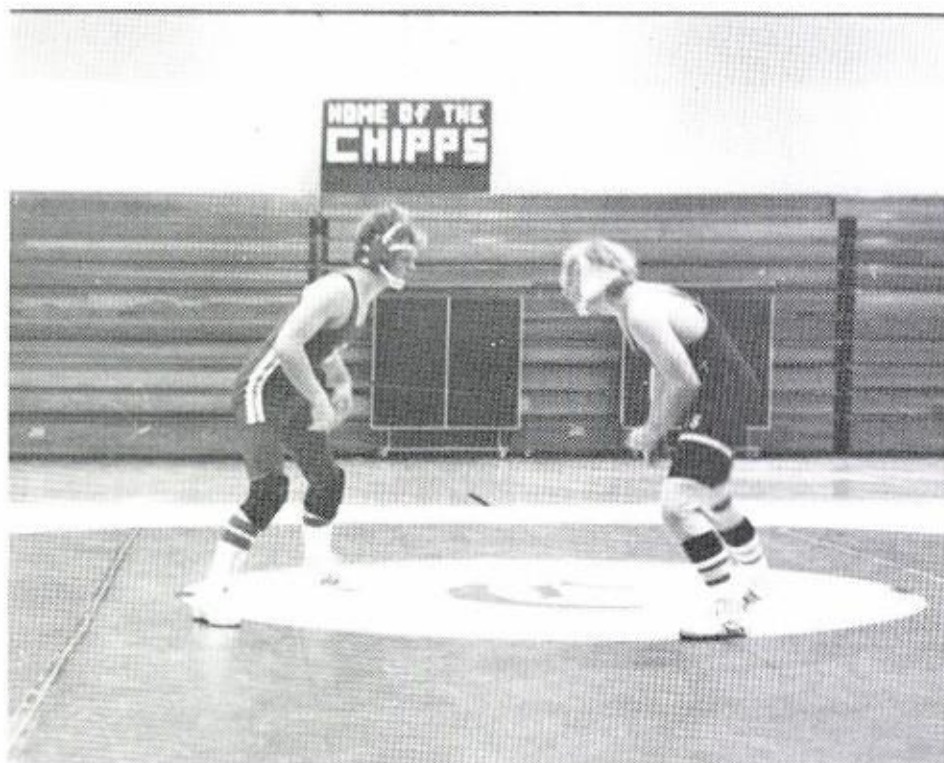

WEIGHT WATCHING WINNERS

The highlight of this year's wrestling season was the victory at the W.C.L. tournament. There were four county champs, and John Srock was voted the tourney's most valuable wrestler. The Chipp Wrestlers finished the season with a 5-2 dual record, placed eighth in the sectional and sent three wrestlers to districts. They were Jerry Busson, John Srock and Don Srock.

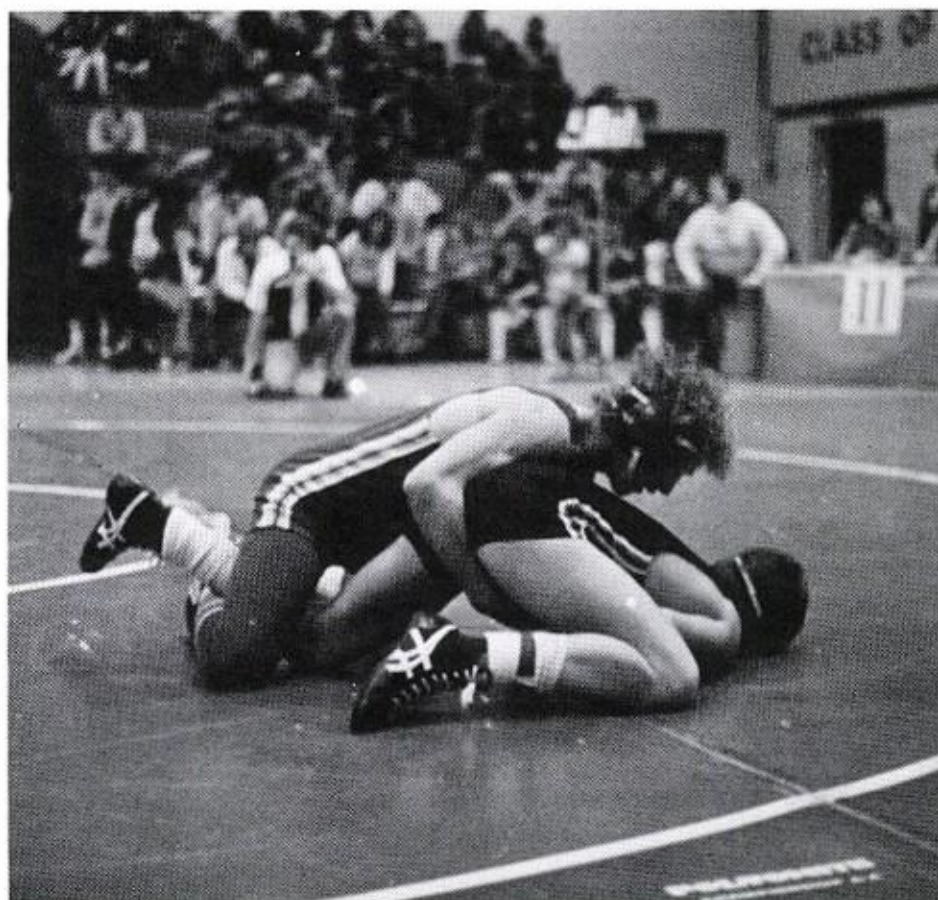

The team voted Jerry Busson most valuable wrestler and John Srock most improved wrestler.

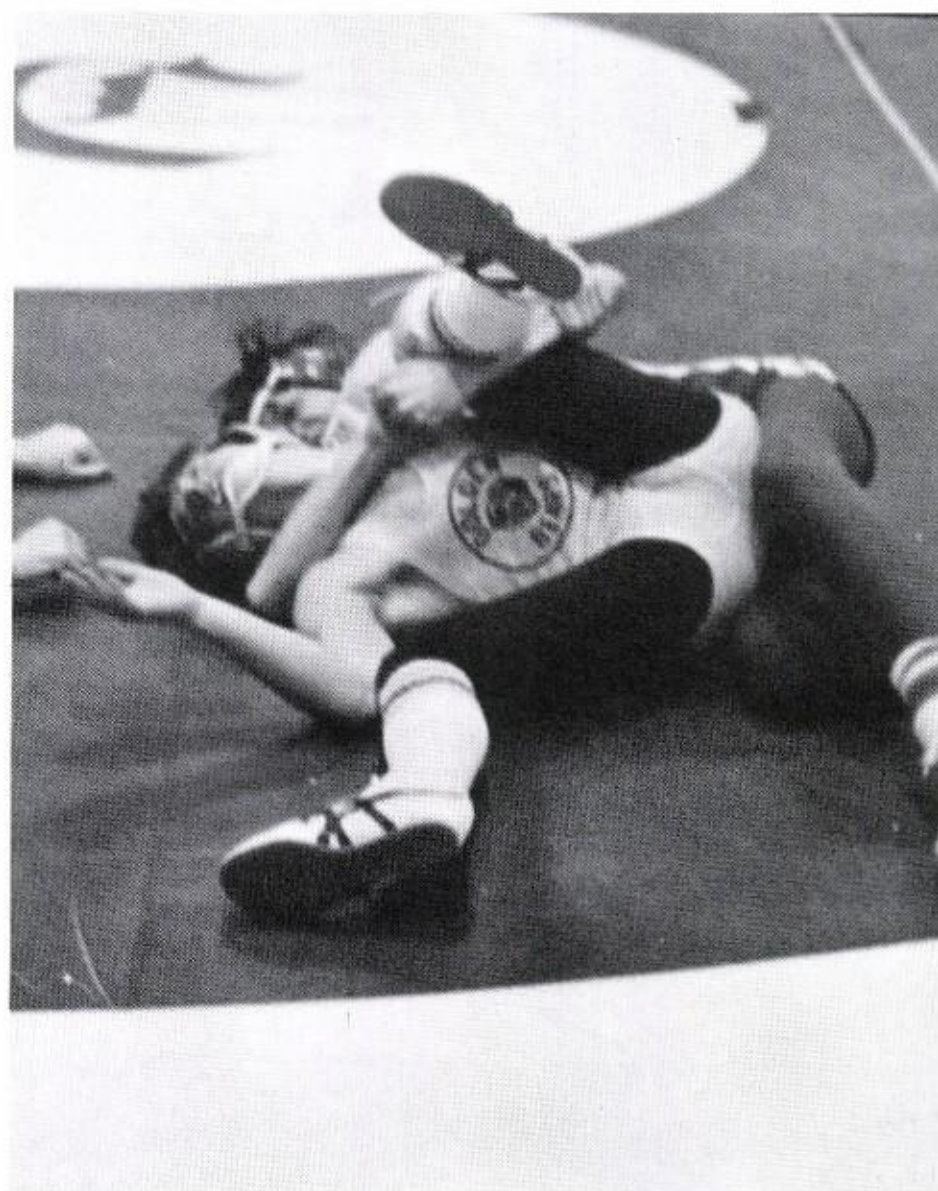

Sit-ups during the team warmup before the county match help the wrestlers loosen up for their individual matches.

From the neutral position Albert Birks sizes up his opponent and searches for some clues to what his next move might be.

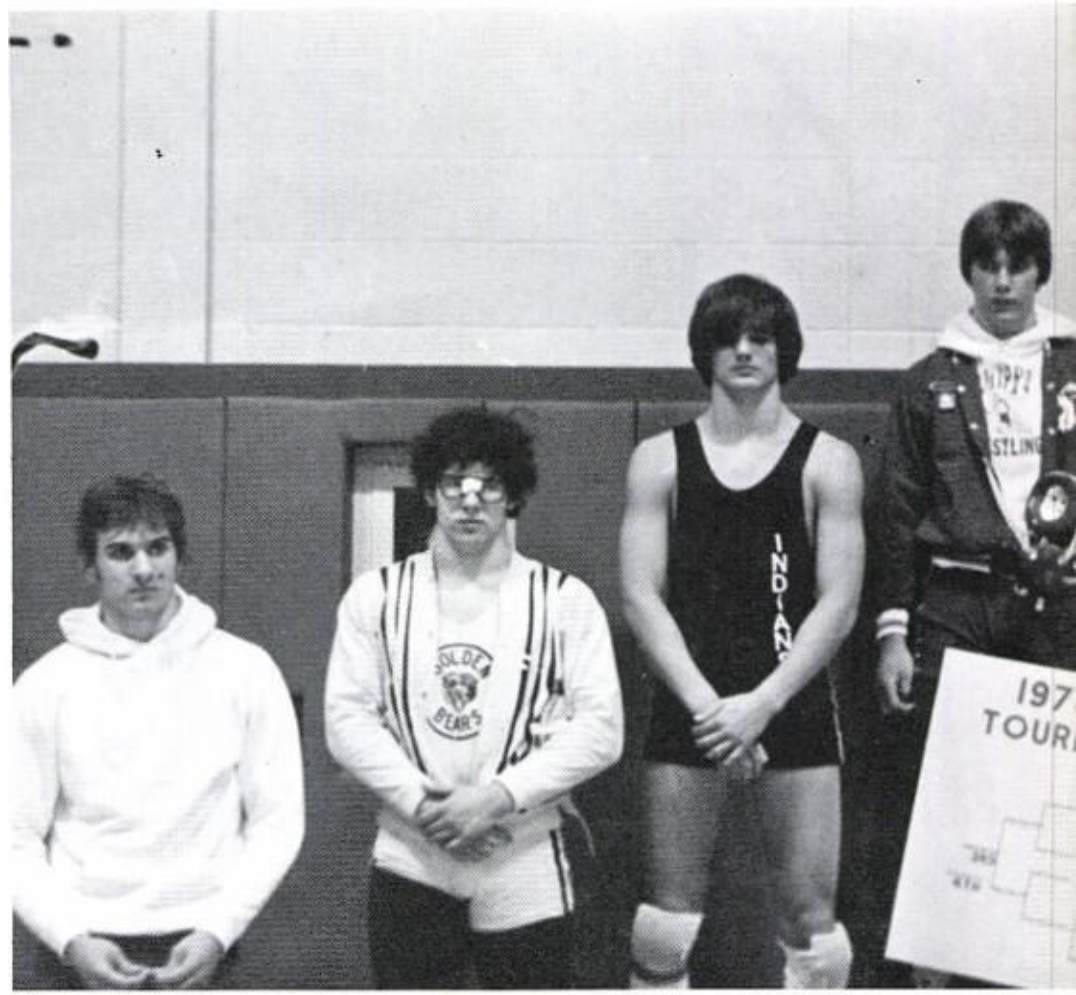

In order to put his Rittman opponent on his back and work toward a pin, Jeff Butzer threads the needle.

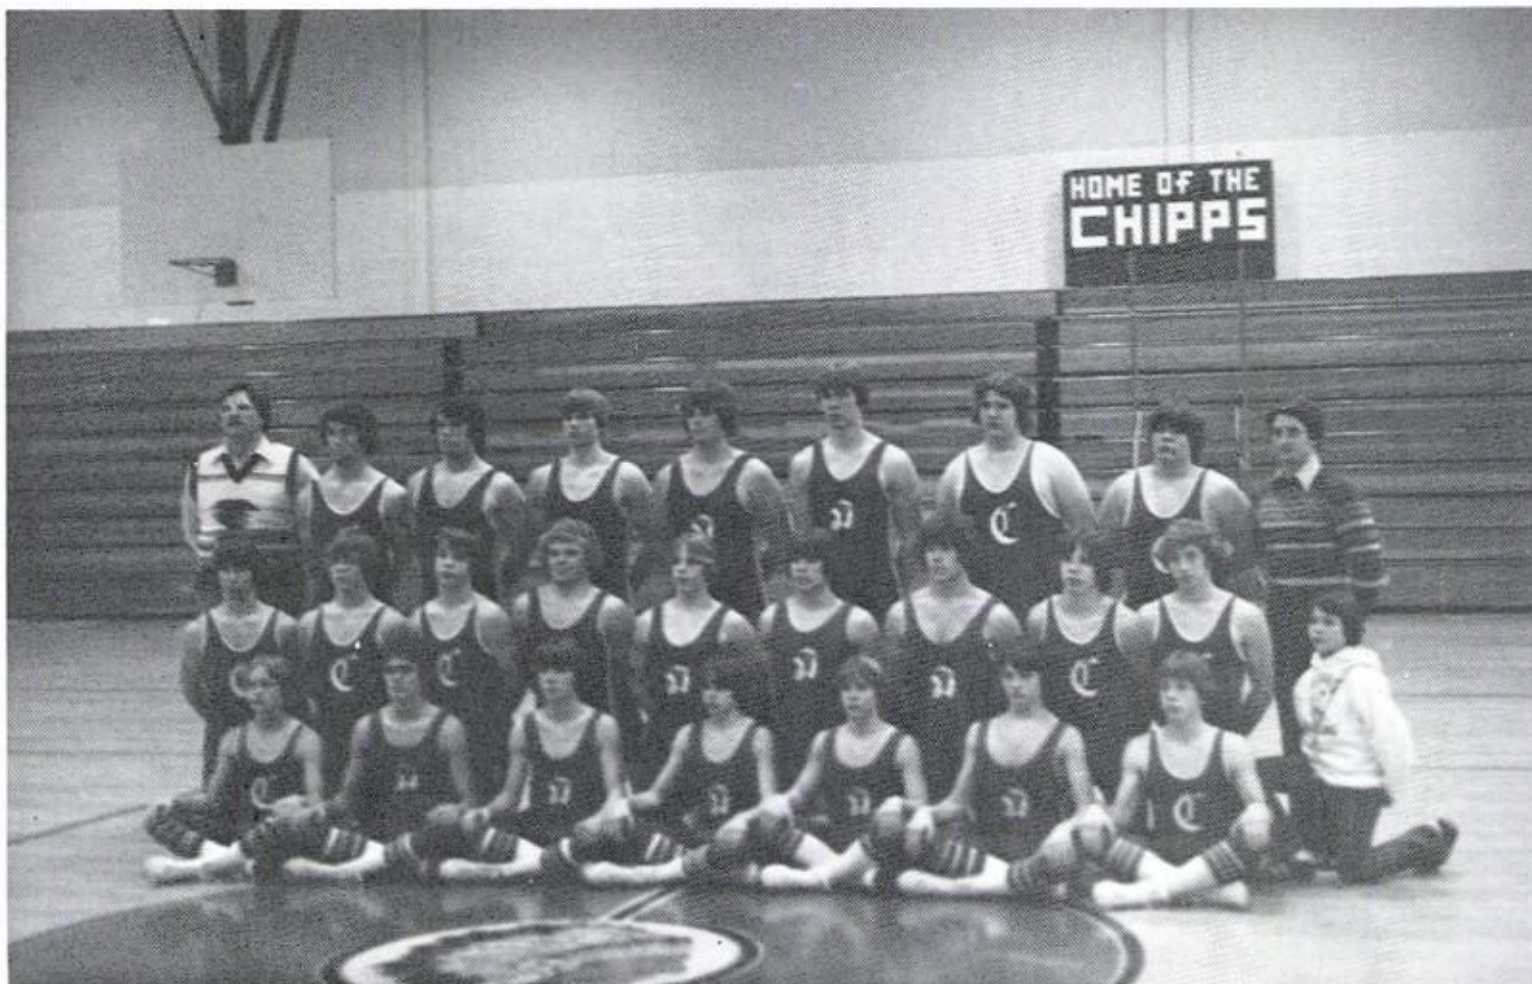

The cradle is a good move to use for scoring back points. Tony Genet uses it to keep his Waynedale opponent on his back.

Tri Captain Jerry Busson signals victory and a W.C.L. crown for him and a championship for the team.

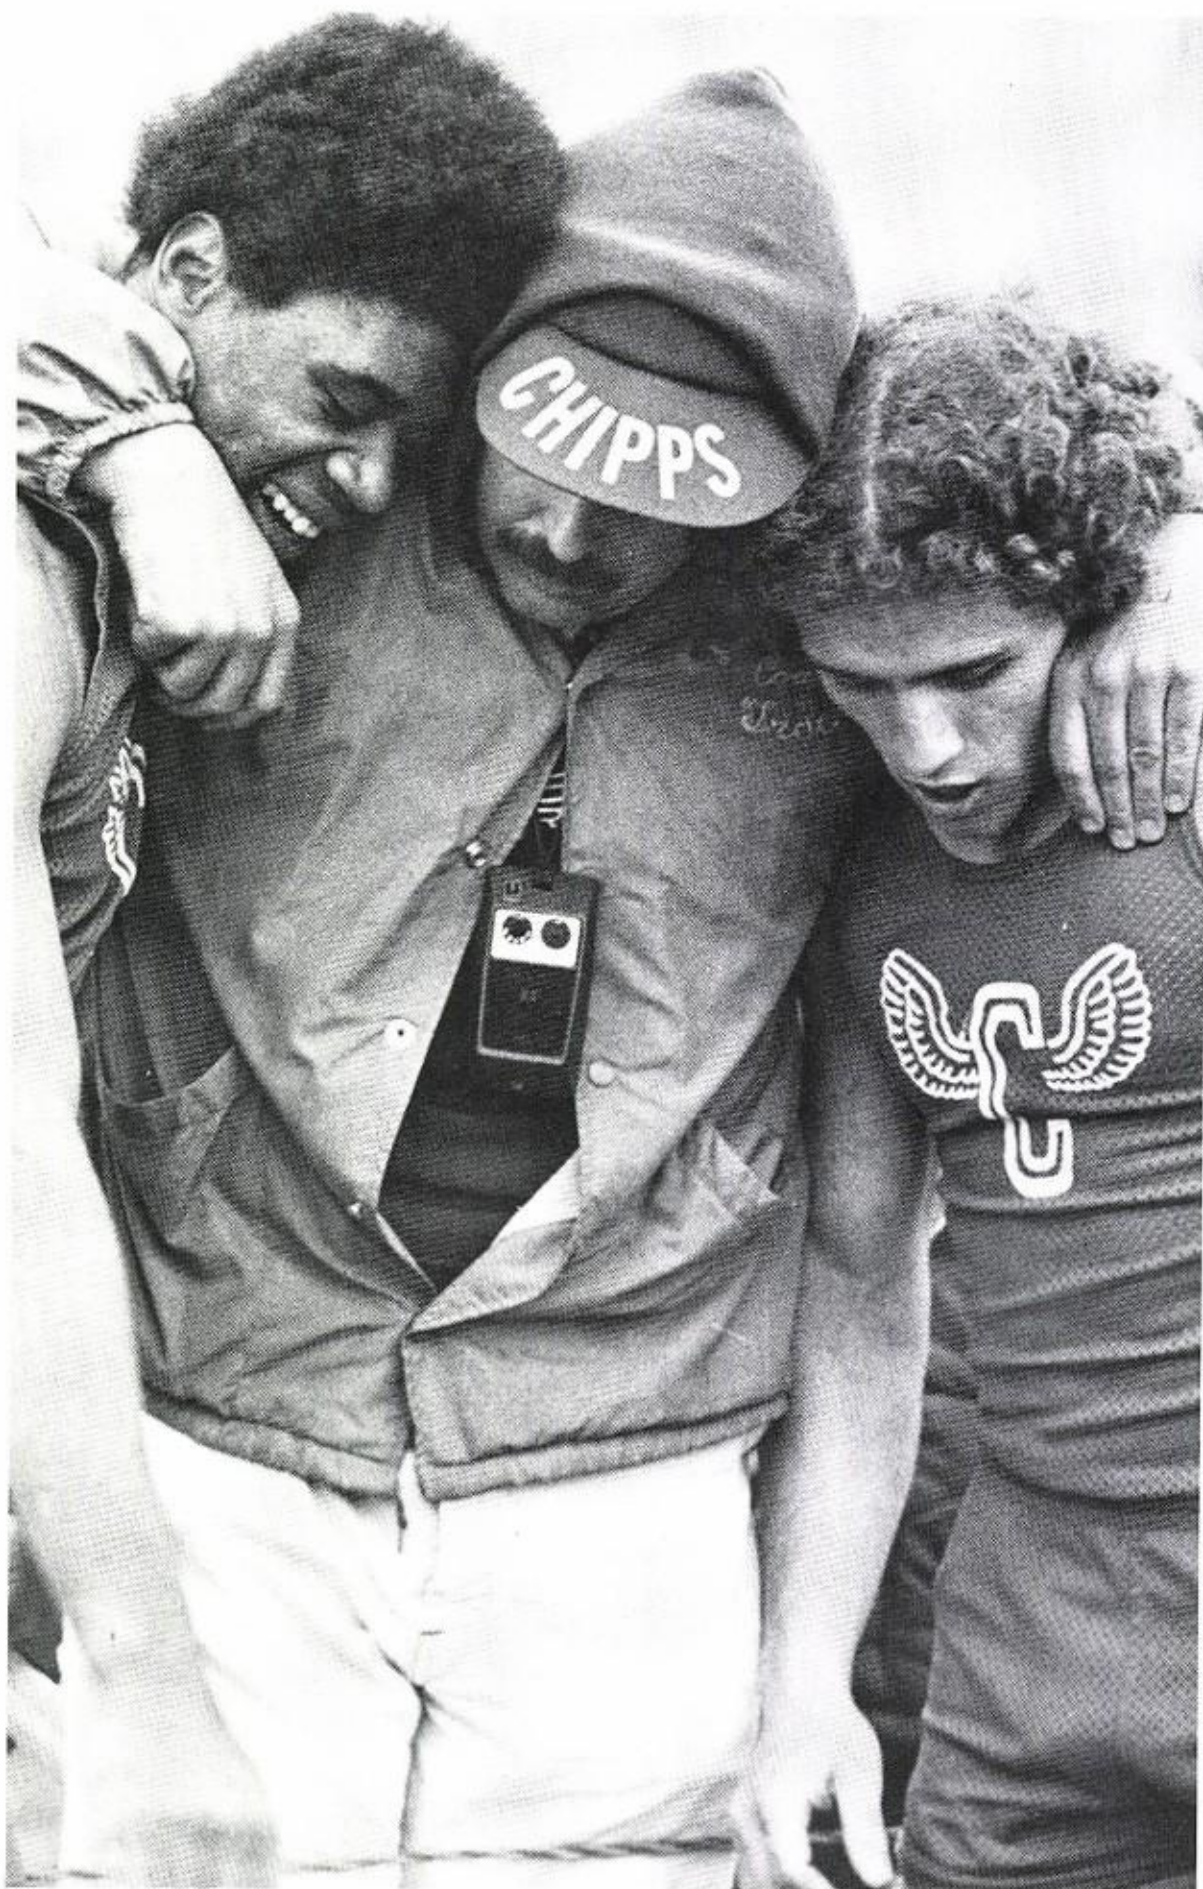

The top step is reserved for the champion. Don Srock towers over his opponent, bracket sheet and title in hand.

WRESTLING TEAM: FRONT ROW; S. Fleming, D. Purdy, M. Eggert, D. Sorrel, J. Rogal, T. Genet, K. Bachman, ROW 2; D. Kallenborn, F. Jewett, J. Walsh, A. Birks, M. Dakoski, J. Busson, J. Huffman, R. Busson, K. Bachman, G. Pond, ROW 3; Coach Krajeik, T. Williams, M. Williams, J. Srock, S. Purdy, D. Srock, B. Fouty, D. Gromofsky, Coach White.

CHALLENGE ON CINDERS

The '77-'78 Boys Track team had a season to be proud of. They won first place honors at the Smithville Night Relays, the Doylestown Invitational, and the Claymont Relays. Freshman and Sophomore boys and girls won the WCL combined team score. The dual meet record was 4-1. Nine boys qualified for districts. The Most Improved Award went to Jerry Underwood; Total Points and Most Valuable Field to Kirk Carpenter; Most Valuable Runner went to Phil Sales, Most Dedicated went to Jeff Grigsby; Tony Williams got the Coaches Award.

Head Coach Dennis Schrock continues the togetherness which 880-yard relay runners Jeff Sales and Kirk Carpenter felt as they and their teammates took second place at the Kent Stark Branch to qualify for districts.

Discus hurler Mike Williams launches a strong heave in Invitational Competition.

Record-breaking form sends Phil Sales gliding over one of the ten high hurdles that make up the 120-yard course.

Versatile Keith Anderson piles up points in both field and running events.

There is no letting up in the 880-yard run. District qualifier and county record holder Frank Russell's final push drives him into the finish line.

Track Court And Escorts: D. Lepley, T. McNutt, C. Boyan, K. Carpenter, N. Hoff, M. Brandenstein, J. Petit, P. Sales, L. Boyan, M. Williams, R. Gromofsky, S. Pond.

ON THE RIGHT TRACK

This year there were many changes for the girls track team. There was a new coach and all the girls and guys meets were run together. The girls finished first in the county and sectional meets, and sent two girls to the state track meet, Carol Boyan and Sandy Nagy, who finished fourth and sixth respectively.

The team has a fully set of stretching exercises that they use. Jackie Butzer loosens up so she is ready to run.

The "set" position is a moment of anticipation. Carol Boyan, the lead off runner of the 440-yard relay, gets set for the gun.

The placement of the baton is important in any relay, Norma Hoff hands off to Joan Shultz during the mile relay.

So as not to get disqualified Carol Boyan and Beth Myatt, members of the 440-yard relay team, listen to the starter's instructions.

The hand offs are important, but so is what happens between; Judi Williams takes the baton around the curve in the 880 relay.

The determination and dedication that a distance runner needs is shown by Celeste Cook and Karen Molnar as they participate in the mile run at districts.

For the third year Carol Boyan qualifies to the state track meet in the hurdles. At the district track meet Carol's form and face show the many hours of practice and determination she puts into a race.

Track Court and Escourts: D. Lepley, T. McNutt, C. Boyan, J. Rohr, N. Hoff, B. Steiner, B. Bailey, J. Underwood, J. Shultz, M. Brandenstein, King, V. Gromofsky, D. Lepley

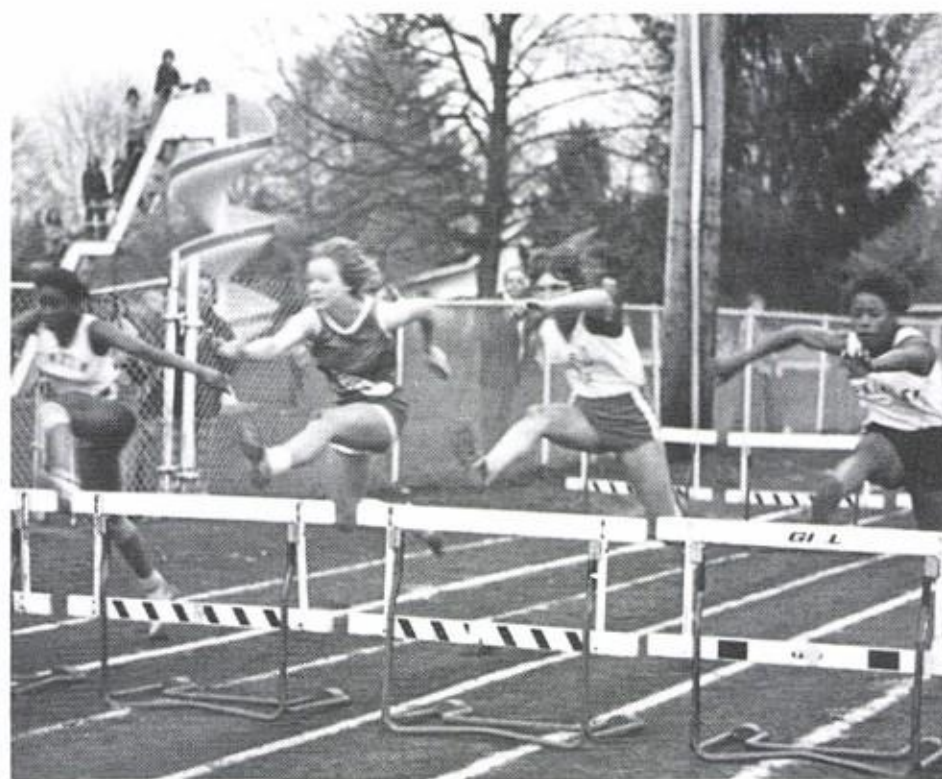

The final flow of adrenalin gives Linda Boyan the needed energy to kick in to the finish of the 220.

After the finish of their events Sandy Nagy and Barb Bailey help keep other team members calm with their easy going ways.

The Doylestown Invitational gives Debbie Lepley and Jackie Butzer the chance to gain experience.

Freshman hurdler Diana Ashley concentrates on the form and on staying out front as she goes over the hurdles.

VARSIY BATMEN

The 1978 Chipp Varsity Baseball team was faced with the challenge of capturing the W.C.L. crown for two years in a row. The squad, coached by Denny Lloyd, produced a season to be proud of. Compiling a 14-5 overall and 10-4 league record was good enough to finish second in the league. The season, extremely tense at times, was a hard fought battle for first place. At one point in the season four squads were tied for the number one position. Having defeated top contenders Norwayne and Rittman twice, the title rode on the last game against Hillsdale; a win would assure the Chipps the championship. A highly emotional and disappointing game for the Chipps gave the Falcons a 6-4 victory. Finishing only behind Rittman in the league, Doylestown shared the second place spot with Northwestern. Receiving awards were Senior Jerry Huffman who was voted as Best Pitcher, Best Offensive Player, and Most Valuable Player. Dave Roach, Senior letterman, earned the Coach's Award.

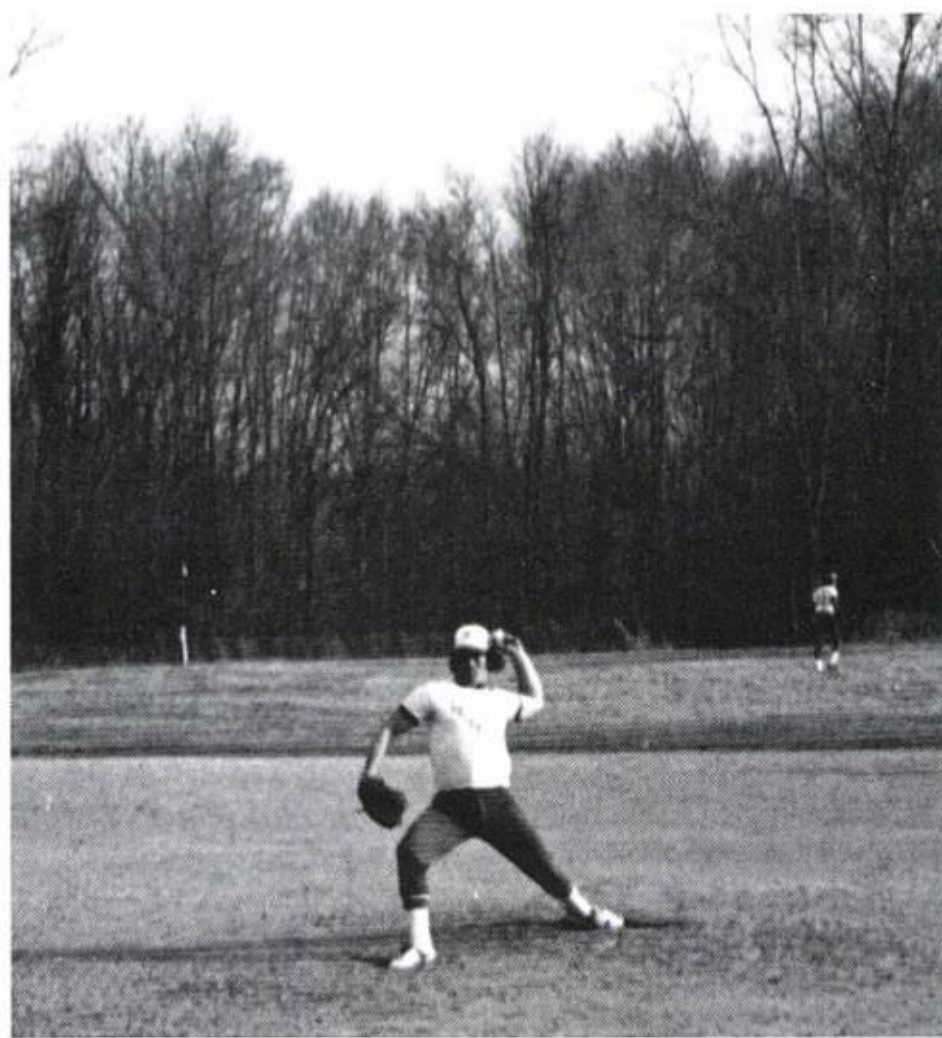

An alert opponent makes it impossible for first baseman Dave Stockwell to make a pick-off play.

VARSIY BASEBALL: Front Row; T. Haller, batboy, Row 2; J. Busson, J. Pride, D. Wehling, J. Dakoski, R. Busson, G. Lindeman, Row 3; J. Huffman, D. Stockwell, T. Pappas, D. Roach, J. Feesler, B. Whitehead, J. Bereny, J. Harvey, Coach Lloyd.

Inclement weather causes more labor for Busson's field keepers to ready the playing area so the Chippies' schedule can be completed.

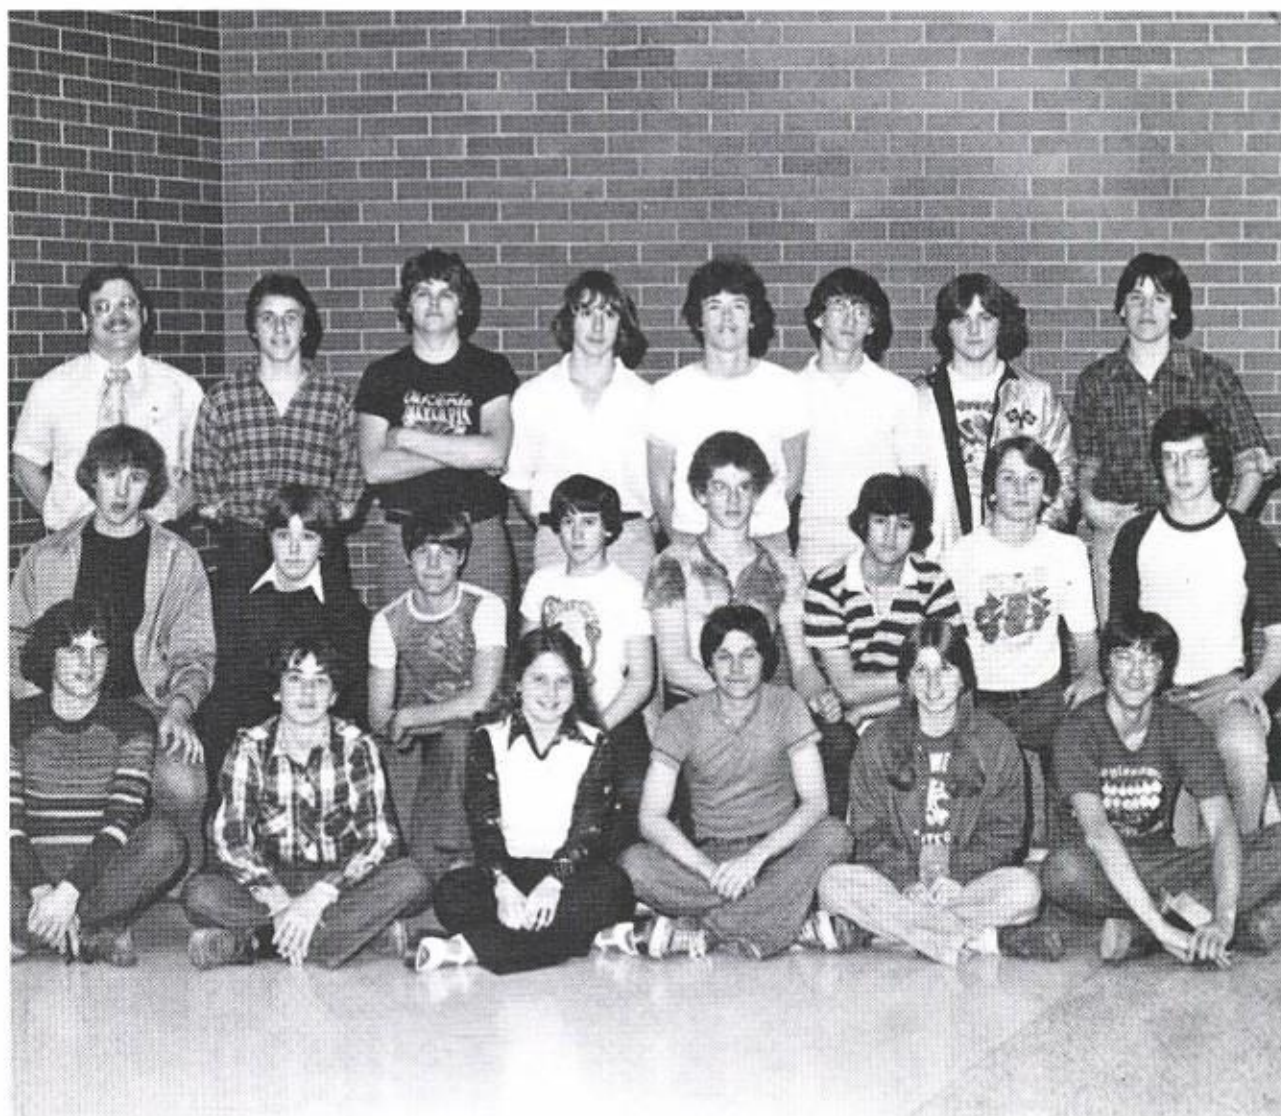

Pitching ace Jerry Huffman's E.R.A. of 2.17 and batting average of .473 are the reasons he is this year's most valuable player.

The challenge intensifies for Senior Dave Roach to beat the ball to first base as Smithie opponent stretches within inches to nab the throw from the pitcher.

RESERVES

The 1978 Reserve baseball team, coached by Rob Marshall, compiled a 4-5 league and 4-9 overall record. Consisting of many rookies, the team was lacking experience. As the season progressed, the quality of play improved. Despite many cancelled games as a result of rainy weather, these young Chipps gained valuable insight for their future years playing Varsity ball.

RESERVE BASEBALL: Front Row; M. Manning, T. Lepley, J. Steiner, T. Storad, C. Burns, T. Taray; Row 2; M. Funk, B. Dannemiller, B. Burton, B. Foster, D. Taray, J. Lusk, J. Frizell; Row 3; Coach Marshall, D. Dakoski, J. Mollohan, L. Witschey, M. Stoner, D. Watts, M. Anderson, C. Tucker.

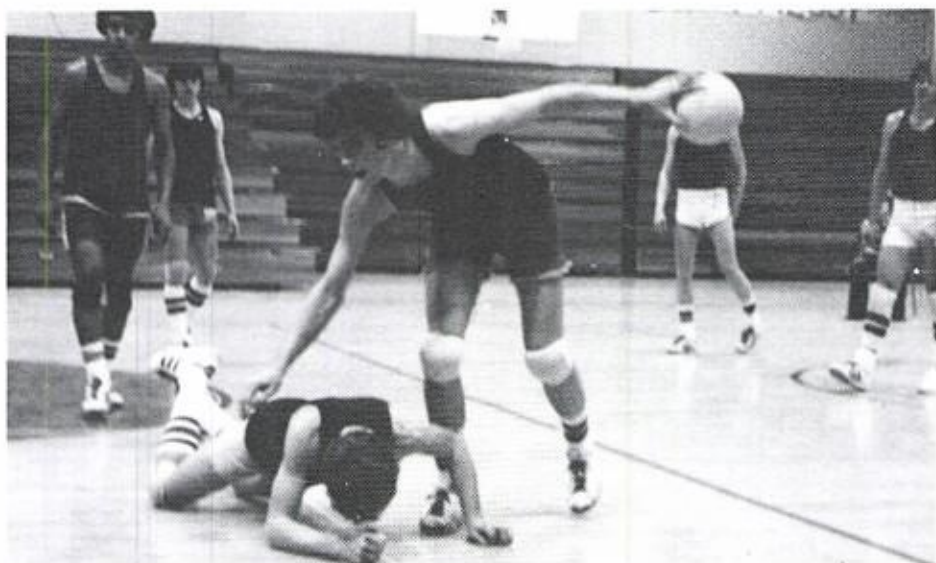

Varsity and Reserve player Gary Lindeman comes to the assistance of varsity teammate Jim Feesler as he makes an effort to recover a well-hit ball from his Waynedale opponent.

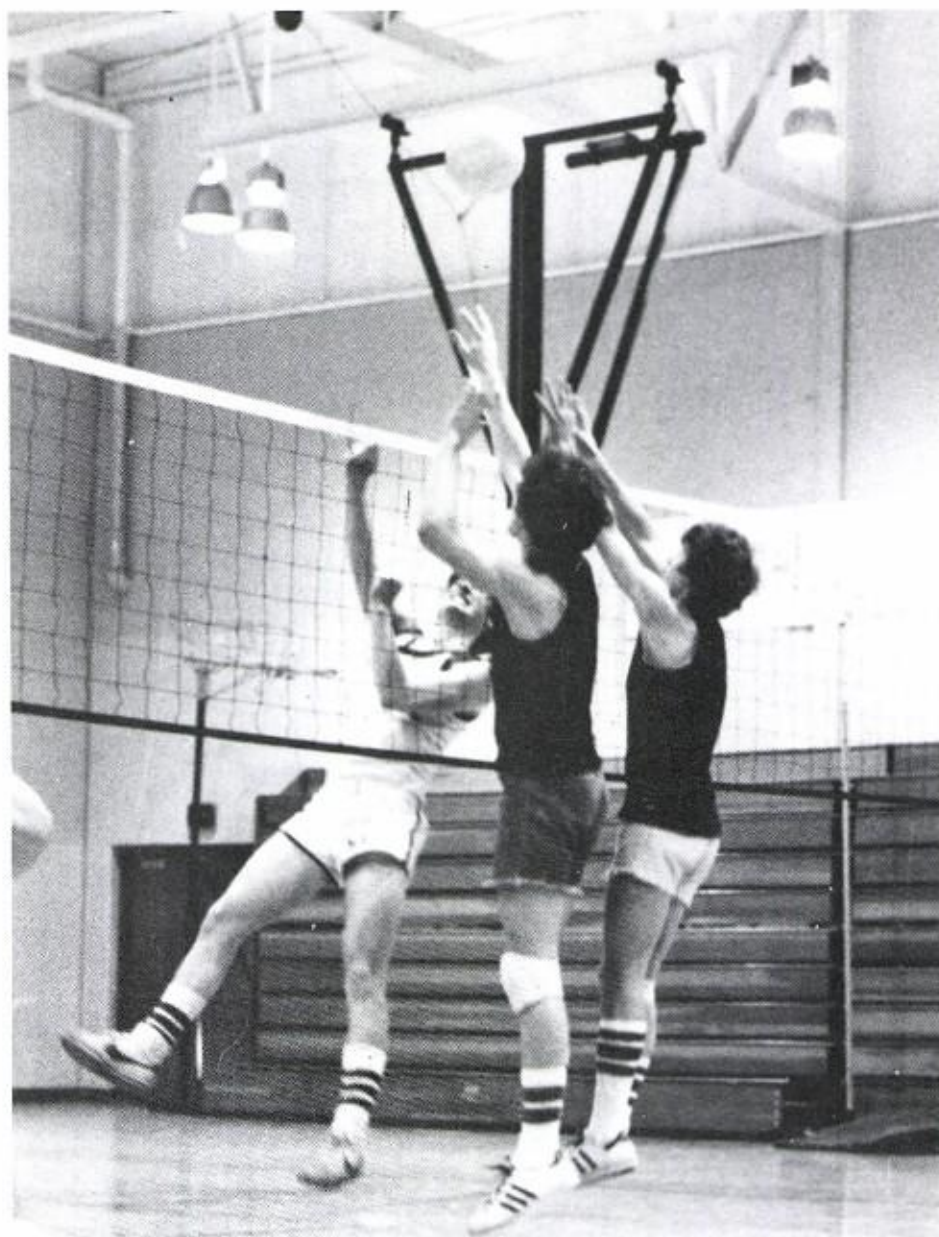

CHAMPS AGAIN

The CHS boys volleyball team was victorious once again as they racked up a first place to defend their title. Other schools that participated in the tournament were Cuyahoga Valley Christian Academy, Norton, Rittman, Waynedale, and W.C.J.V.S.

Coach Ernie Moore and his team practiced long and hard for the tournament. The first game they had a bye but quickly knocked off Cuyahoga in their second match. This put the mighty blue and white into the finals against our rivals Rittman. But the Chippys pulled through to remain number one.

Teammates watch as Mike Moore helps Jim Rohr after the agony of a missed shot. However the Chippys still retain their title.

The defensive duet of senior Mike Moore and junior Jim Rohr jump the height of the net to block the ball.

Volleyball Team: Front Row; B. Steiner, J. Rohr, M. Moore, P. Sales, J. Dakoski, D. Roach, Row 2; T. Pappas, B. Whitehead, D. Dannemiller, J. Underwood, J. Frizell, D. Lepley, Row 3; Coach Ernie Moore

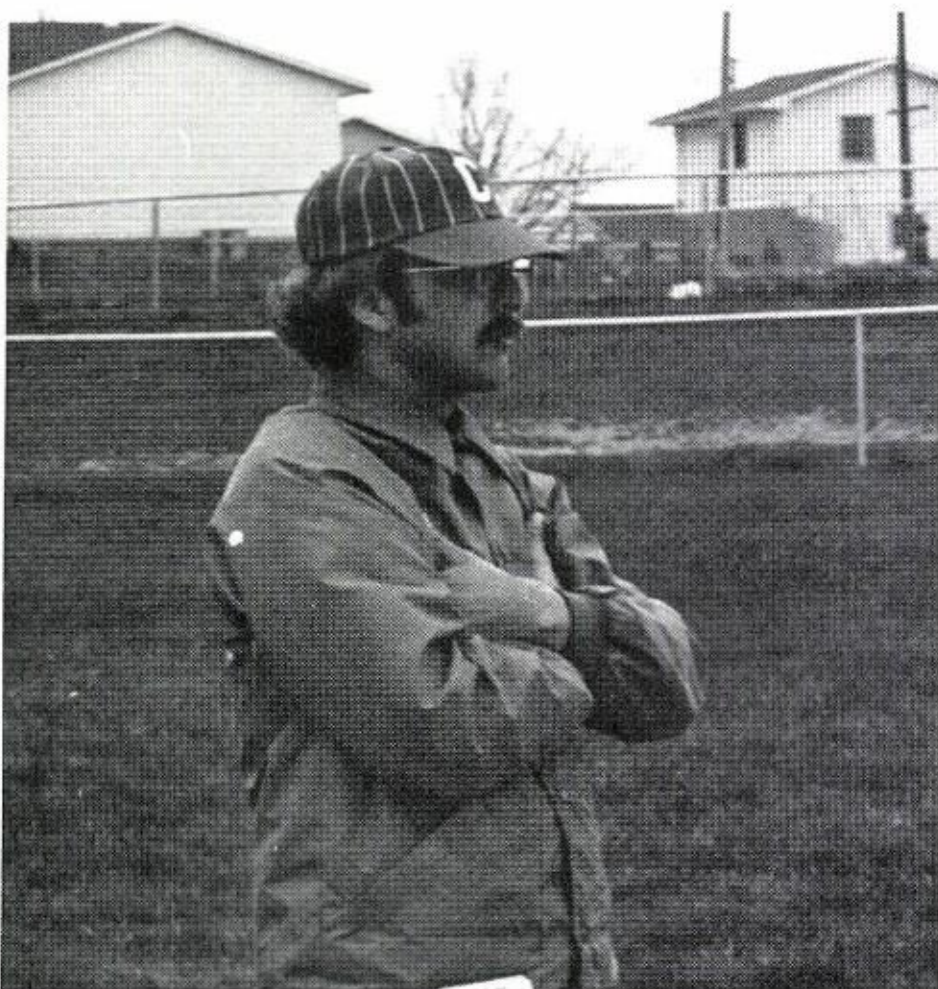

Bill Whitehead watches his teammates do the job as Bruce Steiner sets up the volleyball for Phillip Sales's leap and spike against the opponets.

DIAMOND LADIES

The Chippette softball team finished the season with a 1-12 record. Their sole win came in the first round of sectionals against Norwayne.

Diane Lindeman received the Most Valuable Player award while the Sportsmanship award was given to Carole Miller.

Diane and Dianna Troyer made All-League and Jill Huffman and Carole made Honorable Mention. Things look promising for next year as there were only two seniors and two juniors on this year's squad.

Chippewa's Most Dedicated Coach maintains good team spirits even when victories are hard to come by.

While Carole Miller crouches into position at first base, Chris Benak delivers a strike across home plate.

With a look of determination and the beginning of a powerful swing, Kathy Hanawalt anticipates the pitch.

When Jill Huffman realizes that the oncoming ball is high, she immediately rises to the occasion and fulfilling her job, sees to it that the ball doesn't get past her.

Another solid hit places sophomore Pam Burns safely on second base.

Even the fine techniques of Most Valuable Player Diane Lindeman were not enough to stop the opponent from advancing to second. Dianna Troyer acts as a backup for Diane.

This time Diane Lindeman's efforts pay off while Dianna Troyer and rightfielder Lisa Baker watch the out.

NET ACTION

For the Chipps tennis team the year started well and ended even better. In January a Rock-a-thon was held netting the team over $500.00 which was used for indoor practices and team trips. The 1977-78 Varsity team finished the year with a record of 8-10 after being rained out many times. At Sectionals, 2nd singles player, Diana Cook became the first girl to qualify for Districts. At the Spring Sports Banquet Diana was also chosen Most Valuable Player, Jim Osivnik received Most Improved, and Craig Mullett received the Sportmanship Award.

VARSITY TENNIS: Front Row; Coach Papp, J. Hartney, G. Burns, J. Osivnik, D. Cook, D. Whitman, C. Mullett, J. Kasburg.

The roving camera of Al Birks catches Jon Hartney and Tami Stanley waiting on the other side of the fence for Jon's turn to play.

The service is an essential part of any tennis game. Greg Burns demonstrates the form that leads to his first singles position.

Dave Whitman, well on his way to beating his Norwayne opponent, plays on private courts owned by Don Cameron.

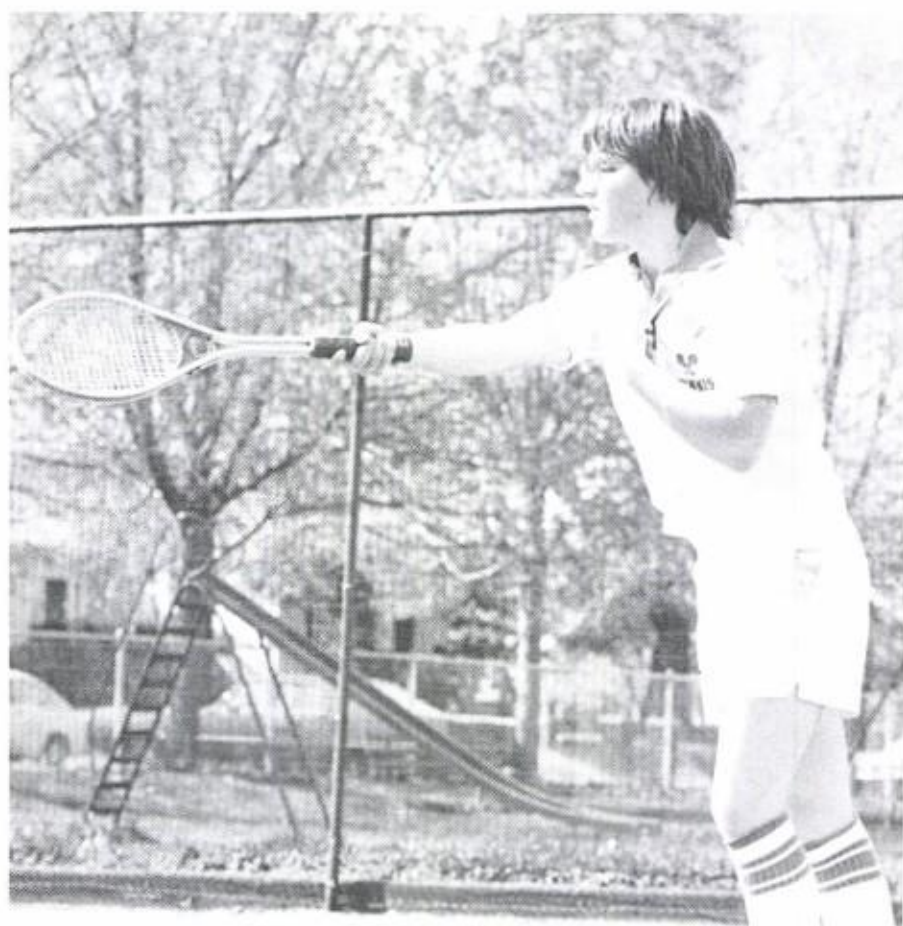

One of the highlights of the year, the trip to the Billy Jean King Tennis Clinic, allows varsity and reserve players to meet Billy Jean King.

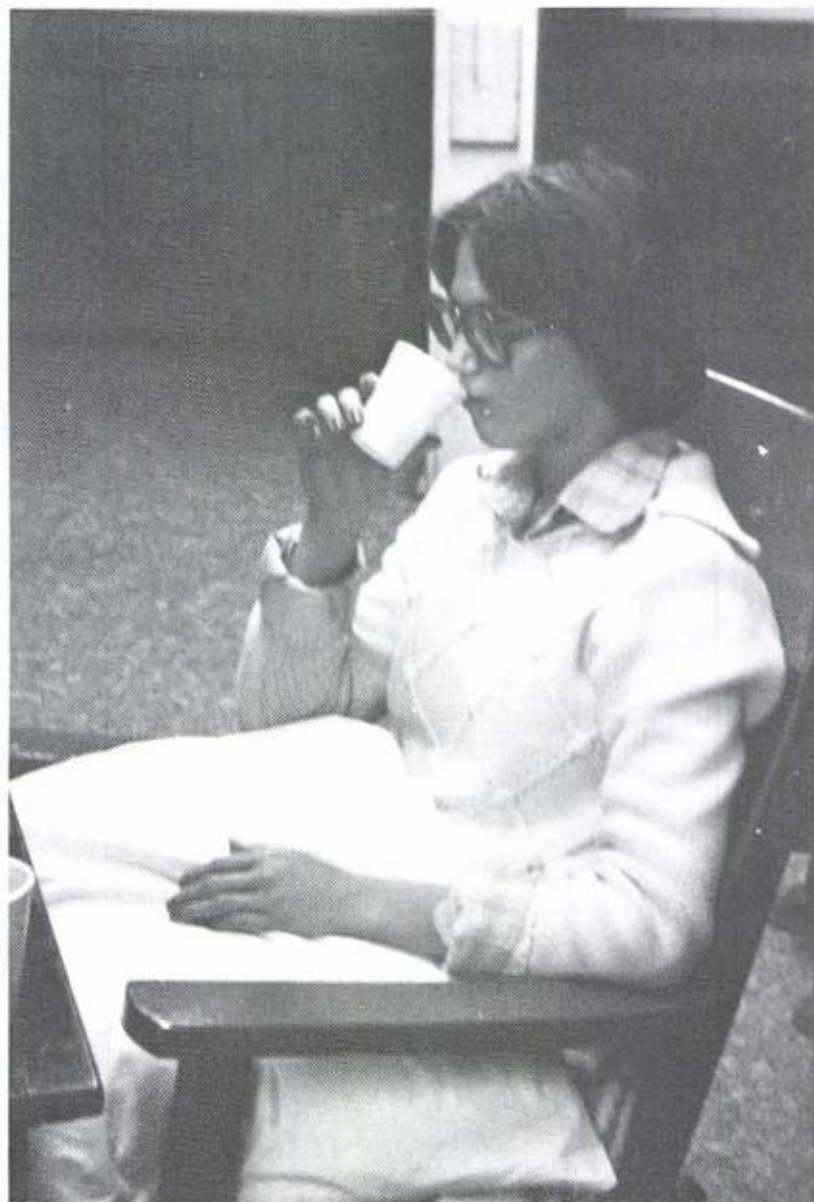

Concentrating intently, Greg Burns keep his eyes on the ball as he sends it flying across the net to his waiting opponent.

While Coach Papp's entourage looks on, he features the look which enables him to win friends and influence tennis players.

Sophomore Craig Mullet, the team good sport, acquires valuable varsity experience playing both doubles and singles.

A Thought For The Class of '78

Perhaps the most valuable result of all education is the ability to make yourself do the thing you have to do, when it ought to be done whether you like it or not; it is the first lesson that ought to be learned; and however early a man's training begins; it is probably the last lesson that he learns thoroughly.
